LAWS OF ALABAMA.

[No. 1.]

AN ACT

To alter the mode of assessing and collecting the Taxes for the County of Pickens, and for other purposes. 1841.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, That it shall be the duty of the judge of the county court and commissioners of roads and revenue, for the county of Pickens, at the first commissioners' court for said county, after the first Monday in March in each and every year, (provided there be no commissioners' court before the third Monday in May, the judge of the county court may call a court for that purpose,) to appoint one of the justices of the peace in every beat in said county, to assess all the property subject to taxation, in their respective beats, according to the law now in force: Provided, however, that in the absence of the judge, the commissioners of roads and revenue, or any three of them, may make the above appointment. Duty of Judges, &c. Proviso.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk of the county court of said county, to transmit to each of the justices so appointed, on or by the fifteenth day of June, a list of the property subject to taxation, with a formula of the manner of the assessment, under the direction and supervision of the judge of the county court. Clerk's duty.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the persons appointed assessors shall, before they enter upon the duties of assessors, give bond with approved security, in the sum of two hundred dollars, payable to the county treasurer, or his successor in office, conditioned, faithfully to discharge the duties of their office, and shall take an oath to perform the same to the best of his ability: Provided, that when the person appointed shall be a justice of the peace, and he has given bond as now provided for by law, for the faithful discharge of the duties of magistrate, it shall not be necessary for such person to give a new bond; but a failure to discharge the duties of assessor faithfully, shall work a forfeiture of his bond as justice, and may be sued upon as often as violated, and recovery had for the use of the county. Bond of Assessors. Proviso.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That should a vacancy occur in any beat, by death, resignation, refusal to act, or other Vacancies.

cause, the judge of the county court, with, or without the commissioners, may supply the vacancy, by the appointment of another justice of the peace, or some other person.

Assessors to advertise.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the assessors so appointed, after advertisement as now prescribed by law, to proceed to assess all the property liable to taxation in their respective beats, with the names of all and every person owning such property, or who are liable to taxation under the existing laws.

To make return.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the assessors of taxes appointed as above, shall, on or before the second Monday in August, in each and every year, make out a list of all persons, the amount of their property, that are subject to taxation, in alphabetical order, and return the same, duly certified, to the clerk of the county court of said county.

Duty of Clerk of County Court.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk of the county court in each and every year, by the first of September, to consolidate the returns of all the assessors in the county, in a book to be prepared and kept by him, for that purpose, and subject to the inspection of every person who may wish to examine it: and it shall further be his duty to make out two copies thereof, with the amount in money, run out, both in the book and the copies, one of which he shall deliver to the county treasurer, and the other to the tax collector, and take their receipts for the same, which he shall file in his office; and for these services, he shall be entitled to such compensation as the judge and commissioners may deem just, to be paid out of the treasury of the county, on the exhibition of said receipts.

Compensation to Assessors.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That said assessors shall receive for their services respectively, four per cent. on the amount assessed, to be paid by the tax collector of the county, out of the tax of said county, upon the certificate of the clerk being presented, that the holder has made due return of his assessment, which certificate shall express the amount of such assessment.

On failure to give in tax.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That the different persons appointed under the provisions of this act as assessors, shall be regulated and governed by the law now in force: Provided however, that if any person shall fail to give in a list of his or her taxable property, by the first Monday in August, in each and every year, he, she, or they so failing, shall be liable to double assessment; and it shall be the duty of the assessor, so to render it, according to the best of his knowledge.

Sheriff to collect &c.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That the tax collector, who shall be the sheriff of said county as now prescribed by law, shall proceed to collect all taxes as assessed, and make due returns of all moneys by him collected, by the first day of January in each and every year: Provided, that upon a settlement with the county treasurer, the tax collector shall be allowed to retain in his hands six per centum on the amount by him actually collected and paid over.

Proviso.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the tax collector to advertise in the manner now prescribed by law, and attend to each beat at least twice, for the purpose of receiving the taxes between the first of September and the first day of December, in each and every year; and all those who do not pay up their assessments previous to the first of December, the tax collector is hereby authorized and empowered, to proceed against them, in person or by deputy; and make the money by distress and sale of property, and to charge constables' costs for the same.

Collector to advertise and sell.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That the books of assessment herein required to be made out, shall have the force of executions, and sums due therein, after the aforesaid first of December, may be collected accordingly.

Books to have force.

Sec. 13. And be it further enacted, That the tax collector shall be held bound for the assessment, and shall not be allowed any thing for insolvencies, unless first allowed and certified by the judge of the county court, which he shall do, if done at all, by the fifth day of January in each and every year, but subject to the approval of the commissioners; and it shall be the duty of the treasurer for said county, to carefully examine the collector's collection book, and compare it with the assessment, and report the result of such examination, with a list of the insolvencies as certified by the judge to the first commissioners' court in each and every year, in said county; and on failure of the tax collector to make complete settlement with the county treasurer, which he is hereby required to do, before said first commissioners' court, it shall be the duty of the treasurer, by giving the tax collector one day's notice of the same, to proceed against him by motion before said court, whose duty it shall be, after hearing such evidence as may be offered, to render judgment against such collector for all such sums as he may have failed to collect, as in the judgment of the court may be proper and just, and collect accordingly: and for failure of the treasurer to perform the duties required of him in this section, he may be fined at the discretion of the court, in a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Collector res. ponsible for taxes, &c.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners of roads and revenue, or a majority of them, at least once in every year, to carefully and fully examine, so far as relates to the funds, dues and accounts of the county, the books, accounts and vouchers of the clerks of the circuit and county court, and the books, accounts and vouchers of the sheriff and treasurer of said county: and it shall be the duty of the aforesaid officers, to make a full and complete exhibit of ever book, document or paper, that the said commissioners may demand, having any relation to the funds of said county; and on failure to make such exhibit, or any part thereof, without good cause, said officers, or any one of them, may be fined at a regular commissioners court, in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be recovered as other fines and forfeitures: and after such examination as may

Proviso. be satisfactory to said commissioners, they may take such action thereon as in their judgment may be proper for the interests of said county: Provided, the same be consistent with the laws of this State: and for these services, said commissioners shall receive such pay as is now allowed by law for other services.

Interest. Sec. 15. And be it further enacted, That the clerk of the circuit and county court, sheriff and treasurer for said county, shall pay interest on all sums of money improperly held in their hands, belonging to the county, unless released from the same by order of the commissioners' court.

Repeal. Sec. 16. And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws, contravening and conflicting with the provisions of this act be, and the same are, hereby repealed.

To be published. Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk of the county court to cause this act to be published for two weeks in the Pickensville Register, and charge the same to the county.

D. one thousand, eight hundred and forty-one, in the manner prescribed by an act entitled "an act to incorporate the town of Eutaw," approved January thirty-first, one thousand, eight hundred and forty; and all subsequent elections of said intendant and councillors of said town, shall be holden on the first Monday in January, in each and every year, at the court house of Greene county, in said town; or such other public place in said town, as the intendant and council of said town, may, by ordinance, direct and appoint; and all such elections shall be holden by and before the acting intendant and two councillors, or before the councillors of said town, and shall be by ballot, and conducted as elections for members of the State Legislature are conducted, and at such elections, one councillor shall be elected for each of the four wards of said town, each voter being allowed to vote for four persons as councillors: Provided, that he shall not be allowed to vote for two or more persons as councillors living in the same ward, and that he shall designate on his ticket or ballot, the name of the person voted for, and the number of the ward for which he is voted for as councillor; and that no person shall be voted for as councillor in any ward, unless he is at the time, a resident citizen of that ward; and all tickets not given in conformity with this proviso, shall be rejected by the officers holding the election.

Elections.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That at the close of any such election, the officers conducting the same shall cause the person receiving the highest number of lawful votes as Intendant, to be declared and proclaimed elected Intendant for said town, and each person who shall have received the highest number of lawful votes as Councillor, for any ward, to be declared and proclaimed elected Councillor of said town, for such ward; and in case of a tie, the officers conducting such election, shall give the casting vote, and they shall give a certificate of his election to each person elected, and shall also certify the result of such election to the Intendant and Council of the town of Eutaw; and also, to the clerk of the county court of Greene county.

How conducted.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the officers holding such election, to seal up the tickets or ballots, and the polls or lists of voters, taken at such election, and carefully keep the same for ten days, next succeeding any such election; and if within the said ten days, any person being a qualified voter of said town, shall notify either of said officers, that such

Tickets to be kept.

Contested
elections.

election will be contested, it shall be the duty of said officers forthwith, to deposit the said tickets or ballots, and polls or lists of voters, sealed up as aforesaid, in the office of the clerk of the county court of Greene county, who shall endorse thereon the time when, and the person by whom the same was deposited in his office, and shall keep the same sealed up, until opened by order of the judge of the county court of Greene county.

Who may contest, and how.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That any person being a qualified voter of said town, may contest the election of any person as Intendant or Councillor of said town, in the following manner, and not otherwise: that is to say, the person desiring to contest such election, may within ten days after such election, give notice in writing to the officers who conducted such election, and to the person or persons whose election he intends to contest, of his intention to contest the same; and shall, also, within the said ten days, file a petition in the office of the clerk of the county court of Greene county, addressed to the judge of said county, setting forth his intention to contest such election, and the grounds on which he contests the same; and it shall, thereupon, be the duty of the said judge, by order in writing upon said petition, to appoint some day, not less than five nor more than thirty days from the filing of said petition, to hear and determine the same; and each party may proceed and take the affidavits of any witnesses, to be read in evidence on the trial of such petition, upon giving the opposite party one day's notice of the time and place of taking the same, which affidavit may be taken by and before any justice of the peace, or acting Intendant or Councillor of said town, without any special commission to be issued for that purpose, and being sworn to and subscribed by the witness, and testified by the person taking the same, shall be received and read in evidence on the trial of such petition: and at such trial the judge may, also, receive the oral testimony of any competent witness, who may appear before him; and the judge of the county of Greene county, is hereby authorized to hear and determine any such contest, and to decide who is legally elected Intendant or Councillor of the town of Eutaw, or to declare said election void, and order a new election: and the decision of the said judge, shall be filed in writing, upon or with the said petition, and shall be deemed a record of said court, and shall be certified by the clerk of said court, to the Intendant and Council of the town of Eutaw; and such decision shall be final, and no appeal shall be taken therefrom.

Duty of sheriff.

Proviso.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the sheriff of Greene county, to serve and return all such notices as are hereby required to be given; and he shall receive the same fees, as for serving notices in suits at law, to be paid by the person at whose instance the service was performed: Provided, however, that such notices may be served and proved by any credible person: And provided, also, that if any person on whom such notice should be served, shall be absent from said town at the time, the parties may proceed ex parte in such petition, and to take testimony ex parte, and the same shall be as good and valid as if such notice had been actually given.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That every person elected as Intendant or Councillor of said town, shall, before he enters on the discharge of the duties of his office, take and subscribe an oath, that he will faithfully discharge the duties of his office, without fear, favor or affection; which oath may be administered and certified by the acting Intendant of said town, or any justice of the peace for Greene county; and the Intendant and Councillors shall hold their offices for one year from the time of their election, and until their successors in office shall have been duly elected and qualified, as herein provided; and may fill any vacancy arising in their own body.

Oath.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That the Intendant and Council of the town of Eutaw, shall have power, and are hereby authorized to make all such ordinances and by-laws, not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this State, as they may think necessary and proper, for the good government of said town; to lay and collect taxes for the use of the corporation, not exceeding the county tax, on the same kind of property taxed by the county; the mode of proceeding against persons not complying with, or violating the ordinances or by-laws of said town, and to punish persons failing to comply with, or guilty of violating the by-laws or ordinances of said town, by fine, not exceeding twenty dollars, for any one offence, or in case of disorderly conduct, contempt of the officers of said town, or violation of the penal ordinances or by-laws of said town, by imprisonment in the jail of Greene county, not exceeding twenty-four hours for any one offence; and it is hereby made the duty of the sheriff and jailor of said county to receive and keep, in close custody, any body committed to his custody by the proper officer of said town, in like manner and under like penalties, as if the commitment were made by a justice of the peace for Greene county: Provided, that in case of any person being committed for a breach of any by-law or ordinance of said town, the said town shall pay the usual fees and charges to the sheriff and jailor, if the same are not paid by the prisoner.

Powers of Intendant and Council.

Proviso.

Sec. 13. And be it further enacted, That the Intendant and each Councillor of said town, shall be a conservator of the peace within the corporate limits of said town; and for all felonies, breaches of the peace, or any penal law of the State; or other crimes or misdemeanors committed within the corporate limits of said town, may proceed against the offender with the same power and jurisdiction, and in like manner, as any justice of the peace in Greene county, might lawfully do.

Powers, &c.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That the Intendant and Council of said town, shall elect and appoint a clerk, a treasurer, a captain of patrol, an overseer of streets, a marshal, and such other officers of said town, as they may deem necessary and proper; and may, by ordinance, prescribe the qualifications, powers and duties of such officers, and provide for the payment of such officers, by such salaries or fees of office as they may deem reasonable and proper; and the marshal of said town, upon giving bond and sufficient security, to be approved of by the Intendant of said town, payable and conditioned as constable's bonds are required to be, shall be vested with the same powers, and perform all the duties which any constable of Greene county might lawfully do; for official neglect or default, may be proceeded against as such constable may be.

Intendant.

Sec. 15. And be it further enacted, That the Intendant of said town shall be ex officio a justice of the peace for Greene county, and may exercise and have all the powers and jurisdiction, both in civil and criminal cases, which any other justice of the peace for said county, may now have and exercise.

Duties, &c.

Sec. 16. And be it further enacted, That the Intendant and Council of said town, may open any new street, or widen or change any existing street, by and with the consent of the owners of the land, over or upon which the same would pass, or by paying to such owners, such compensation therefor, as they may agree upon; but if the owners of the land, over or upon which such street would pass, shall not consent to the same, the said Intendant and Council, may petition the court of commissioners of roads and revenue of Greene county, to make an order, authorizing them to open such new street, or widen and change such existing street, upon giving thirty days previous notice thereof, to the persons so objecting, by personal service, on such as are citizens of the town, or by putting up such notice at the court house door of Greene county, if the persons so objecting are not citizens of said town; and any person, over or upon whose land such street would pass, may appear in said court, and oppose such order, and if the court shall be of opinion that such order ought to be made, any such person may apply for a writ of ad quod damnum, and the court shall thereupon cause a jury to be empannelled, to inquire of and assess the damages which such person would sustain thereby; and such damages, so assessed, shall be paid or tendered by the proper officers of said town, to the person or persons in whose favor the same were assessed, before the court shall make such order.

Intendant to preside.

Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, That the Intendant, when present, shall preside at all meetings of the Intendant and Council of said town; and in his absence, the oldest Councillor present, shall preside at such meetings; and at least three members must be present at such meeting to constitute a quorum to do business; and the said intendant and Council shall have regular meetings, at least once every month, at such time and place as they may by ordinance appoint, and may have a special meeting whenever they may think proper; and they shall keep a journal of all their proceedings: and shall, moreover, cause all by-laws and ordinances, which they may make, to be recorded in a separate and well bound book, and no by-law or ordinance, shall be valid or take effect, until it shall have been so recorded, and signed by at least three of the members of the Board of Intendant and Council of Eutaw; and such record book shall be kept by the clerk of said town, and be at all times open to the inspection of any citizen of said town.

Sec. 18. And be it further enacted, That the Intendant and Council of said town, are authorized and required to cause the roads, streets and alleys in said town to be kept in good order, and free from obstructions; and all such inhabitants of said town, as are liable to work on public roads, by the laws now in force, shall hereafter be liable to work on the roads, streets and alleys of said town, not more than ten days in any one year; and they shall be hereafter, free and exempt from working on, or opening any road not within the corporate limits of said town, Provided, nevertheless, that the said Intendant and Council, may exempt any such inhabitant from doing such work for one year, upon his paying into the treasury of said town, such sum of money, not exceeding ten dollars, as the said Intendant and Council, may by ordinance, prescribe, to be used in keeping the said streets, roads and alleys in good order. Streets to be kept open.
Proviso.

Sec. 19. And be it further enacted, That the Intendant and Council of said town, may establish a sufficient patrol in and for said town; and all such inhabitants of said town, as are now by law liable to do patrol duty, shall hereafter be liable to do patrol duty in said town; and shall, also hereafter, be free and exempt from doing any other patrol duty, than such as they may be required to do by the proper officers of said town. Patrols.

Sec. 20. And be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws, inconsistent with or contrary to the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed. Repeals.

AN ACT

To establish the General Ticket System in Elections for Representatives in Congress, from the State of Alabama.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, That each qualified voter of this State, shall be entitled to vote at the next general election, and every two years thereafter, for the whole number of representatives in Congress, to which this State now is, or by any subsequent apportionment, may, hereafter, be entitled; and among those persons, who shall be voted for, as representatives in Congress, at the next general election, the five persons having the highest number of votes, throughout the State, shall be deemed and considered duly elected representatives to the Congress, next ensuing such election.

Privileges of Voters.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the sheriffs of the several counties in this State, at the next general election after the passage of this act, and every two years thereafter, to open a poll and hold an election for representatives in Congress, agreeably to the manner pointed out in the foregoing section; they shall provide a separate box for the Congressional ticket, as at present required by law; they shall within thirty days after the election make their respective returns of the election, by sending them carefully enveloped and sealed, by special messenger, addressed to the Governor of the State, and shall respectively, they and their securities, be subject to a penalty of one thousand dollars, recoverable by action of debt, to be prosecuted by the attorney general, or the proper solicitor, in the circuit court of the proper county, in case they fail so to do, within the time prescribed, as aforesaid: it shall, moreover, respectively be their duty to make out three lists of the voters for representatives in Congress; one of these, they shall deliver to the judge of the county court of the proper county, to be filed in his clerk's office; one other, they shall respectively retain; and the third, they shall carefully envelope, seal, and forward to the Governor, to be filed in the executive office, with the returns of the election. The special messenger, who shall be employed to bear the returns of elections, as aforesaid, shall receive from the Governor, a warrant on the treasurer, for three dollars for every thirty miles travelling to, and returning from the seat of Government, and three dollars for defraying expenses of one day's delay.

Duty of sheriff.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That so soon as all the returns of the elections for representatives in Congress are received, or at the expiration of thirty days from the election, it shall be the duty of the Governor, in the presence of the Secretary of State, Comptroller and Treasurer, or any two of them, to open the returns of election, as aforesaid, and count them; and it shall be his duty to declare by proclamation, with all convenient despatch thereafter, what persons have been elected representatives in Congress; he shall, also, cause to be made out and published, a state-statement of the names voted for, and the aggregate vote which each person received: it shall be the duty of the Governor to furnish to representatives elect, certificates of their election, under the great seal of the State; and in case of a tie, it shall be his duty to order a new election; in case of vacancy by death, resignation or otherwise, it shall be his duty to order an election to fill the vacancies, making proclamation of the same, and also, issuing writs of election to the several sheriffs; which election shall not be holden with less than thirty days previous notice by proclamation. Elections in case of a tie, and to fill vacancies, shall be holden as near as may be, to the manner prescribed for holding regular elections.

New apportionment.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That after any and every new apportionment of representatives, among the several States by Congress, it shall be the duty of the Governor of this State, to publish and declare to the electors of this State, by proclamation, for three months, the number of representatives in Congress to which this State will be thereafter entitled; and it shall be the duty of the electors, sheriffs, and all others concerned, to govern themselves accordingly, thence forward, until the next succeeding apportionment, when information shall be communicated to them in like manner.

Sheriff's to be governed.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That in cases where this act may be silent touching the duty of sheriffs, they shall be governed, as far as applicable, by the general law of this State, concerning elections for representatives in Congress, as at present existing and all laws and parts of laws, contravening the provisions of this law are hereby repealed: Provided, that the State shall be divided into districts, after every apportionment by Congress, as heretofore, with a view that a member to Congress may be selected from each district, by the qualified electors throughout the State, as herein directed.

AN ACT

For the final settlement of the controversy between the Counties of Jackson and Marshall, touching a certain claim of the former against the latter County.

Whereas, at the division of the county of Jackson, and the formation of the county of Marshall out of that portion of territory taken from Jackson, and a portion taken from the county of Blount, it was stipulated and agreed, that a certain sum of money should be due and owing from the county of Marshall to the county of Jackson, in consideration of certain county charges which had accrued before that time in that part of her territory out of which Marshall had in part been formed: And whereas, this matter has been already the source of much complaint with the county of Marshall, and of repeated attempts at counteracting legislation, which have tended to disturb and destroy harmony of feeling between the citizens of the two counties, and their members in the General Assembly: And whereas, it has been deemed most conducive to harmony of feeling and the general good of both said counties, to settle this dispute by a friendly and equitable compromise. Therefore, as a compromise of the matter considered and expressed, to be acceptable to both parties,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, That the sum of four hundred and fifty dollars shall be held and considered to be the sum yet due and owing from the county of Marshall to the county of Jackson, in final liquidation of the claim aforesaid.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That whatever part or portion of this sum, the tax collector of Jackson shall fail to collect, and receive from the citizens of Marshall county, under the existing law, for this current year, shall be levied and collected under PENAL CODE.

AN ACT

1841.

Regulating Punishments under the Penitentiary System.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, That for the government and management of the Penitentiary of this State, and to adapt our criminal proceedings and punishments to such system, the provisions contained in the following fifteen chapters, be, and the same are hereby adopted and made of force, as a part of the laws of this State, to have effect and force as therein prescribed. Enacting clause.

CHAPTER FIRST.

OF THE ORGANIZATION OF THE PENITENTIARY.

Officers of the Penitentiary—their appointment, &c.

Section 1. The organization of the penitentiary, shall include three inspectors, one warden, one deputy warden, one physician, one clerk, and such number of overseers or turnkeys, as the inspectors may from time to time, deem necessary. Officers.

Section 2. The warden and inspectors shall be elected by joint vote of the two Houses of the General Assembly, and shall hold their offices for the space of two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. Elected.

Section 3. The clerk and physician shall be appointed by the inspectors, and commissioned to hold their offices during the pleasure of the said board of appointment, and the said clerk and physician, shall be subject to be removed by the General Assembly. Appointed.

Section 4. The deputy warden and all officers of the penitentiary, shall be appointed by the warden, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the inspectors; but if the warden shall think any such officer ought to be removed, and the inspectors shall not consent thereto, the warden may appeal to the Governor, who, after reasonable notice to the inspectors, if he believe just cause of complaint exists, may make such removal. Deputy war. den.
Removal.

Warden's duty. Section 5. The warden shall report immediately to the inspectors all appointments of officers which he shall make: he shall, from time to time, propose in writing, to the inspectors, such alterations as he may think advisable, in the rules and regulations for the direction of the officers, and for the government of the penitentiary.

Salaries. Section 6. The officers of the penitentiary shall receive the following salaries, to-wit: the warden, two thousand dollars; the deputy warden, one thousand dollars; the physician, five hundred dollars; the clerk, seven hundred dollars; the turnkeys, each five hundred dollars; all of which sums, shall be paid in quarterly payments, by the warden, out of the treasury of the penitentiary, and shall be in full for all services, and no other perquisite, reward or emolument, shall be allowed to, or received by any of them: Provided, that the warden shall not appoint a deputy warden, until his services shall be rendered necessary, by the number of inmates of the penitentiary.

Proviso.

Compensation to inspectors. Section 7. The inspectors of the penitentiary shall respectively be paid the same compensation, as is allowed by law to the members of the Legislature, for each day actually and necessarily employed, in inspecting the penitentiary, and in travelling to and from the same, to be audited and paid out of the treasury of the penitentiary; but the sum to be allowed to the board under this section, shall not exceed six hundred dollars in any one year.

Guard. Section 8. There shall be maintained at the penitentiary a guard, to be employed by the warden thereof, to consist of one sergeant, and as many privates, not exceeding twelve, as the inspectors of the penitentiary may from time to time direct; the guard shall be furnished from the arsenal of this State, with sufficient arms and accoutrements, and shall be subject to the command and direction of the warden of the penitentiary, who may dismiss at pleasure any of them; the sergeant shall receive not exceeding three hundred dollars per annum, and each of the guard not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, besides rations, to be established by the board of inspectors.

Officers not to receive perquisites. Section 9. The warden, deputy warden, and other officers, except the sergeant and guard of the penitentiary, shall support themselves from their own resources, and shall not receive any emoluments or perquisites for their services, other than the compensation provided in this title.

Shall take an oath. Section 10. The warden, deputy warden, overseers, turnkeys, sergeant and watchmen, shall, before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices and appointments, take and subscribe, before some justice of the peace or other officer authorized to administer the same, the oath of office prescribed in the constitution for public officers, and in addition thereto, shall take and subscribe the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm,) that I will faithfully and diligently execute all the duties required of me, as ———, in the penitentiary of the State of Alabama; and will carry into execution the laws and regulations passed and prescribed for the government of said institution, as far as concerns my office, (or appointment;) I also swear (or affirm,) that I will on no occasion, ill treat, or abuse any convict under my care, or over whom I have any control, beyond the punishment ordered by law, or the rules and regulations of the institution.”

2. Powers and Duties of Officers.

Section 11. The board of inspectors shall, from time to time choose one of their number to be their president, who shall preside at their regular meetings, and whenever in his opinion the exigency requires it, shall convene the board; they shall cause the clerk of the penitentiary to keep a regular minute of their meetings and proceedings, which shall be signed by them, and preserved in the penitentiary. Inspectors.

Section 12. The inspectors shall from time to time establish rules and regulations consistent with the laws of the State, for the direction of the officers of the penitentiary in the discharge of their duties; the government, employment and discipline of the convicts, and for the custody and preservation of the public property, and as soon as may be after the establishment of any such rules and regulations by the inspectors, they shall cause authentic copies thereof to be laid before the Governor, who may approve, annul or modify the same; and the inspectors shall cause a copy of all such rules and regulations, as shall have been approved by the Governor, to be certified as soon as may be, by the clerk of the penitentiary, and delivered to the warden. Shall make returns.

Section 13. The inspectors, or one of them, shall visit the penitentiary at least once in each week; and it shall be visited by the board of inspectors once a month, and oftener, if they shall think it necessary, for the purpose of inspecting the books, and all the concerns of the prison, and ascertaining whether the laws, and the rules and regulations relating to the prison are duly observed, and whether the officers are competent and faithful, and the convicts are properly governed and employed. Visit penitentiary.

Section 14. The inspectors shall report to the Governor forthwith, all violations of law and omissions of duty by the warden, that shall come to their knowledge, and every officer who holds his place at the pleasure of the inspectors, who shall be found unfaithful or incompetent, shall be, by them, forthwith removed. Report violations to Governor.

Section 15. The inspectors of the penitentiary shall, at least, fifteen days previous to the first day of December, in each year, transmit to the Governor a report, exhibiting a complete and comprehensive view of the transactions of the penitentiary, during the preceding year; of the number of convicts confined therein, the offences for which committed, and their respective periods of imprisonment, their ages, sizes, previous occupation, profession or Annual report.

Annual report.

employment, and where born ; the report shall also state the number of convicts, who have been pardoned, discharged, or died during the year, stating the date of their conviction, and of their pardon, discharge, or death, the period of time for which they were sentenced, the counties in which they were convicted, their age, sex, and color, the deportment of each of the convicts while in the penitentiary, and in case of death, the particular disease of which the convict was supposed to have died.

Removal of convicts.

Section 16. The inspectors of the penitentiary may remove the convicts therein to such place or places of security within the State, as they may deem expedient, if in their opinion the prevalence of any epidemic, infectious, or contagious disease, or other urgent occasion, shall render such a measure necessary and proper.

Governor to visit annually.

Section 17. The penitentiary shall be visited by the Governor annually, and as much oftener as His Excellency may think proper, for the purpose of examining its condition.

Warden to give bond.

Section 18. Before the warden enters upon the duties of his office, he shall give bond to the State, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Governor, with condition that he shall faithfully account for all moneys placed in, or otherwise coming to his hands as treasurer, and perform all the duties incumbent on him as warden of the penitentiary ; and such bond shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and may, from time to time, be put in suit, against any one or more of the obligors, and shall not become void on the first recovery, nor until the whole penalty shall be exhausted.

To reside at penitentiary.

Section 19. The warden and deputy warden shall reside constantly within the precincts of the penitentiary, and both shall not be absent therefrom at the same time ; and neither the warden, or any person appointed by the warden, shall, during the time of holding his office, be employed in any business for private emolument not pertaining to his office : Provided, that it shall be lawful for the warden or deputy warden to engage in agricultural pursuits to such extent as not to interfere with his public duties.

Proviso.

Warden to have charge of the penitentiary, property, &c.

Section 20. The warden shall have the charge and custody of the penitentiary, with the lands, buildings, furniture, tools, implements, stock, provisions, and every other species of property within the precincts thereof, or appertaining thereto ; he shall be treasurer of the penitentiary, and shall receive and pay out all moneys granted by the legislature, (if any) for the support thereof, and shall cause to be kept in suitable books, regular and complete accounts of all the property, expenses, income, business and concerns of the establishment ; and all the books and documents relating to the concerns of the penitentiary, shall at all times be open to the examination of the inspectors, who shall semi-annually or oftener if they think necessary, carefully examine the said books, and compare them with the vouchers and documents relating thereto.

Section 21. It shall be the duty of the warden to examine daily into the state of the penitentiary, and the health, conduct and safe keeping of the convicts, to use every proper means to furnish them with employment, to superintend all the manufacturing and mechanical business of the penitentiary, to receive the articles so manufactured, and to sell and dispose of the same for the benefit of the State.

Daily examination.

Section 22. Whenever the inspectors shall so direct, it shall be the duty of the warden to make contracts, from time to time, for the labor of the convicts, with such persons and upon such terms, as may be deemed most beneficial for the State; all contracts so to be made shall be reduced to writing, and a counterpart of every such contract shall be filed with the clerk of the penitentiary, and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the inspectors.

Make contracts.

Section 23. It shall be the duty of the warden to enforce the payment of all debts due to the penitentiary as soon and with as little expense to the State as possible, but he may, with the approbation of the inspectors, accept of such security from any debtor, on granting time as may be deemed conducive to the interest of the State.

Enforce payment of debts.

Section 24. All moneys received by the warden of the penitentiary, on account thereof, shall be deposited by him in the Branch of the Bank of the State of Alabama, at Montgomery, subject to be drawn therefrom upon his own check, to meet all proper, just and legal charges upon the treasury of the penitentiary, and no officer or other person whatsoever, shall on any pretence, use the funds of the same, except for the purposes prescribed by law.

Moneys to be deposited.

Section 25. The warden shall, as soon as may be, after the first day of October, in each year, cause to be made, full and detailed accounts, to be closed on that day, of all the disbursements and expenses, and all the receipts and profits of the prison, accompanied by sufficient vouchers, which accounts after having been examined and approved by the board of inspectors, shall be audited and settled by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, who shall file the same in his office, and accompany his annual report to the legislature, with an abstract thereof.

To make annual report.

Section 26. The deputy warden, clerk, the overseers and turnkeys, shall perform such duties in the charge and oversight of the penitentiary, the care of the property thereto belonging, and the custody, government, employment and discipline of the convicts, as shall be required of them by the warden, in conformity to law and the rules and regulations of the penitentiary.

Duty of deputy warden.

Section 27. Whenever the office of warden shall be vacant by death, resignation, or otherwise, the deputy warden shall have all the powers, and perform all the duties of warden, until one shall be appointed and qualified, and such deputy in such event, shall be subject to all the obligations and liabilities imposed by law on the warden; no deputy warden shall be permitted to enter on the duties of his office, until he shall enter into bond with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the board of inspectors, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, conditioned to perform all the duties of deputy warden, and faithfully account for all moneys or effects which shall come to his hands, in the event of a vacancy in the office of warden, by the death or resignation of the warden or otherwise, during the continuance of such deputy warden in office, and the Governor may fill any vacancy which may occur, not herein otherwise provided for.

Duty of physician. Section 28. The physician shall visit the hospital of the penitentiary, at least, every other day, and as much oftener as may be necessary, prescribe for convicts that may be sick, and attend to the regimen, clothing and cleanliness of such of them as are in the hospital; he shall keep a regular journal, which shall remain at the penitentiary, of all admissions to the hospital, stating the time, the nature of the disease, with his prescriptions, and the treatment of each patient, and the time of his discharge from the hospital, or his death; the said journal shall also contain regular entries of all orders that shall be given for supplies for the hospital department, specifying the articles ordered; all such orders shall be in writing, and the warden shall provide the supplies so ordered, under the direction of the inspectors.

To keep register, &c. Section 29. It shall be the duty of the physician of the penitentiary, to keep a register of all the convicts under his charge, stating the diseases with which they may be afflicted, and the state of their health on entering and leaving the hospital, and the cause of disease, when the same can be ascertained; and, also, a register of all infirm convicts, stating their names, ages, places of birth and the particular infirmity of each; and such register shall always remain in the hospital, open to inspection.

To visit the sick convicts. Section 30. Whenever any convict shall complain of such illness as requires medical aid, notice shall be given to the physician, who shall visit such convict, and if in the opinion of the physician, the illness is such as requires his removal to the hospital, the warden may order such removal; and the convict shall remain in the hospital, until the physician shall determine that he may leave it without injury to his health.

Duty in cases of insanity. Section 31. Whenever the physician of the penitentiary shall report to the warden, that any convict, confined therein, is insane, it shall be the duty of the warden, to cause such insane convict, to be removed to the hospital for maintenance, until the expiration of the term for which he shall be sentenced, if he shall so long continue insane; and if such insane person shall recover from his insanity, before the expiration of the term for which he was sentenced, the warden shall cause him again to enter on his regular labor as a convict.

Hospital to be built. Section 32. It shall be the duty of the commissioners of the penitentiary, as soon as practicable hereafter, to cause to be erected under their inspection, within the walls of the penitentiary, a substantial building, suitable for a hospital, which shall be of such dimensions, and upon such plan, as may seem to the commissioners best calculated to promote the comfort of the sick, and contribute to their safety; the expense of erecting said building shall be defrayed from the appropriation heretofore made, for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of an act to establish a State prison and penitentiary, or that may hereafter be made for that purpose: Provided, however, that the plan agreed upon by the commissioners, shall be subject to modification by the Governor. Proviso.

Section 33. The inspectors and all persons holding offices or appointments in the penitentiary, shall be exempted, during their continuance in office, from serving on juries, from militia duty and from working on the public roads. Officers exempt.

Section 34. The principal articles purchased for the use of the penitentiary, such as the rations and fuel, with their transportation, shall be contracted for by the year, when such contracts can be advantageously made; and the warden shall give previous public notice, in two newspapers at least, in this State, of the articles wanted, the quantity and quality thereof, the time and manner of delivery, and the period during which proposals therefor will be received, and such notice shall be published a sufficient length of time, for the information of persons who may probably be desirous to offer proposals for such contracts. Contracts for provision.

Section 35. All such proposals shall be in writing, and sealed up; and on the day appointed, they shall be opened by the warden in presence of the inspectors, who shall cause all such offers to be entered in a book and compared; the person offering the best terms, with satisfactory security for the performance, shall be entitled to the contract; unless it shall appear to the warden and inspectors, that none of the offers are as low as the fair market price; in that case, no offer shall be accepted, and the warden, with consent of the inspectors, may advertise again as before, or he may proceed to make contracts for any of the articles wanted for the penitentiary, in the best way he can for the interest of the State, without further notice. Proposals.

Section 36. Every such contractor shall give bond in a reasonable sum, with satisfactory surety or sureties, for the performance of his contract; and no officer of the penitentiary shall be concerned or interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract, purchase or sale, made on account of the penitentiary. Contractor to give bond.

Section 37. The warden shall take bills of the quantity and price of supplies furnished for the penitentiary, at the time of delivery; and the clerk, as the warden shall direct, shall compare the bills with the articles delivered; if the bills are found correct, he shall enter them with the date upon a book to be kept for that purpose; in like manner bills shall be taken and entered of all services rendered for the penitentiary; if any bill for supplies or services shall be discovered to be incorrect, the clerk shall omit to enter it and immediately give notice to the warden, that the error may be corrected. Bills of supplies to be taken.

Section 38. All contracts on account of the penitentiary, shall be made by the warden in writing, and when approved in writing by the board of inspectors, shall be binding in law, and the Contracts how made.

To be binding.

warden or his successor may sue thereon to find judgment and execution; no such suit shall abate by reason of the office of warden becoming vacant, but any successor of the warden pending such suit, may take upon himself the prosecution thereof, and upon motion of the adverse party he shall be required so to do, or submit to a non-suit.

Purchase of raw material.

Section 39. It shall be the duty of the warden of the penitentiary under the direction of the inspectors, to purchase and pay for out of any funds in the treasury, such raw materials as may be deemed necessary to be manufactured and used by the convicts.

Of medicines.

Section 40. The necessary medicines and other hospital stores for the use of the penitentiary, shall be purchased from time to time as may be requisite, by the warden with the advice of the physician and under the direction of the inspectors.

Books, &c. to be considered public documents.

Section 41. All books of accounts, registers, returns and other documents and papers relating to the affairs of the penitentiary, shall be considered as public documents, and remain therein, and the warden shall cause to be preserved, official copies of his correspondence with the Governor, inspectors, or other public officers, and of any official communications he may have received from them.

3d. Removal of Prisoners to the Penitentiary.

By sheriff.

Section 42. Every person sentenced in any court of this State, for any offence punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, shall as soon as possible after his sentence be safely removed by the sheriff of the county in which the conviction shall have taken place, to the penitentiary, and therein be kept during the term of his or her confinement, in the manner and on the terms prescribed by law, and every sheriff who shall neglect to remove such convict, from the jail within five days after the adjournment of the court aforesaid, shall forfeit all claims for compensation for such removal, and shall moreover be liable to be proceeded against therefor by indictment, and on conviction shall be confined in a sum not less than five hundred dollars, unless the jury trying the convict within the time aforesaid; and nothing herein contained shall discharge the sheriff from liability to a prosecution for an escape.

Penalty for neglect.

Powers of sheriff.

Section 43. Whenever any person or persons shall be sentenced to undergo imprisonment as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the judge or clerk of the court, by warrant under his hand and seal, to empower the sheriff, charged with the conveyance of a prisoner, or prisoners, in all counties and places through which he may pass, to impress as many men not exceeding two for each convict, except in cases hereinafter provided for, as may be necessary for the safe conveyance of such prisoners, to the penitentiary, which warrant the sheriff is hereby required to execute, and to his commands, in virtue thereof all persons are required to pay due obedience under pain of forfeiting one hundred dollars, to be sued for and recovered by the sheriff for the use of the State: Provided, that the sheriff shall in all cases when it is practicable detail a sufficient guard, in the county where the prisoner or prisoners are convicted, in order to insure their safe conveyance to the penitentiary: And provided also, that the judge trying such offender, may whenever in his opinion the safe conveyance of any convict, shall require a stronger guard than is above provided for, direct an additional number to be impressed.

Proviso.

Proviso.

Section 44. If by any attempt to rescue a convict on the way to the penitentiary, or by any other unforeseen danger, it may become necessary for the safe conveyance of such convict, to summon a stronger guard, than the sheriff conducting the prisoner may have been authorized to summon, it shall be lawful for such sheriff, to summon such additional guard, as shall be essentially necessary for that purpose, and the additional guards shall be paid as other guards, on the oath of the sheriff that they were in his opinion necessary.

To summon guard.

Section 45. The sheriff, his officer and guard attending any prisoner in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter, shall be privileged from arrest in all cases except treason, felony and breach of the peace, during the time they are engaged in conveying such prisoner or prisoners, to the penitentiary, and returning therefrom, allowing one day for every twenty miles from their respective places of abode.

Privileges.

Section 46. If it shall be made to appear to any judge, sentencing any convict to the penitentiary, that the sheriff is sick, or that the situation of his family is such as to require his attention, or that the public interest would be likely to suffer by his absence, in such case, during the sitting of the court, the said judge shall be authorized, or after the adjournment of the court, any other judge of the circuit court, shall be authorized to release the sheriff from the duty of conveying such convict to the penitentiary, if he can substitute in his stead, a trust worthy and responsible deputy; in the event of such substitution, such deputy shall be invested with all the powers, and be subject to all the responsibilities of the sheriff, in the performance of the duties devolved upon him.

Sheriff released when sick.
Judge to appoint substitute.

Section 47. When any sheriff shall convey any convict to the penitentiary as aforesaid, he shall be entitled to receive the compensation hereinafter mentioned, for which the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall furnish him with a warrant on the treasurer; on the production of the receipt of the warden of the penitentiary for such convict, and also the affidavit of the said sheriff sworn to before the warden (who is hereby authorized to administer the oath,) or some judicial officer, stating the number of miles on the usual route from the place where the convict was sentenced to the penitentiary and the number of the guard employed to insure the safe conveyance of the convict, and the distance each of said guard may have traveled; the sheriff shall, for every thirty miles he may necessarily travel, in going to and returning from the penitentiary, be allowed for himself two and a half dollars, for each of the guards two dollars, and for each convict one dollar and a quarter, to be paid to the sheriff, from whom each guard shall be entitled to receive the compensation hereby allowed them; and the sheriff shall be entitled to receive in addition to the amount paid him, for himself, the guards and the convict, the amount expended for ferriage and tolls, in transporting such convict to the penitentiary; should any sheriff convey more than one convict, to the penitentiary at the same time, he shall not be entitled to other or greater compensation for himself and guard, than is above provided; and the deputy of any sheriff, who shall convey any convict to the penitentiary, as required by law, shall upon producing the receipt, and making the affidavit above specified, be entitled to receive the compensation hereby allowed to sheriffs, and shall pay to the guard their respective portions as the sheriffs are hereby directed to do.

Compensation to sheriff and guards.

Compensation.

Expenses.

Section 48. The sheriff and guard shall defray their own expenses out of the compensation hereby allowed them.

Duty of jailers.

Section 49. It shall be the duty of all jailers to receive, and securely keep, (and make therefor the customary and legal charge for victualing prisoners,) all convicts on their way to the penitentiary, whenever the sheriff or other officer conveying such convict, may think it necessary to have them thus secured for the night, or during any other time they may be necessarily detained on the way.

Escapes.

Section 50. All the provisions in regard to the escape or attempt of convicts to escape from the penitentiary, shall extend to escapes or attempts to escape, made at any time subsequent to conviction, whether previous to leaving the place of trial, or while on the way to the penitentiary.

Penalty for suffering escapes.

Section 51. If any sheriff, deputy sheriff, or guard, having charge of a convict shall at any time subsequent to their trial, and previous to their delivery to the warden, voluntarily suffer him or her to escape from custody, such sheriff, deputy, or guard, shall, on conviction, suffer the same imprisonment such convict was sentenced to undergo: Provided, that, if such convict so escaping, be retaken upon fresh pursuit, and delivered to the warden of the penitentiary, in such case, the sheriff, deputy, or guard, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, for any term within the discretion of the court, not to exceed, however, the period for which such said convict was himself sentenced.

Proviso.

Warden to receive convicts.

Section 52. It shall be the duty of the warden, at all times, to receive into the penitentiary, on the order of the Governor, any person convicted of any crime punishable with death, or infamous punishment, who shall be pardoned on condition of being imprisoned, either for life, or a term of years, in the penitentiary, and to confine such person according to the terms of the pardon.

Section 53. The warden shall receive into the penitentiary, all persons convicted before any court of the United States, held within either of the districts of Alabama, and sentenced by such court to the punishment of imprisonment in the penitentiary; and he shall safely keep and employ such convicts, pursuant to their sentence, and the rules and regulations of the penitentiary, until such sentence shall be performed, or the said convicts shall be otherwise discharged, by due course of the law of the United States.

Warden to receive convicts U. S. courts.

4. Police of the Penitentiary, and the Punishment of Escapes.

Section 54. It shall be the duty of the warden, upon the reception of any convict into the penitentiary, to take his or her height, and cause the same to be entered in a book, in which he shall also note when such convict was received, his or her name, age, complexion, color of his or her hair and eyes, the county in which convicted, the nature of the crime, period of imprisonment, and place of his or her nativity; and the baggage and person of every convict shall be carefully searched, and every instrument therefrom taken, by which he or she may effect his or her escape, before he or she becomes an inmate of the penitentiary.

Description of convicts to be taken.

Section 55. It shall and may be lawful for the warden of the penitentiary to take in charge any property, money, or other thing of value, in the possession of any convict, at the time of his entering the penitentiary, and to pay the same to such person as the convict shall in writing direct, or to the convict upon his discharge, or to his personal representatives in the event of his death, previous thereto, and should no personal representative be appointed within six months, then the same shall be paid into the treasury of the State.

Property of convicts.

Section 56. In order to prevent the introduction of contagious disorders, it shall be the duty of the warden to cause every person who shall be sentenced to the penitentiary, to be washed, cleansed, and kept entirely apart from the other convicts, until it shall be certified by the physician, that he may with safety to their health be permitted to join with them in labor.

Convicts to be washed, &c.

Section 57. It shall be the duty of the warden to cause the clothes of the convicts, when received into the penitentiary, to be washed, and carefully put away, placing a ticket with their names on each, to be returned to them on their discharge, or if it should be the wish of any convict, that his or her clothes shall be sold, the warden shall dispose of them to the best advantage, and retain the money arising from the sale, to be paid to such convict on his or her release, or disposed of as provided in the fifty-fifth section.

Clothes of convicts.

Section 58. All persons sentenced to punishment in the penitentiary, shall be employed for the benefit of the State; no communication shall be allowed between them and any person without the prison; they shall be confined in separate cells in the night time, and in the day time, all intercourse between them shall, as far as practicable, be prevented.

Employment and confinement.

How clothed.

Section 59. All convicts shall be clothed during the term of their confinement, in a comfortable manner, in coarse and cheap clothing, and made in some peculiar style, so as to distinguish them from the citizens generally; the number of suits of clothing and their style, to be determined by the board of inspectors.

On Sabbath.

Section 60. That the Sabbath may be suitably distinguished by the convicts, they shall each be furnished by the warden, under the direction of the inspectors, with a neat and cheap suit of clothes to be worn on that day.

Means to promote neatness, health, &c.

Section 61. The warden of the penitentiary shall cause the prisoners to wash themselves every morning, and immediately before meals, to put on clean under garments at least once a week, and all the males shall have their beards shaved as often as may be necessary, and their apartments shall be swept every morning, and fumigated during the summer and fall seasons, once a week or oftener, with some disinfecting substance, and the warden shall cause such other measures to be adopted to promote neatness and health, as may be recommended by the physician, or directed by the board of inspectors.

Management of cells, &c.

Section 62. The warden shall cause all the rooms and cells to be numbered, and divided into as many wards as there may be turnkeys, allotting to each ward, as near as may be, an equal number of rooms and cells, and assign each ward to a turnkey, whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the warden, to examine every evening, the doors, beds and rooms of the convicts, to search and lock them before dark, and not to permit the convicts to carry into their cells, any instrument that may assist them in escaping; also to extinguish carefully all the fire in the work shops, and a bell shall ring every evening, which shall be a signal for the extinguishment of lights in the rooms and cells of the convicts.

Convicts to be furnished with Bibles.

Section 63. It shall be the duty of the warden carefully to watch over the conduct of the convicts, each convict shall be provided with a bible, which he shall be permitted to read in his cell at such times as he is not required to perform labor; and the warden shall, from time to time, under the direction of the inspectors, distribute among the convicts such cheap books as are calculated to improve the mind and meliorate the heart, and the inspectors shall report to the Governor such of the convicts as may distinguish themselves by their industry and correct deportment, and who, by an exemplary line of conduct, may have evinced an entire reformation.

Diet, &c.

Section 64. The diet of the prisoners, shall in quantity and quality, be such as shall be directed by the board of inspectors, and the provisions shall be sound and wholesome, and the regular hours for eating, shall be announced by the ringing of a bell, at the sound of which, all the convicts will assemble at their respective tables, except the sick, who shall be furnished agreeably to the directions of the physician.

Section 65. The convicts shall be permitted to work for themselves during the time allotted to their meals and rest, and after they shall perform such daily labor as shall be imposed on them, on such articles as the warden may approve; but they shall not be allowed to perform any work in their cells, without the permission of the warden: the warden may furnish them with materials from the stock belonging to the penitentiary, to be paid for out of the wares wrought by them, and the clerk shall take an account of all the articles wrought by them at such times; and they shall be sold by the warden, or under his direction: no convict shall be permitted to receive the money thus earned by him, during the period of his confinement; but the same shall remain in the hands of the warden, to be paid to the convict when released, or expended in the purchase of such articles as he may desire, not inconsistent with the rules of the penitentiary, or to be paid to his family by his direction.

Convicts allowed to work for themselves.

Section 66. All letters sent to or from any convict, shall be first opened and read by the warden, and in case of vacancy or absence, by the deputy warden, and if nothing appears therein, improper or unsafe to the institution, then such letters shall be by him delivered or forwarded as desired; and any relation or friend, shall be allowed, in presence of the warden, or deputy warden, to speak to any of the convicts, when in the opinion of the warden, the condition of his family or property may require it; and all information concerning the convicts, shall be furnished to their friends, on personal application, or by letter, (free of postage,) directed to the warden.

Letters to or from convicts to be read.

Section 67. For the encouragement of the convicts to conduct themselves with industry and propriety, it shall be the duty of the Governor, whenever it appears from the report of the warden, that the conduct of a convict has been exemplary and unexceptionable, for the entire year, to remit two months of the period for which such convict may have been sentenced to imprisonment.

Good conduct.

Section 68. The inspectors and warden shall if practicable, procure suitable ministers of the gospel, to perform divine service in the chapel of the penitentiary, at least once every Sunday, to instruct the convicts in moral and religious duty, and visit the sick on suitable occasions.

Divine service.

Section 69. No spirituous or intoxicating liquors shall be introduced into the penitentiary, except such as may be used in the families of the officers residing within its precincts, or as may be necessary for the hospital department; and every overseer, turnkey or watchman, who shall suffer any spirituous or intoxicating liquors to be used by or given to any convict, unless directed so to do by the physician in writing, shall forthwith be dismissed from his office or appointment, and forfeit all wages due to him, and be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be sued for and recovered in the name of the warden of the penitentiary.

Spirituous liquors prohibited.

Section 70. No officer or person holding any appointment, the duties of which are to be discharged within the precincts of the penitentiary, shall say any thing in respect to the police of the prison in the presence of a convict, except it be to direct him or males to be on all occasions be kept separate and apart; and the females as kept separate. well as the males shall be kept separate and apart at night.

Punishment. Section 72. If any convict shall neglect or refuse to perform the labor assigned to him or her, or shall wilfully injure any of the materials, implements or tools, or shall engage in conversation with any other convict, or shall in any other manner violate or infringe any of the regulations of the penitentiary, he shall be punished by solitary confinement, for a period not exceeding thirty days for each offence, at the discretion of the warden, or in case of vacancy or absence, then at the discretion of the deputy warden: Provided, Proviso. that if the board of inspectors, should believe the punishment inflicted to be too severe, they shall have power to remit a portion thereof.

Warden to Section 73. It shall be the duty of the warden or deputy war-report, den, to make a written report forthwith to the president of the board of inspectors of the name of each person committed to solitary confinement, as aforesaid, with a statement of the nature of his offence, and the period for which committed, which report shall be recorded by the clerk of the penitentiary, and the president of the board of inspectors, shall if he deem it expedient, convene the board for the purpose of considering the case reported; and if it shall appear to the inspectors, or a majority of them, either at a called or stated meeting, that the punishment of solitary confinement was improperly inflicted, they are hereby required to certify the same on the minutes of their proceedings.

Convict, how Section 74. Every convict against whom the punishment of soliconfined. tary confinement shall be awarded, by the sentence of a court, or for a violation of any of the rules and regulations of the penitentiary, shall be confined in a solitary cell, and during such confinement shall be fed with bread and water only, unless the physician of the penitentiary, shall certify to the warden that the health of such convict requires other diet.

Proceedings Section 75. Whenever any convict shall die in the penitentiary, in case of death. it shall be the duty of the warden forthwith to notify some one of the inspectors, if within a convenient distance, and two or more justices of the peace of Coosa county, to examine the body of the deceased, and it shall be the duty of such of them as shall attend, to ascertain as nearly as may be, the cause of his death, and report the same to the board of inspectors; and the warden shall not permit the body of any deceased convict to be removed to the burial place until such examination shall be had; if the body of any deceased convict is not applied for, by his friends, within a convenient time after such examination, the warden shall cause it to be decently interred in the burying place, to be provided in the vicinity of the penitentiary.

Section 76. If any convict, at the expiration of his term of imprisonment, shall labor under an acute or dangerous disease, such convict shall not be discharged while sick, unless at his request. Not discharged when sick.

Section 77. Each convict shall receive at his or her discharge a sum of money not exceeding ten dollars, at the discretion of the inspectors, to enable him or her to reach his or her place of residence, and no convict shall leave the prison without being furnished with decent clothing. Money furnished on discharge.

Section 78. Such of the foregoing regulations with all others that may hereafter be adopted by the legislature, or inspectors with the approbation of the Governor, with which it may be necessary that the convicts shall be acquainted, together with all the sections of this act, relating to escapes by convicts, shall be printed with type sufficiently large to be conveniently read, and placed against the wall in the workshops and in each cell; and the same shall be read and explained by the warden, to each convict on his admission to the penitentiary. Regulations to be printed.

Section 79. If any convict imprisoned in the penitentiary for a term less than life, shall escape or shall attempt by violence, to escape, on conviction thereof, he shall suffer such additional imprisonment, as the court in which such offender shall be convicted, shall direct, not less than two nor more than five years; and convicts so escaping shall remain in the penitentiary, as other inmates, after their apprehension, until their trial takes place, unless their term of imprisonment has expired, in which event they may be discharged on giving sufficient bail; upon which trial the fact of imprisonment in the penitentiary shall be prima facie evidence of a conviction and sentence to imprisonment therein. Punishment for attempt to escape, &c.

Section 80. If any convict confined in the penitentiary for a term less than life, shall assault the warden, or any other officer of the same, with intent to kill or maim, he, she, or they so offending, shall, on conviction thereof, be sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for a period not less than ten nor exceeding twenty years; and if any two or more convicts thus confined, shall conspire for the purpose of killing or maiming any officer of the penitentiary, on conviction thereof, he, she, or they, shall be sentenced to undergo a further confinement in the penitentiary, for a term not less than five nor more than ten years, to commence at the expiration of the term for which such convict was under sentence, unless such term shall have expired previous to the trial, in which event the term of imprisonment, shall commence from the time when he, or she may be delivered to the warden of the penitentiary. For assaulting officers.

Section 81. If any convict in the penitentiary, under sentence of imprisonment for life, shall escape therefrom, or shall attempt by violence to escape, or shall assault with intent to kill or maim the warden or any inspector, or other officer, or person employed in the government of or custody of the penitentiary, he shall be punished by solitary confinement in the penitentiary not exceeding For conspiring to kill.

Persons aiding convicts to escape, how punished.

Section 82. Every person who shall convey into the penitentiary any disguise, instrument, tool, weapon, or other thing, useful to aid any convict in making his escape therefrom, with intent to facilitate the escape of any convict there lawfully detained, or who shall, by any act done, aid any convict in an endeavor to escape, whether such escape be attempted or effected, or not, such person shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary, not less than two nor more than four years; and every person who shall forcibly or fraudulently attempt to rescue a convict, held in custody by any officer or other person, under sentence of imprisonment in the penitentiary shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, for a period not less than two nor exceeding five years; and any person who shall forcibly or fraudulently rescue any convict, held in custody by any officer or other person, under sentence of imprisonment in the penitentiary, shall be punished by imprisonment in the same for a period equal to the unexpired term for which the convict, thus rescued, was imprisoned: Provided, however, that if such term shall be less than two years, the offender shall be confined in the penitentiary for that length of time.

Proviso.

Convicts of U. S. courts.

Section 83. In case any convict committed by the courts of the United States, shall escape, or attempt to escape out of the penitentiary, he shall be liable to the like punishment, as if he had been committed by virtue of a conviction and sentence under the authority of this State; and the warden or other officer having charge of such convict, shall be liable to the like penalties and punishment, for any neglect or violation of duty in respect to the custody of such prisoner, as if he had been committed by virtue of a conviction and sentence under the authority of this State.

Escapes.

Section 84. Whenever any convict imprisoned in the penitentiary shall escape therefrom, it shall be the duty of the warden to take all proper measures for his apprehension, and for that purpose he shall forthwith communicate to the Governor the fact of such escape, the time when, and the circumstances under which it was committed, together with a particular description of the convict, his age, size, complexion, color of hair and eyes, from what county committed, for what offence and when.

Penalty for suffering to escape.

Section 85. If any officer, or other person employed in the penitentiary shall voluntarily suffer any convict imprisoned therein to escape, or shall in any way consent to such escape, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, for a period equal to the unexpired term of the convict or convicts escaping, if such unexpired term shall exceed two years; and in no case less than two years.

For allowing convicts to be at large.

Section 86. If any officer or person employed in the penitentiary shall suffer any convict under sentence of solitary imprisonment to be at large, or out of the cell assigned to him or her, unless directed by the physician to remove him or her to the hospital, on account of sickness, or shall suffer any convict imprisoned in the penitentiary to be at large, out of the precincts of the same, or to be visited, conversed with, or in any way relieved or comforted, contrary to the regulations of the penitentiary, he shall, on conviction, be punished by fine, not less than one hundred and not exceeding five hundred dollars.

5. Mode of serving Process and taking Testimony of Convicts.

Section 87 Whenever any suit shall be instituted against any convict imprisoned in the penitentiary, the writ, summons or subpoena, shall be directed to the warden, who shall make it known to the convict, by leaving a copy with him, and shall return the original to the proper court; in all suits pending against any one who shall hereafter be convicted and imprisoned in the penitentiary, in which it may be necessary to issue any mesne process against him, after such imprisonment, the like proceedings shall be had; if no appearance is entered for the convict, after the return of process, the court before which the suit is pending, shall require the plaintiff to prove the claim, or cause of action, in the same manner, as if the general issue was pleaded by the convict; no judgment shall be rendered in any suit commenced by attachment against a convict so imprisoned, until a notice shall have been issued to inform the convict of the proceedings against his property; which notice shall be served and returned by the warden, as other procees against convicts.

a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum to be issued, requiring the warden on a certain day to be named in the writ, to have the body of the convict before the circuit court in which his testimony shall be required; it shall be the duty of the warden so to provide, that the convict shall appear before the circuit court, at the time and place designated in the writ; and for this purpose he shall be authorized to employ a trust worthy deputy, and a sufficient guard to prevent escapes; the deputy and guard shall be allowed the same compensation as is allowed to the sheriff and guard summoned by him, for removing a convict to the penitentiary, and the further sum of two dollars for each day they shall remain in attendance on the circuit court, charged with the custody of the convict; when the convict shall have given his testimony, or the prosecution shall have been continued, he shall be remanded to the penitentiary, and the deputy and guard shall conduct him thither with all convenient speed; the convict, the deputy and guard, in going to and from, and while remaining at the circuit court, shall be respectively liable for an escape or attempt to escape, in the same manner as they would have been, if the convict was within the penitentiary under their custody; and it shall be the duty of the sheriff or jailor of the county, to receive and safely keep the convict in the county jail, during his attendance upon the court, if required so to do by the persons having such convict, for which the legal charge of victualing prisoners shall be allowed.

When and how taken in circuit courts.

Section 90. When any party to a civil suit, shall wish to take the testimony of an imprisoned convict, he shall make affidavit of the materiality of his testimony, and file interrogatories, in the office of the clerk of the court where such suit is pending, and serve a copy of the same on the adverse party, giving to him such notice as the clerk may deem reasonable, when a commission shall issue; at any time before the commission is issued, the adverse party may file cross interrogatories; after the expiration of the time prescribed by the clerk for notice, he shall issue a commission, with the interrogatories and cross interrogatories, if any annexed, directed to the inspectors of the penitentiary, any one of whom is hereby authorized and required, to take the answers of the convicts on oath to the same, and make return thereof, together with the commission to the proper court.

Defendants in State cases,
&c.

Section 91. The defendant in a prosecution by the State, may in like manner take the testimony of an imprisoned convict in his behalf, but the notice and copy of interrogatories in such case, shall be served on the solicitor of the circuit in which such prosecution is pending; and nothing contained in this, or preceding sections, shall authorize the admission of the testimony of a convict, who is by law an incompetent witness.

CHAPTER SECOND.

Of Offences against the Public Peace.

Section 1. Every person who shall commit the crime of treason against this State and be thereof convicted, shall suffer death; or Treason. confinement in the penitentiary for life at the discretion of the jury trying the same.

Section 2. If any free person shall aid and assist or be in any-wise concerned with any slave or slaves, in any actual or meditated rebellion or insurrection against the white inhabitants of this State; or against the laws and government thereof; or shall in any manner advise, consult or plot with any slave or slaves for the purpose of encouraging, exciting, aiding or assisting in any such rebellion or insurrection, either actual or meditated; such free person shall, on conviction of any one of the offences declared by this section, suffer death; or confinement in the penitentiary for life, at the discretion of the jury trying the same. Punishment for aiding slaves in rebellion or insurrection.

Section 3. If any person shall in this State write, print, draw, paint or engrave, or shall aid or abet, in writing, printing, drawing, painting or engraving, on paper, parchment, cloth, metal, wood, stone, or any other substance, with intent to circulate the same, any paper, essay, verses, pamphlet, books, painting, drawing, or engraving calculated to excite discontent, insurrection or rebellion amongst the slaves, or free persons of color, or if any person shall have in his possession with intent to circulate the same, any paper, essay, verses, pamphlet, book, painting, drawing or engraving as aforesaid, such person shall on conviction thereof be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than ten years. For exciting discontent, &c., among slaves.

Section 4. If any person shall knowingly circulate, or shall aid or abet in circulating in this state, any paper, essay, verses, pamphlet, book, painting, drawing or engraving, whether, written, printed, drawn or engraved, on paper, parchment, cloth, metal, wood, stone or any other substance, and whether the same be written, printed, painted, drawn or engraved, within or out of this State, with the intent and calculated to excite discontent, insurrection or rebellion amongst the slaves or free persons of color, such person shall on conviction suffer death, or be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than ten years, at the discretion of the jury trying the same. CHAPTER THIRD.

Of Offences against the Persons of Individuals.

Homicide. Section 1. Every homicide which shall be perpetrated by means of poison, lying in wait or by any other kind of wilful, deliberate, malicious and premeditated killing, or which shall be committed in the perpetration of, or in the attempt to perpetrate any arson, rape, robbery or burglary, shall be deemed murder in the first degree; so also, every homicide perpetrated from a premeditated design unlawfully and maliciously to effect the death of any human being other than him who is slain, or perpetrated by any act eminently dangerous to the lives of others, and evincing a depraved mind regardless of human life, although without any preconceived purpose to deprive of life any particular individual; and every person guilty of murder in the first degree, shall on conviction suffer death or confinement in the penitentiary for life at the discretion of the jury trying the same.

Murder in the second degree. Section 2. Every homicide committed under such circumstances as constitute the crime of murder at the common law, as is not embraced by murder in the first degree, as defined in the preceding section, shall be deemed murder in the second degree; and it shall be the duty of the jury before whom any person indicted for murder shall be tried, if they find the offender guilty, to ascertain by their verdict whether he be guilty of murder in the first or second degree; but if the accused upon arraignment shall confess his guilt, the court shall proceed by impanneling a jury, and the examination of testimony to determine the degree of the crime and to give sentence accordingly, and every person guilty of murder in the second degree, shall on conviction thereof be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a period not less than ten years.

Manslaughter in the first degree. Section 3. Every person convicted of the crime of manslaughter, by voluntarily depriving a human being of life, shall be deemed guilty of manslaughter in the first degree, and shall on conviction be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a period not less than two and not exceeding ten years.

In the second degree. Section 4. Every person convicted of manslaughter under any other circumstances than those expressed in the last section, shall be deemed guilty of manslaughter in the second degree, and shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding six months, or both fined and imprisoned.

Killing of a slave murder in the first degree. Section 5. If any person shall with malice aforethought, cause the death of a slave by cruel, barbarous or inhuman whipping or beating, or by any cruel or inhuman treatment, or by the use of any instrument in its nature calculated to produce death, such killing shall be deemed murder in the first degree.

Section 6. If any person being the overseer or manager of any slave or slaves, or having the right to correct such slave or slaves, shall cause the death of the slave by such barbarous, or inhuman whipping or beating, or by any other cruel or inhuman treatment, although without intention to kill, or shall cause the death of any such slave or slaves by the use of any instrument in its nature calculated to produce death, though without intention to kill, unless in self defence, such killing shall be deemed murder in the second degree.

Murder in the second degree.

Section 7. If any person being the owner of any slave or slaves, shall cause the death of the slave by cruel, barbarous, or inhuman whipping, or beating, or by any other cruel, or inhuman treatment, although without intent to kill, or shall cause the death of any such slave by the use of any instrument in its nature calculated to produce death, though without intention to kill, unless in self defence, or in use the of so much force as is necessary to procure obedience on the part of the slave, such killing shall be deemed murder in the second degree.

Killing of slave by owner murder 2d degree.

Section 8. If any person shall be guilty of fighting in the streets of any city or town, or at a militia muster, or other place public in itself, or made public by any assemblage of people, for any purpose whatever, and shall employ or use during such fight any fire arms, or air gun, by discharging (or attempting to discharge) the same, unless in self defence, such person shall, on conviction thereof be fined in a sum not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or both, at the discretion of the jury trying the offence.

Fighting in the streets, &c.

Section 9. When the killing in any sudden rencounter or affray shall be caused by the assailant, by the use of a deadly weapon, concealed before the commencement of the fight, his adversary having no deadly weapon drawn, such killing shall be deemed murder in the second degree, but the jury shall not be precluded from finding such person guilty of murder in the first degree.

Killing in sudden affrays murder second degree.

Section 10. If any person shall, within this State, kill another in fight, by single combat, commonly called a duel, with deadly weapons, such killing shall be deemed murder in the second degree.

Duelling.

Section 11. Every person who shall give, accept, or knowingly carry a challenge in writing or otherwise, to fight in single combat, with any deadly weapon, either in or out of this State, and be thereof convicted, shall be punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for two years.

For challenging, &c.

Section 12. Every person who shall hereafter, in this State, or in any other State of the United States, or in any territory or district thereof, give or accept a challenge to fight with any deadly weapon in single combat, shall be disqualified from holding or being eligible to be elected or appointed to any office whatever, under the constitution and laws of this State, and it shall not be necessary in any indictment under this section that a previous conviction for giving or accepting the challenge aforesaid shall have been had.

instrument.

Section 53. If any person shall make, forge or counterfeit, with intent to defraud, any evidence of debt issued, or purporting to have been issued, by any corporation having authority for that purpose, to which shall be affixed the printed signature of any person as agent or officer of such corporation, it shall be deemed forgery in the same degree, and in the same manner as if such person was at the time an officer or agent of such corporation; notwithstanding there never was any such person in existence.

Forgery of evidence of debt.

Indictment for forgery.

Section 54. Wherever by any of the forgoing provisions an attempt to defraud is required to constitute forgery, it shall be sufficient if such intent appear to defraud the United States, any State or Territory thereof, any body corporate, any county, city, town or village, or any public officer in his official capacity, any copartnership, or any one of such partners, or any person whatever; and it shall be sufficient to alledge in the indictment an intent to defraud, without naming therein the particular person, State, government, or body corporate, intended to be defrauded.

Larceny.

Section 55. Every person who shall enter any dwelling house, store house, smoke house, kitchen, stable, shop, warehouse, steamboat, ship or other water craft, and therein commit the crime of larceny, and shall be thereof convicted, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than three nor more than six years.

Larceny.

Section 56. Every person who shall commit the crime of larceny by stealing from any building that is on fire, or by stealing any property removed in consequence of an alarm caused by fire, or by stealing from the person of another, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than three nor exceeding six years.

Grand larceny defined.

Section 57. Every person who shall commit the offence of larceny, by stealing any money, goods or chattels, or any bank note, bond, promissory note, bill of exchange, or other bill, order, or any deed or writing, containing a conveyance of land, or other property, or any other valuable contract in force, or any writ, process, or public record, or any other evidence of debt, or any public security of the United States, or of this State, if the property stolen shall exceed the value of twenty dollars, shall be deemed guilty of grand larceny, and punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than two nor exceeding five years.

Petit larceny.

Section 58. Every person who shall commit the offence of larceny, by stealing any money or other thing made the subject of larceny by the preceeding section, when the property stolen shall be of the value of twenty dollars, or less, shall be deemed guilty of petit larceny, and punished by imprisonment in the county jail, not exceeding three months, and fined not more than one hundred dollars; and for the second offence shall be committed to the penitentiary for the term of two years.

Jury's duty on conviction of larceny.

Section 59. Whenever a jury shall find the accused guilty of larceny, it shall be their duty to ascertain the precise value of each article stolen, and the court trying the offender shall render judgment against him in favor of the owner for the assessed value, unless such stolen property has been or shall be returned.

Stolen goods.

Section 60. Every person who shall buy, receive, conceal, or aid in the concealment of any of the subjects of larceny mentioned in the preceding sections, knowing the same to have been stolen, and with intent to defraud the owner, and be thereof convicted, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

Section 61. It shall be competent to indict for the offence of buying, concealing, receiving, or aiding in the concealment of money, or other property, although the principal offender may not have been tried or convicted. Abettors may be indicted.

Section 62. If any person shall feloniously steal, or take away, any horse, mare or gelding, foal or filly, ass or mule, the person so offending shall upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than three and not exceeding seven years; and in an indictment for such larceny, it shall not be necessary to designate the particular sex or character of the animal stolen, but it shall be enough to describe it by such general designation, as, in common understanding of mankind, embraces it. Stealing horses, &c. Indictment.

Section 63. If any person or persons shall receive or buy any horse, mare, or gelding, foal or filly, ass or mule, that shall have been feloniously taken or stolen from any other person, knowing the same to have been stolen, with intent to defraud the owner, he shall be punished in the same manner as the principal thief. Buying stolen horses, &c.

Section 64. Every person who shall commit the crime of burglary, and be thereof convicted, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than three, nor more than fifty years. Burglary.

Section 65. Every person who shall willfully and maliciously, and with an intent to destroy human life, set fire to, or burn in the night, a dwelling house or house adjoining thereto, in which dwelling house there shall be, at the time, some human being, shall be deemed guilty of arson in the first degree; and every house, prison, or other edifice, which shall be occupied by persons lodged therein at night, shall, within the meaning of this section, be considered a dwelling house. Arson—first degree defined.

Section 66. Every person who shall willfully and maliciously set fire to, or burn, in the day time, any inhabited dwelling house, which, if committed in the night time, would be arson in the first degree, shall, upon conviction, be adjudged guilty of arson in the second degree, and every person who shall willfully and maliciously set fire to, or burn, any meeting house, church, court house, town house, college, academy, jail, or other building, erected for public use, or any banking house, warehouse, cotton house, gin house, store, manufactory, or mill, being, with the property therein contained, of the value of five hundred dollars; or any barn, stable, shop, or office, of another person, within the curtilage of any dwelling house, or any other building, by the burning whereof any building mentioned in this section shall be burnt, such offender shall be adjudged guilty of arson in the second degree. 2d degree.

Section 67. Every person who shall willfully and maliciously set fire to, or burn, any other house or out house, other than those mentioned in the preceding sections, any bridge, lock, steamboat, keelboat, ship, or other water craft, lying within the body of any county, such as is used either in ascending or descending our rivers, or for the purpose of transporting produce, merchandise, or any other thing, either in ascending or descending our rivers, or upon other navigable water within this State, shall be deemed guilty of arson in the third degree.

Arson—punishment defined. Section 68. Arson in the first degree shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than fourteen years; arson in the second degree shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than seven, and not exceeding fourteen years; and the third degree of that offence shall be punished by imprisonment as aforesaid, for a period not less than three, and not exceeding seven years.

Injuring rail roads. Section 69. Every person who shall wantonly injure, or place any impediment, or obstruction, on any rail road in this State, in use for the transportation of passengers or merchandise, and be thereof convicted, shall be fined not less than one hundred, nor more than five hundred dollars, and may also be imprisoned not exceeding three months.

Obstructions. Section 70. Every one who shall negligently place any impediment, or obstruction, on any rail road in this State, in use for the transportation of passengers or merchandise, and be thereof convicted, shall be fined, not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars.

CHAPTER FIFTH.

Of Offences against Public Justice.

Perjury defined. Section 1. Every person who shall wilfully and corruptly swear or affirm falsely, in regard to any material matter or thing upon any oath, or affirmation, which shall be required or authorized by law, shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

Perjury committed on trial of capital offences. Section 2. Every person charged with perjury committed on the trial of any indictment for a capital offence, or for any other felony, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, for a period, not less than seven, nor exceeding twenty years; and perjury committed under any other circumstances, or upon any other occasion, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, for a term not less than two, nor exceeding five years.

Under other circumstances. Section 3. Every person who shall unlawfully and corruptly procure another to swear falsely, in any case or upon any occasion, in or concerning which perjury may be committed, such person shall be adjudged guilty of subornation of perjury, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished, by imprisonment in the penitentiary, for the period for which the party suborned was liable to be imprisoned.

Bribery of Executive, Legislative and Judicial officers. Section 4. Every person who shall corruptly promise or give to any executive, legislative or judicial officer, after his election or appointment, either before or after he shall have been qualified, or shall have taken his seat, any gift or gratuity whatever, with intent to influence his act, vote, opinion, decision or judgment, on any matter, cause or proceeding, which may be then pending, or may by law, come or be brought before him, in his official capacity, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than two, and not exceeding ten years.

Bribery of Executive,
&c.

Section 5. Every executive, legislative or judicial officer, who shall corruptly accept any gift or gratuity, or any promise to make any gift, or to do any act beneficial to such officer, under an agreement, or with an understanding, that his vote, opinion or judgment, shall be given in any particular manner, or upon any particular side of any question, cause or proceeding, which is or may be by law brought before him in his official capacity; or if in such capacity, he shall make any particular appointment, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than two, and not exceeding ten years.

How punished.

Section 6. Every person who shall corrupt any of the ministerial officers of the courts of law or chancery, any auditor, juror, arbitrator, umpire or referee, by giving, offering or promising any gift or gratuity whatever, with intent to bias the mind or influence the decision of such ministerial officer of the courts of law or chancery, any auditor, juror, arbitrator, umpire or referee, in relation to any cause or matter, which is pending in either of said courts, or before any inquest for the decision of which such arbitrator, umpire or referee, shall have been chosen or appointed, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than two, and not exceeding five years; in order to the conviction of the party charged with corrupting a juror as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary that such juror should actually have been sworn or qualified, but shall be sufficient if such juror, shall have been summoned upon a writ issued for that purpose, under the authority of law, or otherwise under legal authority to attend the court.

Corrupting ministerial officers, jurors,
&c.

Section 7. If any person summoned as a juror, or appointed an auditor, arbitrator, umpire or referee, or if any ministerial officer, either in the courts of chancery or law, shall corruptly take any thing to give his verdict, award or report, or shall corruptly receive any gift or gratuity whatever, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than two, and not exceeding five years.

Bribing jurors, &c.

Section 8. If any sheriff or other officer, intrusted by law with a discretion in summoning jurors, shall, whether by agreement or otherwise, with any party to any cause pending in court, or with his agent or attorney, summon any juror, with intent to produce a result favorable to either party, such sheriff, or other officer, shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than two, and not exceeding five years.

Sheriff acting corruptly, &c

Section 9. If any person shall, by any promise, gift or gratuity, induce any sheriff, or other officer, to summon a juror or a jury, with a view to produce a result favorable to either party, in any cause pending in any circuit or county court, or other tribunal,

Bribery of

Sheriff or coroner conniving, &c. Section 10. Any sheriff, or in the event of a vacancy in the office of sheriff, the coroner, who shall be privy to, and connive at the commission of the offence described in the two preceeding sections, by any bailiff attending the court, or by any deputy sheriff, shall be deemed as guilty as the principal offender, and receive the punishment prescribed as aforesaid.

Personating another in becoming bail, &c. Section 11. Every person who shall falsely personate another, and in such assumed character, become bail, or surety for any party in any proceeding, civil, or criminal, before any court, or officer, authorized to take such surety, or confess any judgment, or acknowledge the execution of any conveyance, or of any other instrument which by law may be recorded, or do any other act, in the course of any suit, proceeding or prosecution, whereby the person so represented or personated, may be made liable in any event, for the payment of any debt, damages, costs, or sum of money, or his rights or interests in any way be affected, shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, for a period, not less than two, and not exceeding ten years.

Sheriff, &c. suffering escape. Section 12. If any sheriff, jailer, coroner, constable or other officer, or other person, having the legal custody of any person, charged with or convicted of a criminal offence, shall voluntarily suffer and permit the person so charged or convicted, to escape, he shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than two, and not exceeding twenty years.

Negligence. Section 13. If any sheriff, jailer, constable, coroner or other officer, shall, through negligence, suffer any prisoner, in his custody, upon a conviction, or upon any criminal charge, to escape, he shall, on conviction, be fined not less than two hundred and not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Refusing to execute process. Section 14. If any sheriff, jailer, coroner, or constable, shall willfully and corruptly refuse to execute any lawful process, directed to them or any of them, requiring the apprehension or confinement of any person charged with a criminal offence, or shall willfully and corruptly omit to execute such process, by which such person shall escape, or shall willfully and corruptly refuse to receive in any jail under his charge, any offender lawfully committed to such jail, and ordered to be confined therein, on any criminal charge or conviction, or on any lawful process whatever, he shall be punished by fine, not less than five hundred, and not more than two thousand dollars.

Refusing to receive prisoners. Section 15. If any jailer or other officer, shall willfully refuse to receive into his custody any prisoner, lawfully committed thereto on any criminal charge, or conviction, or on any lawful process on any criminal charge whatsoever, and be thereof convicted, he shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Section 16. Every person who shall convey into any county jail, or other place of confinement, other than the penitentiary, any disguise, instruments, arms, or other thing, useful to aid any prisoner in his escape, with intent thereby to facilitate the escape of any prisoner, lawfully committed to or detained in such jail, or other place, for any felony whatever, whether such escape be effected, or attempted or not, shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than two, and not exceeding ten years; and every person who shall, by any act done, aid, or assist any prisoner, lawfully detained in any county jail, or other place of imprisonment, as aforesaid, for any felony, to escape therefrom, whether such escape be effected or not, shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment, as above provided in this section.

Penalty for conveying instruments, &c to prisoners committed for felony.

Section 17. Every person who shall by any act done, aid or assist any prisoner lawfully committed to any county jail, or other place of confinement, or in execution of a conviction for any offence other than a felony, whether such escape be effected or not, or who shall convey into such jail, or place of confinement, any disguise, instrument, arms, or other thing, useful to facilitate the escape of any prisoner so committed, with intent to facilitate his escape, whether such escape be effected, or attempted, or not, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

For other offences.

Section 18. Every person who shall by any act, aid or assist any prisoner in escaping or attempting to escape, from the custody of any sheriff, coroner, constable, or other officer or person, who shall have the lawful charge of such prisoner, upon any criminal charge or conviction, shall upon conviction, be punished in the same manner as if he had aided or assisted in an escape, or attempt to escape, from the county jail: Provided, that if the party escaping, or attempting to escape, was in custody under a charge of any capital offence, or on conviction for such offence, the person aiding or assisting his escape, or attempt to escape, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, for a period not less than two, and not exceeding fourteen years.

Aiding in escapes.

Provide.

Section 19. If any prisoner confined in a county jail, upon a conviction for a criminal offence, shall escape therefrom, he may be pursued, retaken, and imprisoned again, notwithstanding the term for which he was sentenced to be imprisoned may have expired, at the time when he shall be retaken, and he shall remain so imprisoned, until he be discharged by a due course of law, and the period elapsing between his escape and arrest, shall not be computed as a satisfaction pro tanto, of the term for which he was sentenced to imprisonment.

Penalty for prisoners escaping.

Section 20. If any person or persons, shall knowingly and willfully resist or oppose any officer of this State, in serving or attempting to serve, or execute, any legal writ or process whatsoever, he shall on conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty and not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Resisting process, &c.

Concealing slaves guilty of capital offences.

Section 21. Every master or other person, having in charge a slave, guilty of any capital crime, who shall conceal, or cause to be concealed, or carry away, or cause to be carried away, such slave, such master or other person having him in charge, being informed of the commission of such crime, and intending by the concealment or carrying away of such slave, to prevent him from being brought to justice; and every master or other person having in charge a slave, who shall conceal, or cause to be concealed, or carry away or cause to be carried away, such slave, charged with the commission of a capital crime, shall on conviction of either of the foregoing offences, be fined in the sum of one thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the penitentiary, not less than two years, at the discretion of the jury trying the same.

Misprision of felony.

Section 22. Every person having a knowledge of the commission of an offence, punishable by death, or by imprisonment in the penitentiary, who shall take any money, or property of another, or any gratuity or reward, or engagement or promise therefor, upon any agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound, or conceal any such crime, or to abstain from any prosecution therefor, shall upon conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars.

Conspiracy to indict another maliciously.

Section 23. If two or more persons shall conspire either to commit any offence, or falsely and maliciously to indict another for an offence, or to procure another to be charged or arrested for any offence, or falsely to move or maintain any suit, or to cheat and defraud any person of any property by any means in themselves criminal, or to cheat and defraud any person of any property, by any means which would amount to a cheat, or to obtain any money or property by false pretences, or to commit any act injurious to the public health, to public morals, to trade or commerce, or for the perversion or obstruction of justice, or the due administration of the laws, they shall upon conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by fine or imprisonment in the county jail, or both, according to the circumstances of the case; but the fine in no case, shall exceed one thousand dollars, and the imprisonment in no case, shall exceed six months.

Conspiracy defined.

Section 24. No agreement, except to commit a felony upon the person of another, or to commit the crime of arson in the first degree, or burglary, shall be deemed a conspiracy, unless some act besides such agreement be done to effect the object thereof.

Explanation.

Section 25. No other conspiracies than such as are enumerated in the two sections last preceding, shall be punished criminally.

Justices, &c. taking extra fees.

Section 26. If any justice of the peace, clerk, sheriff, or other officer, authorized by the laws of this State to receive fees or perquisites for services rendered by him in his official capacity, shall knowingly take other or greater fees than are by law allowed for any service done or to be done by him, or shall demand and take any fees for services not actually rendered, or to be rendered, the officer so offending, shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and on conviction, shall be fined in a sum not less than twenty, nor more than five hundred dollars.

Section 27. If any justice or conservator of the peace, upon view of any breach of the peace, or any other offence proper for his cognizance, shall require any person to apprehend and bring before him the offender, every person so required, who shall refuse or neglect to obey such justice or conservator of the peace, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be fined not less than fifty, and not exceeding three hundred dollars; and every one assaulting and beating, or resisting such person acting in obedience to the the command of such justice or conservator of the peace, with a knowledge of such command, shall be guilty in the same manner as if he had assaulted and beat, or resisted an officer in serving or executing legal process, and, on conviction of either of these offences, shall receive the punishment thereto annexed by the preceding provisions of this chapter.

CHAPTER SIXTH.

Of Offences against the Public Morals.

Section 1. No cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted on any slave, and any master or other person having charge of a slave, who shall be guilty of inflicting such punishment, or authorizing or permitting the same, shall be subject to indictment therefor, and on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not less than fifty, and not exceeding one thousand dollars; and in addition thereto, be required to give security for his good behavior, for the space of twelve months.

Section 2. Every person who shall wilfully administer to any pregnant woman any medicines, drugs, substance or thing whatever, or shall use and employ any instrument or means whatever with intent thereby to procure the miscarriage of such woman, unless the same shall be necessary to preserve her life, or shall have been advised by a respectable physician to be necessary for that purpose, shall upon conviction, be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail, not less than three, and not exceeding six months.

Section 3. If any man and woman shall live together in adultery or fornication, each of them shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon the first conviction, be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars, and may, at the discretion of the court before whom such offenders are tried, be imprisoned for a term not exceeding six months; on a second conviction for adultery or fornication, the offenders shall be fined in a sum, not less than three hundred dollars; and at the discretion of the court trying the case, may be imprisoned in the county jail, not exceeding twelve months; and upon a third, or any subsequent conviction, the offender shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary two years.

Polygamy. Section 4. If any person, who has a former wife or husband living, shall marry another; or if he or she continue to cohabit with such second husband or wife in this State, he or she shall, except in the cases mentioned in the following section, be deemed guilty of polygamy, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than two, and not exceeding five years.

Explanatory. Section 5. The provisions of the preceding section, shall not extend to any person whose husband or wife shall have continually remained absent for the space of five years together, the party marrying again not knowing the other to be living within that time; nor to any person, by reason of any former marriage, that shall have been dissolved by the decree of a competent court, when he or she was not the guilty cause of such divorce.

Incestuous marriages. Section 6. Persons within the degrees of consanguinity or relationship within which marriages are declared by law to be incestuous and void, who shall intermarry with each other, or who shall live in a state of adultery with each other, knowing of such consanguinity, shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than two, and not exceeding seven years.

Sodomy. Section 7. Every person who shall commit the abominable and detestable crime against nature, either with mankind or with any beast, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than two, nor exceeding ten years.

Gaming. Section 8. If any person shall play at any tavern, inn, store house for retailing spirituous liquors, or house or place where spirituous liquors are retailed, or given away, or any public house or highway, or any other public place, or in any out house where people resort, at any game or games, with cards or dice, or with any other device or substitute for cards or dice, such person so offending, shall on conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not less than twenty and not exceeding fifty dollars.

Tavern keepers permitting gaming. Section 9. Every tavern keeper, or proprietor, or superintendent of any other public house, or owner or proprietor of any out house where people resort, or retailer of spirituous liquors, who shall knowingly suffer any game inhibited by the preceding section, to be exhibited or played in his tavern, inn, or house for retailing spirituous liquors, or in any house or shelter apartment thereto, or any other public place or out house where people resort, shall upon conviction, be fined not less than fifty and not exceeding three hundred dollars.

Att'y General and solicitors to summon persons before grand jury. Section 10. The attorney general and the several solicitors of this State shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to send a summons to any person or persons, in the name of such solicitor or attorney general, directing them to come before the grand jury of the proper county, and to give evidence of any gaming in violation of the laws of this State against that offence; and the person or persons so summoned shall not be liable or subject to an indictment, for any offence of which he may have given evidence; and the attorney general, and the several solicitors, are authorized to issue a summons as aforesaid, not only while the grand jury is in session, before which the witness may be required to testify, but at any time previous to the sitting of the court at which they are to be impannelled : and if any person shall fail or refuse to attend and testify in obedience to such summons, he shall be liable to indictment, and on conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty nor exceeding five hundred dollars, and sentenced to a term of imprisonment not exceeding three months : Provided, all reasonable excuses shall be heard.

Penalty for refusal to obey.

Section 11. On the prosecution of any person for gaming, against the provisions aforesaid, it shall be sufficient for the indictment to charge, that the person or persons so offending, did play at cards or dice, or some device or substitute for cards or dice, (as the case may be,) in some of the places above specified, without stating what description of game, or without stating that money or any other thing, was bet or staked upon such gaming ; and upon making proof of the charge, as laid in the indictment, the offence shall be complete without proving what the game was or is called, and without proving that any thing was bet upon the event of such game.

Indictment for gaming.

Section 12. If any person shall hereafter be guilty of keeping or exhibiting any gaming table, called A B C or E O, or roulette, or rowley powley, or rouge et noir, or thimbles, sometimes called three ticket lottery, or chucker luck, or faro bank ; or shall keep and exhibit any other gaming table, or bank of the like kind, or of any other description, under any other name or denomination, or without any name therefor, or shall in any manner be interested or concerned in the keeping, exhibiting or carrying on, any such table, bank or game, each and every person so offending, and being thereof convicted, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for two years.

Gaming tables.

Section 13. It shall be the duty of the judges of the circuit and county courts, justices of the peace, sheriffs and constables, mayor, aldermen and other police officers of cities, and the municipal or police officers of towns, who shall receive information, or shall have good cause to believe that any person is guilty of any of the offences created by the preceding section, to cause such person so suspected to be arrested, and brought before such judge, justice or some other officer or magistrate having jurisdiction in the premises, and if on examination, the said judge, justice or magistrate before whom such suspected person shall be taken, shall be of opinion that he is guilty of the charge alledged against him, said judge, justice or magistrate shall bind him in a recognizance with good and sufficient sureties, to appear at the next term of the circuit court of the proper county, to answer such charge ; and further, that he will not in the mean time be guilty of the like offence, and in default of giving the surety required, he shall be committed to the jail of the county for safe keeping.

Duty of judges, justices, &c.

Betting at gaming tables

Section 14. If any person shall bet or be concerned in betting at any of the gaming tables or banks before mentioned or particularly described, or referred to in general terms, such person shall upon conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Indictment :
For keeping gaming table.

Section 15. In all prosecutions for offences under the preceding sections, it shall be sufficient for the indictment to charge that the person indicted did keep the gaming table or bank, particularly or generally described as aforesaid, for gaming, without proving that any money or other thing was won or lost, or bet upon such gaming table or bank; and to alledge that the person charged was interested or concerned, in keeping, exhibiting, and carrying on such table, game or bank, without setting forth the particular manner in which the defendant was concerned; and it shall be sufficient in an indictment for betting, and being concerned in betting, at, or keeping, or being concerned in keeping, or carrying on any gaming table or bank, either particularly described or referred to in general terms as aforesaid, to describe the table or bank by its name, (if known) if not known, then by a table or bank the name of which is unknown; and the several solicitors in this State, the attorney general and grand jury, shall have power under the direction of the court, to compel the attendance of witnesses, in the same manner as is prescribed in a preceding section of this chapter.

For betting.

Persons permitting gaming in houses,
&c.

Section 16. If any owner or occupant of any house, out house, or other building, booth or tent, shall knowingly permit or suffer any of the tables or banks particularly or generally described as aforesaid, to be carried on or exhibited in his house, out house, or building, booth or tent, and be thereof convicted, he shall be fined in a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars: Provided, always, that if the owner or occupant of any house, out house, or other building, booth or tent, shall give information to any judge or justice of the peace, of the proper county, against any person keeping, exhibiting or concerned or interested, in said table or bank, within six days after the same comes to his knowledge, he or they so informing shall not be liable to the penalties of this section.

Money lost gaming may be recovered.

Section 17. If any person shall by playing at cards, dice, or any other game, or by betting on the sides or hands of such as are gaming, lose to any person so playing or betting, any sum of money, or other goods whatever, and shall pay or deliver any part thereof, to the winner, the person so losing, or paying, or delivering the same, may sue for and recover such money in an action for money had and received for the use of the plaintiff, and such goods in an action of trover or detinue, according as the possession may or may not be with the winner, at the time of the action brought: Provided, however, that neither of the aforesaid actions shall be maintained, by the loser of such money or goods, unless the same shall be brought within six months from the time of the payment or delivery of the goods.

Proviso.

Section 18. If any action shall be brought as provided in the preceding section, by the person so losing any money, or goods, against the person winning the same, when it shall appear from the declaration, that such money, or goods, came to the hands of the defendant by gaming, if the plaintiff, when required by the court before whom the cause is tried, to establish his cause of action, shall make oath that the said money, or goods, were lost by gaming, with the defendant, as alleged in the declaration, the plaintiff shall recover the amount of such money, or goods, unless the defendant will make oath that he did not obtain the same by gaming; and if he shall so discharge himself, he shall recover of the plaintiff his costs: Provided, that the plaintiff may, upon being required by the court to establish the allegations of his declaration, refuse to testify at his election, and if he so refuse, he may maintain and prosecute his action according to the usual course of proceeding in such actions at common law. Proceedings regulated.

Section 19. Every person who shall keep a billiard table in connection with a house where spirituous liquors are retailed, as an appendage thereto, shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not less than two hundred, and not exceeding five hundred dollars. Billiard table.

Section 20. If any person shall, without special permission from the legislature, set up any lottery to raise and collect money, or for the sale or distribution of any property, he shall, on conviction, be fined not less than one hundred, and not exceeding two thousand dollars. Lotteries.

Section 21. Every person who shall knowingly commit any fraud in the packing or bailing of cotton, by placing good cotton on the outside of such bale, commonly called plating, when the interior part thereof is composed of inferior cotton, or by putting and mixing with the cotton contained in the bale, any other material or substance than ginned cotton, and be thereof convicted, shall be fined not less than fifty, nor more than five hundred dollars, and may also be imprisoned not exceeding three months. Fraud in packing cotton.

Section 22. Every person who shall be guilty of a fraud by mixing sand, or other matter or thing with sugar, so as to deteriorate the quality thereof, with intent to injure or defraud the purchaser of the same, and be thereof convicted, shall be fined not less than twenty, nor more than two hundred dollars, and may be imprisoned not more than thirty days. Fraud in sugar.

Section 23. Every person who shall hereafter make any bet, or wager of money, or other thing of value upon any election in this State, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined in a sum not less than fifty, and not exceeding five hundred dollars; and if the person who shall thus make a bet or wager, of money, or other thing of value, be a sheriff, coroner, constable, or other person who may be concerned in holding, conducting, or making any election, as an officer, judge, clerk or otherwise, he shall, in addition to the fine above prescribed, be imprisoned at the discretion of the jury trying the offence, in the county jail, for a period not exceeding six months. Betting on elections.

CHAPTER SEVENTH.

Of Miscellaneous Offences.

Unchartered banking companies.

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, or any company, corporation, or unchartered banking association, to make, emit, issue, or put in circulation, any note, bill, bond, draft, check, or post note, or paper of any name or description whatsoever, to answer the purpose of money, or for general circulation, and for every such note, bill, bond, draft, check, post note, or other paper so made, emitted, issued, or put in circulation, such person or persons, and each and every individual of said company, corporation, or unchartered banking association, so making, issuing, emitting, or putting in circulation, such note, bill, bond, draft, check, post note, or other paper, shall be held to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to be indicted therefor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined for every such offence at the discretion of the jury trying the same, not less than one hundred, nor more than five hundred dollars, and that upon failure to pay the fine, shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding twelve months.

Signing notes or bills.

Section 2. If any person or persons shall sign any note, bill, bond, draft, check, post note, or any paper of other name or description whatsoever, as cashier or president, or under any other name, or in the name of any company, incorporation, or unchartered banking association, to be put in circulation to answer the purposes of money, such president, or cashier, or other person, under any other name, so signing said note, bill, bond, draft, check, post note, or paper as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to be indicted, and, upon conviction, shall be fined for every such offence, in a sum not less than one hundred, nor more than five hundred dollars, at the discretion of the jury trying the same, and the signatures of the person or persons so charged, to the note, bond, bill, draft, check, post note, or paper aforesaid, shall be taken and held to be proof of such signing, unless the fact of signing be denied on oath by the defendant.

Passing off or circulating
notes or bills.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, within the limits of this State, to pass off, issue, emit, or put in circulation, any note, bill, bond, check, draft, or post note, of any incorporation, company, or unchartered banking association; and any person or persons violating the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to be indicted, and upon conviction, shall be fined for every such note, bill, bond, check, draft, post note, or other paper so issued, emitted, passed off, or put in circulation, not less than twenty, nor more than one hundred dollars, at the discretion of the jury trying said offence.

Section 4. Every one who shall hereafter carry concealed about his person, a bowie knife, or knife or instrument of the like kind or description, by whatever name called, dirk or any other deadly weapon, pistol or any species of fire arms, or air gun, unless such person shall be threatened with, or have good cause to apprehend an attack, or be travelling, or setting out on a journey, shall on conviction, be fined not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars: It shall devolve on the person setting up the excuse here allowed for carrying concealed weapons, to make it out by proof, to the satisfaction of the jury; but no excuse shall be sufficient to authorize the carrying of an air gun, bowie knife, or knife of the like kind or description.

Carrying concealed weapons.

Section 5. If any person shall at the same election vote more than once for the same candidate for the same office, or for different candidates for the same office, either in the same or in different precincts, or vote when he is not legally authorized so to do, he shall upon conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined in the sum of two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding one year.

Illegal voting.

Section 6. Every apothecary, druggist, or other person, who shall sell and deliver any arsenic, corrosive sublimate, prussic acid, or other substance, either solid or liquid, usually denominated poisonous, without having the word 'poison,' written or printed on a label attached to the vial, box or parcel, in which the same is sold, or shall sell and deliver any tartar emetic, without having the true or common name thereof written or printed upon a label attached to the vial, box or parcel containing the same, shall upon conviction, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Apothecaries selling poisonous drugs without label.

Section 7. Every apothecary, druggist, or other person, who shall give, sell or deliver, any of the drugs described in the preceding section, or any other drug or medicine, poisonous in its nature, to any slave, without an order in writing from the owner or manager of such slave, designating the drug or medicine, either by name, or the effect to be produced by it, he or she so offending, shall on conviction, be held guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, and may also be imprisoned not exceeding three months.

Selling to slaves.

Section 8. Every person who shall buy, sell or receive from any slave, any commodity of any kind or description, without the leave or consent of the master, owner, or overseer of such slave, verbally or in writing, expressing the articles permitted to be sold or bartered, first obtained, shall on conviction, be fined in a sum not less than ten, nor more than one hundred dollars, and may be imprisoned not more than three months.

Trading with slaves.

Section 9. Every sheriff, coroner, constable, clerk, or justice of the peace, who shall within three days after demand made, fail or refuse to pay over any money received or collected by him in his official capacity, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be fined in a sum not less than one half, and not exceeding the entire amount received or collected: Provided, that the party entitled to such money, shall remain in the county, or have an agent there, up to the expiration of three days after demand as aforesaid; and nothing in this section contained shall be construed to affect the private remedy of the party injured, either by motion or otherwise.

CHAPTER EIGHTH.

Of General Provisions.

Duty of court in capital cases. Section 1. Whenever any person shall be sentenced to the punishment of death, the court before whom he was tried, shall direct that he be hanged by the neck till he is dead; and such sentence shall be executed by the proper executive officer of the law, on such day as the court shall appoint, not less than four weeks and not more than eight weeks from the time of the sentence, unless the court trying such convict, shall suspend the execution by a reference to the supreme court, of novel and difficult questions of law, arising in the case.

Sentence. Section 2. The sentences of courts directing the execution of a person as aforesaid, shall be executed by the sheriff or by his regularly appointed deputy, unless there be no sheriff in the county, in which event, the coroner shall be authorized to do execution.

Execution. Section 3. The punishment of death shall be inflicted either in the prison where the convict shall be confined, or within an inclosed yard of such prison, if there be one, or if the arrangement of the prison and its precincts be such as execution cannot there be done, then the punishment shall be inflicted as heretofore; and Regulations. it shall be the duty of the sheriff, or if there be no sheriff, the coroner, to give at least three day's previous notice, to the judge of the county court, the clerks of the circuit and county court, at least five justices of the peace, if there be so many in the county, and the physicians of the neighborhood, who may be present and witness the execution; and the persons thus attending the execution, shall make out and sign a certificate in writing, declaring that the convict was executed pursuant to his sentence; and the officer doing execution, shall permit the counsel of the convict, such ministers of the gospel as the convict shall desire, and his relations to be present, and also, such officers of the prison, deputies and constables, military guard, or other assistants, as he shall see fit.

Female convicts—when pregnant. Section 4. If a female convict sentenced to the punishment of death, shall be pregnant, it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the county, with the concurrence of the judge of the circuit court, or if he be absent, with the concurrence of any other circuit judge of the State, to summon a jury who are free from all interest, occasioned either by relationship or otherwise, which jury shall consist of the number of six, all of whom shall be physicians, if it be practicable; and if it be not practicable to obtain so many physicians in the county, then the jury shall be made up by associating a number of intelligent persons to complete that number, and the sheriff shall give immediate notice thereof to the solicitor of the circuit, who shall attend and have power to issue subpoenas, and an inquisition shall be made and signed by the jurors and sheriff.

Section 5. If by such inquisition it shall appear that such female convict is with child, the sheriff shall suspend her sentence, and shall transmit the same to the Governor. Duty of sheriff.

Section 6. Whenever the Governor shall be satisfied that such female convict is no longer with child, he shall issue his warrant appointing a day for her execution pursuant to her sentence. Of Governor.

Section 7. When for any reason any convict sentenced to the punishment of death, shall not have been executed pursuant to such sentence, and the same shall stand in full force, the circuit court of the county before whom such convict was tried, on the application of the solicitor of the circuit shall direct the convict to be brought to the bar of the court, or if necessary, shall issue a writ of habeas corpus for that purpose, or if he be at large, a warrant for his apprehension shall be issued by said court, or by any other judge or justice having authority to cause offenders against the criminal laws to be arrested, and upon such convict being brought before the court, it shall proceed to inquire into the facts and circumstances, and if no legal reason exist against the execution of such sentence, the court shall re-sentence the convict to execution, on a day therein to be appointed; and if such offender shall be arrested under a warrant to be issued as aforesaid, the judge or justice issuing the same, if no good reason is shown for his discharge, shall commit such convict, that he be forthcoming to abide the order and sentence of the said circuit court. When sentence is not executed, how proceeded against.

Section 8. The term felony when used in any statute, shall be construed to mean an offence, for which the offender on conviction shall be liable by law to be punished by death, or for which imprisonment in the penitentiary, is made the appropriate punishment. Felony defined.

Section 9. When the term person in this code is used to designate the party whose property may be the subject of any offence, such term shall be construed to include the United States, this State, or any other state government or country, which may lawfully own any property within this State, and all public and private corporations, as well as individuals; and wherever the term person is used as designating the offender against criminal justice, the name shall be held to include all persons concerned, when there are more than one, and wherever the term he, him or them is used in reference to the commission of any offence, it shall be held to extend to females, unless its meaning be expressly limited, or in the connexion in which they are used, such extended meaning cannot with propriety be given to them. The term person how applied.

Section 10. Where any intent to injure, defraud or cheat is required by law to be shown in order to constitute any offence, it shall be sufficient if such intent be to injure, defraud or cheat the In cases of fraud, &c.

United States, this State, or any other State, or any public officer thereof, or any county city or town, or any corporation, body politic, or private individual.

Of variance between evidence and indictment.

Section 11. Whenever in the progress of a criminal trial it shall be found that there is such a material variance between the allegations of the indictment and the proof adduced as will for that cause authorize the acquittal of the accused, and he shall not assent to the amendment of the indictment so as to correspond with the proof, it shall be lawful for the solicitor with the leave of the court to enter a nolle prosequi, at any time before the jury shall retire, and prefer another indictment at the same or any subsequent term of the court, and the period of time elapsing between the preferring of the first indictment, and the second or other subsequent indictment, shall be deducted from any term limited for the prosecution of the offence for which the accused is indicted.

Offences of different degrees.

Section 12. Upon an indictment for any offence consisting of different degrees, as prescribed by law, the jury may find the accused not guilty of the offence in the degree charged in the indictment, and may find him guilty of any degree of such offence inferior to that charged in the indictment, or of an attempt to commit such an offence; and whenever a person is indicted for an offence embracing one or more offences of a lesser character, if the guilt of the accused is not made out as charged, it shall be competent for the jury if the proof authorizes it, to find the accused guilty of the lesser offence, whether a felony or a misdemeanor.

Principals in 2d degree.

Section 13. Every person who shall be a principal in the second degree in the commission of any felony, or who shall be accessory to a murder before the fact, shall upon conviction, be punished in the same manner as is hereinbefore prescribed in respect to principals in the first degree.

Concealing or aiding felons
to escape.

Section 14. Every person who shall be convicted of having concealed any offender after the commission of any felony, or of having given such offender any other aid, knowing that he has committed a felony, with intent and in order that he may avoid or escape from arrest, trial and conviction or punishment, and no other shall be deemed an accessory after the fact, and upon conviction shall be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and may be imprisoned at the discretion of the court in the county jail, not exceeding six months: Provided, the person standing to the principal offender in the relation of parent, child, brother, sister, husband or wife, shall not be deemed accessories after the fact.

Proviso.

Accessories
to felony.

Section 15. Any person charged as an accessory to any felony, before the fact, shall be indicted, tried and punished in the same county, where the principal felon was or might be indicted and tried, although the offence of counselling or procuring a commission of such felony, may have been committed on the high seas, or on land, either within or without the limits of this State.

Section 16. Every person who shall be an accessory to any felony either by common law or by any statute, now or hereafter to be enacted, may be indicted, tried and convicted, if the principal felon be dead, or shall have fled from justice, and an allegation of either of these facts, shall be equivalent to an allegation of a previous conviction.

Accessories
tried if principal be dead,
&c.

Section 17. If any person convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, and either upon being pardoned or upon the expiration of the term of his sentence, shall subsequently be convicted of any offence committed after such pardon or discharge, he shall upon each second or any subsequent conviction, be sentenced to imprisonment at least for the same period of time that he was sentenced upon his last conviction, and in addition thereto one fourth of the length of time of such sentence; provided, that the offence for which such second or subsequent conviction shall be had, shall have been committed after the first or previous conviction; and in no case shall the term of imprisonment exceed the longest period prescribed by law for the particular offence.

Pardoned convicts punished.

Section 18. Every person who shall have been convicted in any of the United States, or in any District or Territory thereof, or in any foreign country of an offence, which if committed in this State would be punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, shall, upon conviction for any subsequent offence committed within this State, be subject to the punishment prescribed in the last section upon second and other subsequent convictions, in the same manner and to the same extent, as if such first conviction had taken place in a court in this State.

Convicts
from other States.

Section 19. When any person shall be convicted of two or more offences before sentence shall have been pronounced upon him for either offence, the imprisonment to which he shall be sentenced upon the second or other subsequent conviction, shall commence at the termination of the first term of imprisonment to which he shall be adjudged, or at the termination of the second term of imprisonment as the case may be.

Sentences,
how to take effect.

Section 20. Whenever, by law, an offender is declared punishable, upon conviction, by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than any specified number of years, and no limit to the duration of such imprisonment is declared, the court authorized to pronounce judgment upon such conviction, may, in its discretion, sentence such offender to imprisonment during his natural life, or for any number of years not less than such as are prescribed; and in all cases the court shall prescribe the term of imprisonment both in the penitentiary and county jail, unless it shall be expressly directed otherwise.

When sentence is not limited, &c.

Section 21. Whenever the appropriate punishment for any offence shall be a fine only, or a fine and imprisonment, it shall be the duty of the jury to assess the fine, except in such cases as it may be otherwise specially provided.

Jury to assess fine.

When fines are not paid convict to be imprisoned.

Section 22. In all cases punishable by fine only, or fine and imprisonment in the county jail, when the fine assessed, together with all costs, are not paid, it shall be the duty of the court to sentence the convict to the county jail for a term not less than ten days; and when the fine is as much as fifty and not exceeding one hundred dollars, the commitment shall be for the period of thirty days; when as much as an hundred and not exceeding two hundred dollars, the commitment shall be for sixty days; when over two hundred and less than five hundred dollars, the commitment shall be for three months; when five hundred dollars and more, it shall be six months; and in all cases the judgment of the court shall not only direct the imprisonment of the convict for a term certain, but shall also direct his confinement till the fine and costs are paid, or he shall be otherwise legally discharged: Provided, that in cases where a fine is the only punishment, or where the infliction of imprisonment is discretionary with the court, and the court may think that the payment of the fine assessed is an adequate punishment, if in such cases the convict shall, with one or more persons of undoubted responsibility, as his sureties, confess a judgment in favor of the State, for the amount of the fine and costs, the court shall not sentence him to imprisonment as directed by this section; but the payment of the fine, or the security therefor, given aforesaid, imprisonment for its non-payment shall not prevent the court, where it is vested with power from superadding a further term of imprisonment.

Proviso.

Misdemeanors.

Section 23. All misdemeanors the punishment of which is not provided for by this code, shall be punished as at common law, by fine and imprisonment in the county jail; the fine shall be assessed by the jury, and shall in no case where the party injured has a private remedy for the recovery of damages, exceed two thousand dollars, unless the fine is to be paid to him to compensate for the injury sustained; the imprisonment may or may not be superadded, as the court trying the offender shall deem expedient, but its duration shall in no case exceed six months; and for convictions for misdemeanors expressly embraced by this code, where a fine only is made the appropriate punishment, imprisonment shall be imposed only in the event of its nonpayment, as provided in the preceding section.

Prisoners may be removed when sick.

Section 24. Whenever it shall be made satisfactorily to appear to any judge of the circuit court, or to the judge of the county court of the county, that the life of a prisoner confined in a county jail is endangered, or that his health will be seriously affected by remaining therein, such judge shall by an order in writing, direct the sheriff or jailer to remove such prisoner to some suitable and safe place, as near as may be to the jail, and him there safely keep until his health be sufficiently restored to authorize his recommitment; to insure the safe keeping of such prisoner, the sheriff or jailer shall summon a sufficient guard to aid him day and night; and the guard so summoned shall be bound to attend under the penalty provided for disobedience in refusing to assist in conveying convicts to the penitentiary, and shall be entitled, for each days service, to one dollar and twenty-five cents; and if the sheriff or jailer, shall, negligently or voluntarily, suffer any prisoner to escape, during the time he shall be thus removed from the jail, he shall be guilty of an escape, in the same manner as if such prisoner shall have escaped from jail; and if such sheriff or jailer, shall not recommit to the jail such prisoner, as soon as his health shall appear to have been sufficiently restored to render it prudent, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be fined not less than fifty, and not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Section 25. Where an original and alias writ of scire facias, issued upon a judgment nisi, rendered at the instance of the State, upon a forfeited recognizance, shall be returned "not found," such return shall be equivalent to the personal service of the process, and authorize the court in which the judgment, nisi, was rendered to make the same absolute: Provided, that such writs shall have been returned by the proper officer of the county in which the forfeited recognizance, shall have been entered into or acknowledged.

absolute.

Section 26. All indictments for offences inhibited in this code, which are offences at common law, shall be good, if the offence be charged or described according to the common law; and the party charged, on conviction, shall receive the punishment prescribed by this act, nor shall the words "force and arms," or "contrary to the form of the statute," be regarded as necessary in any indictment whatever; but indictments wanting these words, shall be deemed as effectual, to all intents and purposes, as indictments having the same words in them.

What sufficient in indictments.

Section 27. Whenever any convict, sentenced by any court of this State or of the United States, to be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, shall at the time of conviction and sentence, hold any office under the constitution and laws of this State, such office shall be deemed to be vacated from the time of his sentence to imprisonment in the penitentiary; and if the judgment against such convict shall be reversed, he shall be restored to his office, with all its rights and emoluments; but, if pardoned, he shall not by reason thereof be restored to his office.

Office vacated when the holder is convicted.

Section 28. The effect of a sentence of imprisonment in the penitentiary shall be to put an end to the right of such convict to execute the office of an executor, administrator or guardian, in the same manner as if such convict had been removed from such office, to extinguish all private trusts not susceptible of delegation by such convict; when the sentence of imprisonment shall be life, the convict shall be deemed civilly dead; but such convict may make and publish his last will and testament, at any time, within thirty days after his sentence; and if any married person be sentenced for a term of seven or more years, and shall have, pursuant to such sentence, remained in confinement for the space of two years, it shall be lawful cause of divorce.

Effect of sentence on civil rights.

Section 29. Every person sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for the offence of bribery, forgery, robbery, burglary, arson, larceny, perjury, subornation of perjury, or conspiracy to cheat, shall be incompetent forever after to give testimony in any court of justice, or any tribunal relating to any matter or thing whatever, and shall also be disqualified from serving on juries; and no pardon granted by the Governor in any one of the cases stated in this section, shall have the effect to remove the disability imposed, unless such pardon shall so express upon its face.

Solicitors fees regulated.

Section 30. Upon all convictions on indictments under the sections of this chapter, which inhibit the keeping or exhibiting of any gaming table or bank, or which makes it penal for the owner or occupant of any house to permit or suffer the same to be used for the keeping or exhibition of any gaming table or bank, the attorney general or solicitor, shall be entitled to a fee of one hundred dollars; upon convictions on indictments under any other provision of the law against gaming, the attorney general or solicitor, shall be entitled to a fee of forty dollars; and upon all convictions in which the punishment shall be imprisonment in the penitentiary, the attorney general or solicitor, shall be entitled to a fee of twenty dollars, and on all other convictions, to a fee of five dollars, to be taxed in the bill of costs, and paid by the party convicted.

Clerk to issue
fi. fa.

Section 31. After every conviction and sentence for any offence made punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, the clerk shall issue a fieri facias, on the judgment which shall be rendered in favor of the State, in usual form, for the collection of the costs of the prosecution, and for the collection of the value of the property assessed by the jury, in larceny and other cases authorized by law.

Powers vested in sheriffs,
&c.

Section 32. That sheriffs, coroners and constables may be vested with ample power to enable them to discharge the duties devolved upon them, they are hereby authorized in cases not otherwise provided for by this code, to summon to their aid a sufficient number of the posse of their county, to enable them to execute all process, both civil or criminal, or to arrest all offenders against the law in cases in which they are authorized to proceed without process, or to convey all persons in custody from place to place pursuant to law; and every person summoned by either of such officers for the purposes aforesaid, who shall refuse obedience to the summons, shall on conviction, be fined in a sum not less than fifty and not exceeding three hundred dollars; and it shall be the duty of the officer to present to the grand jury at the next term of the circuit court of the county, the case of such offender, that the same may be examined according to law.

Persons summoned not liable for defect.

Section 33. Any person summoned by a sheriff, coroner or constable, as in the last section provided, shall not be liable to an action for obeying such summons, by reason of any defect or irregularity in the authority of such officer, as he did nothing more than was allowed had his authority been regular and sufficient.

Section 34. The persons summoned as aforesaid, if employed as long a time as one day, shall be allowed the same compensation as is allowed to guards who aid in conveying convicts to the penitentiary, and shall be paid from the same fund, unless their services were required in the execution of civil process, in which the charge for compensation shall be borne by the party chargeable with the costs of the cases: Provided, that it shall be competent for such party to move the circuit court of the county, next thereafter to be holden, to exempt him from the payment of the charge; notice of which motion shall be given to the officer and the plaintiff in the process; and if after hearing proof adduced, the court shall be satisfied that the officer had no just cause for summoning assistants, and was not so directed by the plaintiff, he shall be taxed with the charge for compensation; but if he acted under directions from the plaintiff or his attorney, then the plaintiff shall bear the burden, and also the costs of the motion; but if the party making the motion fail to sustain the same, it shall be dismissed at his costs.

Compensation of persons summoned.

Proviso.

Section 35. In all prosecutions for perjury or subornation of perjury, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence, and by what court or before whom the false oath or affirmation was taken, averring such court or person to have competent authority to administer the same, without setting forth the commission or authority of such court or person; nor shall it be necessary to set out at length any bill, answer, indictment, information, declaration, record or proceeding, other than as aforesaid.

Prosecutions for forgery.

Section 36. It shall be lawful for the defendant in any prosecution for a libel, to give in evidence in his defence, the truth of the matter contained in the publication charged as a libel, and the jury shall be judge both of the law and the fact, under the direction of the court, as in other cases.

Libels.

Section 37. All offences punished by confinement in the penitentiary, except murder in the second degree, manslaughter in the first degree, arson, forgery, counterfeiting, grand larceny, or the larceny of a slave, horse, ass or mule, perjury, and subornation of perjury, shall be prosecuted within three years next after the commission of such offence, and not after.

Actions limited to three years.

Section 38. In perjury and subornation of perjury the offender shall be prosecuted within five years, and not after; the prosecution for all misdemeanors shall be commenced within one year after the commission of the offence and not after.

Perjury limited to 5 years.

Section 39. The issuance of a warrant shall be deemed the commencement of a prosecution, within the provisions of the preceding section.

Prosecution.

Section 40. No person charged with the commission of an offence capitally punished, shall be admitted to bail as a matter of right, when he is not tried at the first term of the court, at which he was properly triable, if the failure to try his case proceeded from the non-attendance of the State's witnesses; where an affidavit is made satisfactorily accounting for their absence, or where there is an entire failure to hold the court, or where the trial is delayed in consequence of the sickness of the judge, or some member of his family, or where there is a premature adjournment of the court, for either of the last mentioned, or other sufficient cause, or where the judge, from any cause, is legally incompetent to try the accused, or where the term allowed by law, is so short that the case of the accused according to the accustomed course of proceeding could not be tried, or where it was found impracticable to obtain a jury for his trial, or where the trial was not completed in consequence of the sickness of a juror, or there was a mis-trial for any cause, or where the delay proceeds from the fault or misfortune of the prisoner; but if the accused shall not be tried at the next stated term of the court, and the failure to try his case shall not be occasioned by his fault or misfortune, or on his application, or with his assent, he shall be discharged on giving good and sufficient bail: Provided, that this section shall not be so construed as to prevent a prisoner, committed for a capital offence, from being bailed at or before the first stated term of the court, if authorized by law.

Proviso.

Governor empowered to commute punishment.

Section 41. The Governor of the State shall be, and is hereby authorized (if in his opinion it may consist with the public welfare) by and with the consent of the person condemned, to commute the punishment of death, by substituting therefor, imprisonment in the penitentiary for life or for twenty years, for all sentences of death which may have been, or may be rendered for offences committed previous to the enactment of this code; and he may commute in like manner any ignominious punishment by substituting therefor imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term of years, not less than two; and such commutation of punishment shall be as effectual as if sentence of imprisonment in the penitentiary had been passed by a competent court; it shall in such case be the duty of the Governor to cause a statement of such commutation to be certified to the clerk of the court where the conviction was had, whose duty it shall be to enter the same of record at the next term of the court, under the direction of the presiding judge, and the convict whose sentence is thus commuted shall be conveyed to the penitentiary as if he had been originally sentenced therein.

Provisions how applied.

Section 42. The preceding provisions of this code shall not extend to slaves, and if any slave shall commit any of the offences hereinbefore enumerated, he shall be tried and punished according to the law applicable to his case; but the preceding provisions shall embrace all offences committed by free negroes or other persons of color, except so far as they are excepted therefrom, either expressly or by enactment of a different law applying to them.

CHAPTER NINTH.

Of Preliminary Proceedings in Criminal Cases.

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the sheriff, coroner, and all constables within their respective counties, to arrest all persons who may commit in their presence any breach of the peace, or any one who may threaten to commit a breach of the peace, either by words or by acts, and the person arrested shall be taken before some convenient magistrate, together with all the testimony that can be produced against him, and such magistrate shall proceed to inquire into the circumstances, and shall dispose of the party arrested as law and justice may require. Arrests.

Section 2. Where a sheriff or coroner shall have strong ground to suspect that any person within his county has been guilty of a capital offence, within this State, it shall be his duty to arrest him, and take him forthwith before the judicial magistrate, within his county, who shall thereupon inquire into the evidence for and against the party suspected, and, upon such inquiry, shall so dispose of him, as law and justice may require. Persons suspected.

Section 3. All judicial officers in this State, and the mayor and aldermen of cities, and the municipal officers of all incorporated towns, within their respective jurisdiction, shall have power to cause to be kept, all laws made for the preservation of the public peace, and in the execution of that power, may require persons to give security to keep the peace, in the manner provided in this chapter. Powers of judicial officers.

Section 4. Whenever complaint shall be made to any such magistrate, that any person has threatened to commit an offence against the person or property of another, the magistrate shall examine the complaint, and any witnesses that may be produced, on oath, and cause such complaint to be reduced to writing, and subscribed by the party so examined; and if, upon such examination, it shall appear that there is a just cause to fear the commission of any such offence, by the person complained of, it shall be the duty of the magistrate to issue a warrant, under his hand, with or without seal, reciting the substance of the complaint, and requiring the officer to whom it may be directed, forthwith to apprehend the person complained of, and bring him before such magistrate, or some other magistrate, or court, having jurisdiction of the matter. Complaints before magistrates.

Section 5. When the party complained of is brought before the magistrate, he shall be heard in his defence, and may be required to enter into a recognizance, with sufficient sureties, in such sum as the magistrate shall direct, to keep the peace towards all the people of this State, and especially towards the person requiring such security, for such term as the magistrate may direct, not exceeding twelve and not less than six months; but the party complained of shall not be required to appear at the next term of the circuit court of the county, unless he is also charged for some other offence, for which he ought to be held to answer in such court. Party complained of.

zance.

Section 6. If such recognizance shall be given, the party complained of shall be discharged, and if such person complained of shall refuse to find such security, it shall be the duty of the magistrate to commit him to prison, until he shall find the same, specifying in the warrant the cause of commitment, and the sum in which such security is required.

Discharge.

Section 7. Any person committed for not finding sureties for the peace as above provided, may be discharged by the sheriff of the county in which he is detained, upon giving such security as was originally required of him.

Recognizance when returned.

Section 8. Every recognizance taken in pursuance of the foregoing provisions, shall be transmitted by the magistrate or officer taking the same, to the next circuit court of the county.

Discharge—costs.

Section 9. If upon examination it shall appear that there is no just cause to fear that any such offence will be committed by the party complained of, he shall forthwith be discharged; and if the magistrate shall deem the complaint unfounded or frivolous, he may order the complainant to pay the costs of the prosecution, who shall thereupon be answerable to the magistrate, and the officer executing the warrant for their fees, and an execution may issue to coerce payment.

Security.

Section 10. In all cases where a person is required to give security for the peace, or for his good behavior, the court or magistrate may further order that the costs of the prosecution, or any part thereof, shall be paid by such person, for which purpose an execution may issue for the collection of the same.

Appeals.

Section 11. Any person supposing himself aggrieved by the order of any judge of the county court, or any justice of the peace, mayor, or alderman of a city, or municipal officer of an incorporated town, requiring him to be recognized as aforesaid, may, on entering into bond and security, in a penalty equal to that required to enforce an observance of the peace, for the prosecution of his appeal to effect, and, in the mean time, to keep the peace, be entitled to an appeal to the circuit court of the county, next thereafter to be holden; and the magistrate from whose order an appeal is thus taken, may require such witnesses as he may think necessary, to be recognized, for their appearance at the court to which the appeal is made.

Appellate court.

Section 12. The court before which such appeal is prosecuted, may, upon examination, confirm the order of the justice, or discharge the appellant, or may require him to enter into a new recognizance, with sufficient sureties, conditioned in such sum, and for such time, as the court shall think proper; he may also make such order, in relation to the costs of the prosecution, as he may deem just and reasonable.

Failing to support appeal.

Section 13. If any party appealing shall fail to support his appeal, his recognizance shall remain in full force and effect, as to any breach of the condition, and shall also stand as security for any costs, which shall be ordered by the court appealed to, to be paid by the appellant, and the examination on such appeal shall be de novo.

Section 14. Every person who shall in the presence of any magistrate, or before any court of record, make any affray, or threaten to kill, or beat another, or to commit any violence or outrage upon his person or property, in a manner tending to the disturbance of the peace, may be ordered without process to be recognized, with sureties to keep the peace, for a term not exceeding six months, and in case of refusal, to be committed as before directed. Affrays before court.

Section 15. Whenever on a suit brought on any such recognition, the penalty thereof shall be adjudged forfeited by the circuit court, the court may remit such portion of the penalty as the circumstances of the case shall render just and reasonable. Court may remit penalty.

Section 16. For the apprehension of persons charged with criminal offences, the judges of the supreme court, chancellors, judges of the circuit and county courts, justices of the peace, mayor and aldermen of cities, and municipal officers of incorporated towns, within their respective jurisdictions, are authorized to issue process, under the rules and regulations hereinafter prescribed: upon complaint being made to any such magistrate, that a criminal offence has been committed, it shall be the duty of such magistrate to examine on oath the complainant, and any witnesses who may be produced by him, and shall cause the same to be subscribed by the parties examined, and if it shall appear that any such offence has been committed, the magistrate shall issue a warrant reciting the substance of the accusation, requiring the officer to whom it is directed, forthwith to take the person accused, and to bring him before the said magistrate, or some other magistrate of the county, to be dealt with according to law; and in the same warrant, may require the officer to summon such witnesses as shall be therein named, to appear and give evidence on examination. Judges of the supreme, circuit or county courts, and justices of the peace may issue process.

Section 17. Warrants issued by a judge of the supreme court, chancellor, judge of the circuit or county court or justice of the peace, may be executed in any part of this State, when the offender escapes from or out of the county, or from the sheriff or other officer, to whom such warrant was directed. Warrants.

Section 18. When the sheriff, or other officer, pursues the offender out of his county, if he requires aid in order to arrest the fugitive, he shall procure some one of the magistrates, having jurisdiction in the county to which the fugitive has escaped, to indorse the warrant, and upon such indorsement being made, may summon persons to assist him, and exercise the same authority as in his own county. Powers granted to sheriff, &c.

Section 19. No magistrate shall be liable to an indictment, action of trespass, or other action, for having indorsed any warrant, pursuant to the provisions of the last section, although it shall afterwards appear that such warrant was illegally or improperly Magistrate making indorsement not liable, &c.

issued; in all cases where the offences mentioned in the warrant, are not punishable by death or in the penitentiary, if the person arrested shall request that he may be brought before a magistrate of the county in which the arrest was made, for the purpose of entering into a recognizance, without a trial or examination, the officer who made the arrest, shall convey him before a magistrate of such county, who may take from the person arrested a recognizance, with sufficient securities, for his appearance at the court having cognizance of the offence, next thereafter to be holden, and the party arrested shall be thereupon discharged; but when the recognizance is taken in a county, other than that in which the warrant issued, the magistrate taking it, in prescribing the penalty, shall act upon the presumption that the offence is of an aggravated character.

Magistrate taking bail.

Section 20. The magistrate who shall so admit the person so arrested to bail, shall certify the fact upon the warrant, and shall deliver the same, with the recognizance by him taken, to the person who made the arrest, who shall cause the same to be delivered, without unnecessary delay, to the clerk of the court to which the accused was recognized to appear.

If no bail, or bail refused.

Section 21. If the magistrate in the county, where the arrest was made, shall refuse to admit to bail, the person so arrested and brought before him, or if no sufficient bail shall be offered, the person having him in charge, shall take him before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or in his absence, before some other magistrate of the county in which the warrant was issued, to be proceeded with as hereafter directed.

Arrests.

Section 22. Every person arrested by warrant for any offence where no provision is made for his examination therein, shall be brought before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or if he be absent, or unable to attend, before some other magistrate of the same county, and the warrant, with a proper return thereon, signed by the person who made the arrest, shall be delivered to the magistrate.

Magistrate
may adjourn
examination.

Section 23. Any magistrate may adjourn the examination, or trial, pending before himself, from time to time as occasion shall require, not exceeding ten days at any one time, without the consent of the defendant, or person charged, and to the same or a different place in the county, as he shall think necessary, and in such case, if the party is charged with a capital offence, he shall be committed in the mean time; if the offence be of a less grade, he may be recognized in a sum, with sureties, to the satisfaction of the magistrate, for his appearance for such further examination, and for want of such recognizance, he shall be committed to prison; and on the day appointed for continuing the examination, he may be brought before the magistrate by his verbal order, to the same officer, who had charge of him, or by an order in writing to a different person, if the custody has been changed.

Section 24. If the person so recognized, shall not appear before the magistrate at the time appointed for his further examination, according to the condition of such recognizance, the magistrate shall record the default, and shall certify the recognizance, with the record of such default to the circuit court of his county, next to be holden, and the like proceeding shall be had thereon, as upon the breach of the condition of the recognizance before that court.

In case of default.

Section 25. The magistrate, before whom any person is brought on a charge of having committed an offence, shall, as soon as may be, examine the complainant, and the witnesses to support the prosecution, on oath, in the presence of the party charged, in relation to any matters connected with such charge, which shall be deemed pertinent.

Examination.

Section 26. After the testimony to support the prosecution, the witnesses for the prisoner, if he have any, shall be sworn and examined, and he may be assisted by counsel in such examination; and also, in the cross examination of the witnesses, in support of the prosecution; the magistrate while examining any witnesses, may, at his discretion, and shall upon the application of the prosecutor; or the accused, exclude from the place of examination, all the other witnesses, whether for or against the prisoner; he may also, if requested, or if he see cause, direct the witnesses, both for the prosecution and the defence, to be kept separate, so that they cannot converse with each other, until they shall have been examined.

Defendant allowed counsel.

Section 27. The testimony of the witnesses examined, shall be reduced to writing, by the magistrate or under his direction, and shall be signed by the witnesses, if required by the magistrate; and if it shall appear to him upon the whole examination, that no offence has been committed, or if there is not probable cause to believe the accused guilty, and if the offence be bailable by the magistrate; and the prisoner offers sufficient bail, it shall be taken, and he shall be discharged; but if no sufficient bail be offered, or the offence be not bailable by the magistrate, the prisoner shall be committed to prison for trial.

Testimony of witnesses.

Section 28. When the accused is admitted to bail, or committed, the magistrate shall also bind by recognizance, such witnesses against the prisoner, as he shall deem material, or as the prosecutor may desire, to appear and testify at the court to which the accused shall be held to answer.

Witnesses recognized.

Section 29. It shall be the duty of the magistrate, if requested by the accused, to bind by recognizance his witnesses, to appear in the same manner as he is required to recognize the witnesses for the State.

Further recognizance.

Section 30. Whenever a magistrate shall be satisfied, by due proof, that there is good cause to believe that any witness recognized on the part of the State, will not perform the condition of his recognizance, unless other security be given, such magistrate may order the witness to enter into a recognizance, with such sureties as may be necessary for his appearance at court.

Security.

Married women or infants.

Section 31. Whenever any married woman or infant, is a material witness, any other person may be allowed to recognize for their appearance, and the magistrate may, in his discretion, require such married woman or infant to procure recognizors, for their appearance at court.

Witnesses refusing to recognize.

Proviso.

Section 32. All witnesses required to recognize, either with or without sureties, shall, if they refuse, be committed to prison by the magistrate, there to remain until they comply with such order, or be otherwise discharged according to law: Provided, however, that it shall not be competent, to require sureties of any witness, who does not reside within the State, and within fifty miles of the place where the examination is made.

Magistrate to make return to court.

Section 33. All examinations and recognizances touching criminal offences, shall be certified by the magistrate, taking the same, to the court at which the witnesses are bound to appear, on or before the first day of the setting thereof, and if such magistrate shall refuse or neglect to return the same, he may be compelled forthwith by rule of court, and in case of disobedience, may be proceeded against by attachment, as in cases of contempt.

Magistrate.

Section 34. Any magistrate to whom complaint is made, or before whom any prisoner is brought, may associate with himself, one or more magistrates of equal grade, and the powers and duties herein above prescribed, may be executed by such magistrates so associated.

Surety may surrender principal.

Section 35. Any surety in a recognizance to keep the peace, or to appear at court and answer a charge of a criminal offence, shall have the same authority and right to surrender his principal, as if he had been bail in a civil case, and upon such surrender, shall be discharged and exempt from all liability, for any act of the principal subsequent to such surrender, which would be a breach of the condition of the recognizance; and the person so surrendered, may be recognized anew, with sufficient sureties, by the sheriff, or any justice of the peace, for the residue of the term for which he was required to keep the peace, or to appear at court, according to the terms of the original recognizance, and thereupon shall be discharged.

CHAPTER TENTH.

Of Grand and Petit Jurors.

Jurors, how selected.

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the sheriffs of the several counties of this State, to obtain biennially, a list of the householders and freeholders within the same; and the sheriffs, judge of the county court, and clerks of the circuit and county courts, shall on the first Monday of May next, or within thirty days therefrom, and biennially thereafter, meet at the office of the clerk of the circuit court, and select from the list aforesaid, the names of such persons as may be adjudged competent to discharge the duties of grand and petit jurors, with honesty, impartiality and intelligence.

Section 2. A majority of the officers named in the preceding section, shall proceed to discharge the duties therein required, if all should not attend at the time and place appointed; and the duties required of them shall be considered official, and their respective oaths of office shall be regarded as a pledge for its faithful performance. A majority to act, &c.

Section 3. In making the selection as aforesaid, the officers named in the first section, shall select such persons only as they know, or have good reason to believe are possessed of the qualifications aforesaid, and are esteemed in the community for their integrity, fair character and sound judgment. Who selected

Section 4. No person under the age of twenty one years, or above the age of sixty, nor any person continually sick, or who may be diseased at the time of the summons, nor any habitual drunkard, shall be summoned on the jury. Ineligible.

Section 5. The professors and students of universities and colleges, attorneys and counsellors at law during the time they practice their profession, judges of the several courts, ministers of the gospel having charge of churches, practising physicians, teachers and students of academies and common schools, keepers of public mills, commissioners of revenue and roads, members of incorporated fire companies, officers of the United States, secretary of State, and officers of the executive department of the government, clerks of courts and coroners, the president, directors and other officers of incorporated banks, and keepers of ferries, toll bridges and toll gate keepers, shall be exempt by law from serving either as grand or petit jurors; and all the aforesaid persons shall be excluded from serving on juries, unless by the consent of both parties. Exempts.

Section 6. The selection of householders and freeholders made as aforesaid, shall be drawn off in a fair hand, and the list shall contain the christian and surnames at length, of the persons named therein, their respective places of residence, and their several occupations, (if known) and the list shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court, within ten days after the selection as aforesaid. List of persons selected.

Section 7. On receiving such list, the clerk of the county court shall write the names of the persons contained therein with their respective places of residence, and their several occupations, (if shewn by the list aforesaid) on separate pieces of paper, and shall roll up or fold such pieces of paper in the same manner, as nearly as may be, so that the name written thereon shall not be visible, and shall deposit such pieces of paper in a sufficient box, from which they shall be drawn as hereinafter provided. To be deposited in a box.

Section 8. At least thirty days previous to the sitting of any term of the circuit court in the several counties, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the county court, in the presence and with the assis- Jury to be drawn.

tance of the sheriff, judge of the county court, and clerk of the circuit court, to draw the names of twenty-four persons from the box in which the pieces of paper shall have been deposited as aforesaid, to serve as grand jurors at such circuit court.

How conducted.

Section 9. The drawing of grand and petit jurors shall be conducted as follows:

Box.

First—he shall shake the box containing the names of the jurors, so as to mix the slips of paper on which the names are written, as much as possible;

Names.

Second—he shall then publicly draw out of the said box as many of the slips of paper containing such names, as there shall be jurors required by law, or specially ordered for such court;

Minute to be kept.

Third—a minute of the drawing shall be kept by one of the attending officers, in which shall be entered the name contained on every slip of paper so drawn, before any other slip shall be drawn;

If insane, &c.

Fourth—if, after drawing the whole number required, the name of any person shall appear to be drawn, who is dead, or become insane, or who has permanently removed from the county, or is otherwise disqualified, an entry of such fact shall be made in the minute of the drawing, and the slip of paper containing the name of such person shall be destroyed;

Draw until the number shall be completed.

Fifth—another name shall be drawn in place of that destroyed, which shall be in like manner entered on the minutes of the drawing;

Minute to be signed.

Sixth—the same proceedings shall be had as often as may be necessary, until the whole number shall be drawn;

Seventh—the minute of the drawing shall then be signed by the clerk and the attending officers, to be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court;

List to be made out.

Eighth—a list of the names of the persons so drawn, with their places of residence, shall be made out and certified by the attending officers, and the clerk of the county court, who shall deliver the same to the clerk of the circuit court.

Clerk of circuit court to issue venire facias.

Section 10. Upon the receipt of such list it shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court, forthwith to issue a writ of venire facias, in the body of which he shall recite at length, the names, places of residence and occupations of the several persons named therein: Such venire facias shall be addressed to the sheriff of the county, if any there be, (if none, then to the coroner,) requiring him to summon the persons whose names are therein mentioned, to appear and serve on the grand jury, for the term of the circuit court next thereafter to be holden.

Writ to be served, &c.

Section 11. The officer to whom such writ of venire facias, shall be addressed, shall summon the persons therein named, at least three days previous to the sitting of the court, at which their attendance is required, by giving personal notice to each person, or by leaving a written notice at his place of residence, with some person of proper age; and such officer shall return the writ of venire facias to the court, at the opening thereof, specifying those who were summoned.

Section 12. The court to which any such writ shall be returned, shall impose a fine of not less than fifty and not exceeding one hundred dollars, upon any person duly summoned as a grand juror, who shall without reasonable cause, neglect to attend, and shall enter a judgment for the fine so imposed, conditioned that the State shall recover the same, for the use of the county, unless such defaulting grand juror shall, upon scire facias to be made known, appear at the next term of the circuit court, and shew good cause for his non-attendance; and it shall be the duty of the clerk, after the rising of the court, to issue a scire facias upon each judgment rendered against defaulting jurors: Provided, that if the juror summoned, shall render a sufficient excuse, to a court trying the same, he shall be exempt from all cost, when the fine is remitted.

Jurors failing to attend.

Proviso.

Section 13. The court may discharge a person from serving as a grand juror, who does not possess the requisite qualifications, or who is exempt or disqualified for such service, or for any reasonable and proper cause, to be judged of by the court.

Court may discharge jurors.

Section 14. When any person drawn as a grand juror shall not attend the court for which he was drawn, or shall be excused for the term, his name shall be returned to the box of undrawn ballots, and the clerk of the circuit court shall furnish the clerk of the county court with a list of the names of all persons thus excused or not attending; but when any person drawn as a grand juror, shall be discharged by the court, or excused from attending on account of any disqualification, or for any other cause not being of a temporary nature, the ballot containing the name shall be destroyed.

Grand jurors discharged.

Section 15. There shall not be more than twenty-three nor less than thirteen persons sworn on any grand jury; from the persons summoned to serve as grand jurors, and appearing, the court shall appoint a foreman, and they shall also appoint a foreman in every case, where any person already appointed shall be discharged or excused, before the grand jury are dismissed.

Grand jury.

Section 16. If at any circuit court, there shall not appear at least thirteen persons duly qualified to serve as grand jurors, who shall have been summoned for that purpose, or if the number of grand jurors attending, shall be reduced below thirteen, by any of them being discharged or otherwise, such court may by an order to be entered on its minutes, direct the sheriff to summon twice the number of persons necessary to complete the grand jury, from the citizens of the county qualified to serve.

When deficient in number.

Section 17. The sheriff shall summon such jurors accordingly who shall be bound forthwith to attend, and serve (if drawn) unless excused by the court in the same manner, and subject to the same penalties for neglect, as herein before provided, in the case of persons duly drawn and summoned.

Sheriff to summon.

Section 18. If a larger number of grand jurors attend than the court shall require to compose the grand jury, the names of the grand jurors shall be written on slips of paper, folded or rolled up in ballots, as near alike as may be, and placed in a box or something substituted therefor; from these ballots, the sheriff, under the direction of the court, shall draw a sufficient number of names to complete the grand jury.

Oath of foreman.

Section 19. The following oath or affirmation, shall be administered to the foreman of the grand jury: 'You, as foreman of the grand jury for the body of the county of ——— do solemnly swear, or affirm, (as the case may be) that you will diligently inquire and true presentment make, of all such matters and things, as shall be given you in charge, or otherwise come to your knowledge; the States' counsel, your fellows, and your own, you shall keep secret; you shall present no person for envy, hatred, or malice; neither shall you leave any person unrepresented, for love, fear, favor, affection, reward or the hope thereof; but you shall present all things truly, as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding.' Each of the other jurors shall then be called, and the following oath or affirmation administered to them, viz: 'The same oath or affirmation, which your foreman has taken on his part, you and each of you, on your behalf respectively, shall well and truly observe and keep.'

Of jurors.

Oaths to witness.

Section 20. The foreman of every grand jury, while the grand jury are in session, the attorney general, solicitor, or other prosecuting officer, who shall be before them, shall have authority to administer all oaths and affirmations, in the manner prescribed by law, to witnesses, who shall appear before such jury, for the purpose of testifying in any matter of which they may have cognizance; and the foreman shall return to the court a list, under his hand, of all the witnesses, who may have been sworn before the grand jury during the term, and the same shall be filed of record by the clerk.

Subpœnas for witnesses.

Section 21. The attorney general, solicitor, or other prosecuting officer, is authorized to issue subpœnas, for the purpose of compelling the attendance of witnesses, to give evidence before the grand jury, and witnesses summoned under such subpœnas, shall be subject to the same penalties; (to be inflicted by the circuit court) for disobedience, as if they had been issued by the clerk of the court.

Attend grand jury.

Section 22. It shall be the duty of the attorney general, solicitor, or other prosecuting officer, whenever required by the grand jury, to attend them, for the purpose of examining witnesses in their presence, or of giving them advice about any legal matter, and to issue subpœnas to bring witnesses before them.

Att'y general,
&c. to give evidence.

Section 23. The attorney general, solicitor, or other prosecuting officer, shall be allowed at all times to appear before the grand jury, on its request, for the purpose of giving information relative to any matter cognizable by them, and may be permitted to interrogate witnesses before them, when the grand jury shall deem it necessary; but neither the attorney general, solicitor, or other prosecuting officer, constable, or any other person, except the grand jurors, shall be permitted to be present, during the expression of their opinions, or the giving of their votes upon any matter before them.

Section 24. If any offence shall be committed during the sitting of any circuit court, after the grand jury attending such court, shall have been discharged, such court may, in its discretion, by an order, to be entered on its minutes, direct the sheriff to summon not less than thirteen, and not exceeding twenty-three citizens of the county, possessing the requisite qualifications of grand jurors, and the sheriff, shall accordingly, forthwith summon of the inhabitants of the county, qualified as aforesaid, the number designated, who shall be returned and sworn, and shall proceed in the same manner, in all respects, provided by law for other grand jurors.

Offences during sitting of court.

Section 25. Whenever the grand jury deem it necessary, they shall be authorized to require any witness, giving evidence before them, on leaving the jury room to go into court, forthwith, and recognize for his appearance from day to day, during the term, to give evidence touching the case in which he has testified before them, and in order to insure such recognizance from such witness, it shall be the duty of the constable attending the grand jury, to conduct him before the court.

Grand jury may require witness to give evidence.

Section 26. Previous to any extra or special term of the circuit court, to be holden in any county in this State, it shall be lawful for the presiding judge, if he deem it necessary, to order the sheriff, judge of the county court, clerk of the circuit or county court, forthwith to draw forty-eight persons, inhabitants of the county, duly qualified by law to serve on juries, and the persons so drawn shall be summoned, as before provided; and from the number of those in attendance there shall be drawn, not less than thirteen and not more than twenty-three, who shall be impanelled and sworn as grand jurors, at such special or extra term, and shall have the same power, and be governed by the same laws, as other grand juries are, and the residue of the persons attending shall be placed on the petit jury for the term.

Special courts —jurors to be drawn.

Section 27. At the time of drawing the names of grand jurors to attend upon any regular term of the circuit court as aforesaid, the clerk of the county court in the presence of, and with the assistance of the officers who shall have attended for the purpose of drawing the grand jury for such court, shall proceed and draw the names of thirty-six persons, from the box containing the names from which the grand jurors were drawn, to serve as petit jurors at such court, which jurors shall not be required to serve but one week; and if the court may, by law, sit more than one week, thirty-six jurors may be drawn and summoned for each succeeding week which such court may sit; but if the service of such additional jurors should not be required by the adjournment of the court, ballots containing their names shall be returned to the box whence they were drawn.

Petit jurors to be drawn.

Drawing to be like that of grand jurors. Section 28. Such drawing shall be conducted in all respects, in the manner prescribed by law for drawing grand jurors; a minute of such drawing shall be kept, signed and filed in like manner, and a list of the persons so drawn with their places of residence and respective occupations, shall be made out and certified by the clerk of the county court and the attending officers, as far as these may be ascertained by the ballots drawn from the box containing their names, and such list shall be delivered to the clerk of the circuit court, who shall issue a writ of venire facias, requiring the persons therein named, to be summoned as directed in the case of grand jurors.

Summoned three days before court. Section 29. The sheriff shall summon the persons named in such list to attend the court as jurors, at least three days previous to the sitting of the same, and shall return such list to the court at the opening thereof, specifying those who were summoned; and the clerk of the circuit court shall furnish the clerk of the county court with a list of the names of such jurors as may fail to attend or be excused by the court, who shall deposit their names in the box as in the case of grand jurors.

Penalty for default. Section 30. If any person duly drawn and summoned to attend as a juror as aforesaid, shall neglect to attend without a sufficient excuse, he shall be fined in the sum of fifty dollars, for which the like judgment shall be rendered, and the like proceedings had, as is provided in the case of defaulting grand jurors.

Petit jurors to be drawn. Section 31. On the day when the jurors are summoned to attend at any circuit court, the clerk shall prepare by lot a list of their names, and the first twelve in the list who are not excused shall be sworn and impannelled as a jury for the trial of causes, shall be called the first jury; the next twelve on the same list shall then be sworn and impannelled in like manner, and shall be called the second jury; and if there are any supernumerary grand or petit jurors, they may be placed upon a third jury, if it be necessary for the dispatch of business, or they may be put on either of the juries as occasion shall require, in the place of any who are absent, or may be challenged: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the transferring of jurors from one jury to another, when the convenience of the court or of the jurors, or the course of business may require.

Proviso. Section 32. When by reason of challenges or otherwise, a sufficient number of jurors duly drawn and summoned, cannot be obtained for the trial of any cause, civil or criminal, or for the execution of a writ of inquiry, the court shall cause jurors to be summoned from the by standers, or from the county at large, to complete the pannel.

Deficient in number. Section 33. Whenever it shall happen, that all the regular jurors attending upon the court, shall be engaged out of court, in the trial of issues of fact, or in the execution of writs of inquiry, the court to prevent a suspension of business, may order the sheriff to summon from time to time, a sufficient number of jurors, to complete one or more juries, as occasion may require; and jurors so summoned, sworn and impannelled by the court, shall possess and exercise the duties of jurors summoned as herein before directed.

Section 34. When by a neglect of any of the duties required to be performed, by any of the officers or persons herein before mentioned, the grand or petit jurors to be returned to any circuit court shall not be duly drawn and summoned to attend the court, every person guilty of such neglect, without any just cause therefor, shall pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be imposed by such court, and the judgment therefor shall be conditional, as in the case of a defaulting grand juror, and the same proceedings shall be thereupon had, before it shall be made absolute. Neglect of duty of officers.

Section 35. All persons summoned under the provisions of this chapter, whether as grand or petit jurors, shall possess the qualifications required in the first and third sections of this act, and be free from the objections contained in the fourth and fifth sections of the same. Qualifications

Section 36. The foregoing provisions so far as they prescribe a time for the drawing and summoning of grand and petit jurors, shall be construed as merely directory, and such juries drawn and summoned, whether at an earlier or later day, shall be deemed legal and possess the power and perform the duties pertaining to grand and petit juries; and if, in consequence of the neglect of the clerk of the county court, and the officers who are required to co-operate with him, or a majority of them, no grand or petit jury shall be returned, to serve at any term of the circuit court, such court shall be vested with power and authority to issue an order to the sheriff, to summon twenty-four householders and freeholders, in every respect qualified to discharge the duties of grand jurors; and an order shall also be directed to the sheriff, requiring him forthwith, to summon thirty-six householders and freeholders, with like qualifications to serve on the petit jury; and if the term of the court shall be of more than one week's continuance, an order similar to the last shall be issued to the sheriff from time to time, requiring him to summon thirty-six jurors for each succeeding week of the term. Explanatory.

Section 37. The ballots to be drawn from the box, containing the names of the householders and freeholders, as aforesaid, shall be placed in another box, and the persons whose names are therein written, shall not be required to serve as grand or petit jurors, until all the names contained in the first box, shall have been drawn out, or until from the householders and freeholders of the county, a list of names, qualified to serve on juries, shall have been selected anew; but the ballots of drawn names shall not be placed in such other box, until after the adjournment of the circuit court, when it shall be the duty of the clerk of the county court, to ascertain from the clerk of the circuit court, which of the persons drawn were excused, for a cause of a temporary nature, or who failed to attend, or whose services were dispensed with, by reason Ballots to be kept.

of the previous adjournment of the court, that he may dispose of the ballots, as by this chapter directed.

Civil cases.

Section 38. In civil cases the court shall on motion of either party examine on oath, any person who is called as a juror, therein to know whether he is related to either party or has any interest in the cause, or has expressed or formed any opinion, or is sensible of any bias or prejudice therein, and the party objecting to the juror may introduce any competent evidence in support of the objection; and if it shall appear to the court, that the juror does not stand indifferent in the cause, another shall be called and placed in his stead, for the trial of that cause.

When pannel is set aside.

Section 39. Whenever the pannel or array of grand or petit jurors, or both, summoned to attend any circuit court, shall be set aside upon challenge thereto, the court shall forthwith order a grand or petit jury or both, if occasion may require, to be summoned in the same manner, as if no jury had been drawn and summoned, or returned.

Jurors serve but one day.

Section 40. A juror summoned to complete either one of the regular juries for the week or term, or a juror summoned to enable the court to proceed with business, when the regular juries are engaged in the trial of cases, shall not be compelled to serve longer than the day for which he was summoned, unless he should be detained until the next day or longer, in trying an issue, or in executing a writ of inquiry, submitted to the jury of which he is a member.

Talesmen.

Section 41. All such jurors as are described or referred to in the last section, shall be known as talesmen; when they serve more than one day, shall be entitled to receive the same per diem pay that is allowed to those summoned on the original venire facias.

Challenges.

Section 42. It shall not be a cause of challenge to the pannel or array of jurors, that the clerk of the county who drew them, was a party or interested in such cause, or was counsel or attorney for, or related to either party therein; nor shall it be a good cause of challenge to the pannel or array, that the jurors were summoned by the sheriff who was a party or interested in such cause, or related to either party therein, unless it be alledged in such challenge and satisfactorily shewn, that some of the jurors drawn by the clerk were not summoned, and that such omission was intentional: Provided, however, that no juror whom the sheriff has had a discretion in selecting, shall be competent if objected to by the adverse party, to sit on the trial of any cause, in which the sheriff is a party or interested, or in which any relation of the sheriff is a party on record or in interest.

Proviso.

Talesmen failing to appear.

Section 43. It shall be lawful for the court before which any talesmen are summoned to attend, to impose a fine, not exceeding twenty dollars upon all such as are regularly summoned, and do not appear in court when called, or who after appearance, wilfully withdraw themselves during the same day without leave of court; and for the recovery of a fine imposed in virtue of this section, a conditional judgment shall be rendered, and a scire facias issue as in other cases of defaulting jurors.

Section 44. If the clerk of the county court, or sheriff of any county, shall be guilty of any fraud, by practising on the jury box, previously to a draft, or in drawing a juror, or returning into the box the name of a juror, which had been lawfully drawn out, or in drawing and substituting another in his stead, or in any other way in the drawing of jurors, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not less than two hundred, and not exceeding one thousand dollars, and his office shall be thereby vacated.

Fraud by clerk or sheriff.

Section 45. If the clerk of the county court, or sheriff, shall allow any person to examine the ballots, containing the names of the householders and freeholders, from which juries are to be drawn, as aforesaid, to obliterate or withdraw the ballots, or any one of them, or substitute others in their stead, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be punished as in the last section provided.

Misdemeanor

Section 46. The clerk of the circuit court, shall in the presence of the court, administer to each of the jurors summoned upon the venire facias, for the term or week, as the case may be, before entering on the discharge of their duties, the following oath or affirmation:

Clerk to administer oath.

"You, and each of you, do solemnly swear or affirm, (as the case may be,) that you will, well and truly, try all issues, both in civil and criminal cases, and execute all writs of inquiry, which shall be submitted to you, and left to your decision by the court, during the present term or week, (as the case may be,) and true verdicts render according to the evidence." And the same oath or affirmation, shall be administered to the tales jurors, substituting the word, "day," for "term or week."

Oath.

Section 47. In all cases in which the jury may be detained more than one day by the court, and are not allowed to disperse before returning their verdict, it shall be the duty of the court to make a reasonable allowance, to any person boarding the jury, during the time of their detention, and tax the same in the bill of costs, which shall be paid as other costs in the case.

When the jury is detained.

Section 48. The boxes required to be provided by the several clerks of county courts, for the safe keeping of the ballots containing the names of jurors as aforesaid, shall be secured with sufficient locks, to which no person but the respective clerks shall have access, and such locks, together with the boxes shall be paid for by the county treasurer.

Boxes to be secured.

Section 49. At the same time that a jury is drawn for the circuit court, twenty-four jurors, shall, in the same manner, be drawn for the county court, who shall be summoned in the same manner as jurors for the circuit court, and shall be subject to the same fine for non-attendance; and all the rules and regulations in relation to

Jurors for county court, how drawn.

petit jurors in the circuit court, shall extend to, and govern jurors for the county court.

When a juror becomes sick, &c.

Section 50. When a trial shall be commenced in any civil or criminal case, before any court having cognizance of the same, and during the progress of such trial, a juror shall become so unwell, or incapacitated, that in the opinion of the court, he is unable to serve, such juror may be allowed to withdraw, and the sheriff shall be required to summon forthwith, a juror to supply his place, who shall be sworn, and the trial be commenced anew; and the verdict rendered by the jury, shall be as effectual in law, as if there had been no interruption, in the progress of the cause, unless sufficient cause be shewn by either party, for a continuance.

Plea of abatement.

Section 51. No plea in abatement shall be allowed to the array of the grand jury, nor of the disqualification of any member of the same, except at the term at which the indictment is found, and if sustained, either on demurrer or by verdict, the court shall not discharge the accused, but shall hold him in custody, or discharge or bail in bailable cases, to answer to another indictment, at the same, or the next term of the court, and the delay thus occasioned, shall not be computed within any of the acts of limitations barring the prosecution of offences.

Jury in civil cases, how selected.

Section 52. In all civil causes, sounding in damages merely, or where the amount in controversy shall exceed one hundred dollars, either party, at his election, shall be furnished with a list of twenty-four jurors in attendance on such court, from which a jury shall be obtained by the parties alternately striking one from the list until twelve shall be stricken off, the plaintiff commencing (and the jury thus obtained, shall not be further challenged, for any cause.)

Persons indicted for capital offences served with copy of indictment.

Section 53. Every person who shall be indicted for an offence, capitally punished, shall if in actual confinement have a copy of the indictment and a list of the jury which are summoned for his trial, delivered to him or her at least two entire days before he or she shall be tried for the same; and if such person charged as aforesaid shall not be in actual custody, but shall have counsel in court, whose names are entered of record, such counsel shall be served with a copy of the indictment and a list of the jury, as above provided; but if the pannel be exhausted by challenge or otherwise, it shall not be necessary to furnish the prisoner with a list of the jurors summoned to supply their place.

Jury, how constituted.

Section 54. In order to the trial of the person charged with a capital offence, it shall be the duty of the court in which such trial is to take place, to make an order requiring the sheriff to summon not less than fifty and not exceeding one hundred jurors, including those in attendance on the regular juries for the week or term, and the names of the jurors so summoned, together with those attending upon the regular juries, shall be written upon slips of paper, folded or rolled up, and placed in a box or some substitute therefor, and shaken together, and such person as the court shall design-nate shall, in its presence, draw out the ballots one by one, until the jury shall be completed: if all the ballots shall be drawn, and the jury be still incomplete, it shall be the duty of the court to make an order requiring the sheriff to summon at least twice the number of jurors required to complete the jury, from whom the jury shall be completed by drawing as aforesaid.

Section 55. Upon a trial for any capital offence, the accused shall be allowed twenty-one peremptory challenges; on a trial for any penitentiary offence, the accused shall be allowed fifteen peremptory challenges; and on a trial for any other offence, six; the State shall be allowed fourteen peremptory challenges, on a trial for a capital offence; ten on a trial for a penitentiary offence; and four on a trial for any other offence: it shall be a good challenge for cause, for either the accused or the State, that the juror has not been a resident householder or freeholder within the county, for two years next preceding the time when he is sworn; second, if he is not a citizen of the United States; third, if he is connected by consanguinity to either the accused, the prosecutor, or the person alledged to be injured, within the ninth degree, computing according to the rules of the civil law, or by affinity to either of the said persons within the fifth degree, computing by the same rules; fourth, if the juror has been indicted within twelve months for an offence of the same nature, of which the accused is charged; fifth, if the juror has when sworn, any fixed opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused which would bias his verdict; sixth, if he has any interest in the conviction or acquittal of the accused, or has made any promise or given any assurance, that he will convict or acquit the accused: the four first causes of challenge may be ascertained, by the oath of the juror, or by other evidence; the fifth shall be established alone by the oath of the juror; and the sixth alone by testimony adduced to the court; and in all trials for a capital or penitentiary offence, it shall be a good challenge for cause, if the juror has a fixed opinion against capital or penitentiary punishments, or that a conviction should not be had on circumstantial evidence; which may be ascertained as the four first causes of challenge above.

Section 56. Every person summoned as a juror, by order of court, for the trial of a person charged with an offence, capitally punished, shall be liable for disobedience or neglect, to be fined in a sum not less than fifty dollars, which fine may be reduced by the court if the circumstances justify a reduction, which shall be collected and applied in the same manner as fines imposed upon jurors in other cases.

CHAPTER ELEVENTH.

Of Indictments.

Indictments. Section 1. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court, when an indictment is returned into court by the grand jury, to enter on the minutes of the court, a brief statement of the nature of the indictment, and the finding of the jury, and to indorse on the bill of indictment, that it was filed in court; and if the entry of such finding is omitted at the proper time, it shall and may be lawful for the court, at any subsequent term, on examination into the verity of the indictment and its return, to have the proper entry made nunc pro tunc.

Nolle pros. Section 2. It shall not be lawful for the attorney general, solicitor, or other prosecuting officer, to enter a nolle prosequi on any indictment, or in any other way to discontinue or abandon the same, without the leave of the court, having jurisdiction to try the offence charged, being first had, and entered on its minutes.

Name of prosecutor. Section 3. When any person presents himself as a prosecutor, on an indictment found, or to be preferred, it shall be the duty of the attorney general, solicitor, or other prosecuting officer, to indorse the name of such person as prosecutor, on the indictment; but if no one will consent to become the prosecutor, it shall be the duty of the attorney general, solicitor, or other prosecuting officer, if, in his opinion, the evidence authorizes the conviction of any person supposed to be guilty of an offence, to prefer a bill to the grand jury, without the name of any prosecutor indorsed thereon; and it shall be no objection to any indictment, that the name of the prosecutor is not thereon indorsed.

Writs of capias. Section 4. A writ, or capias, for the arrest of any defendant indicted, may be issued by the clerk of the court, in which such indictment may be, by any judge of the circuit court, or the judge of the county court of the county in which such indictment may be found, either in vacation, or during the sitting of the court.

Offences. Section 5. If the offence for which the party so arrested, shall be a misdemeanor, it shall be the duty of the sheriff to take the parties recognizance, with sufficient sureties, in such sum as the character of the prosecution may require, and if the offence is punished, by imprisonment in the penitentiary for life, or a term of years, or is a capital offence, he shall then convey the offender to the common jail, and there keep him in safe custody until discharged in due course of law.

Bail. Section 6. Whenever any person indicted for any offence, shall be let to bail, the officer taking the recognizance, shall file the same, with the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the indictment was found, previous to the first day of the next term of that court.

Section 7. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court, in which an indictment is found, or any proceeding instituted, upon the application of the defendant, gratuitously to issue subpoenas, as well during the sitting of the court, as in vacation, for such witnesses, as such defendant shall require, residing in or out of the county. Clerk to issue subpoena.

Section 8. The attorney general, solicitor, and every other prosecuting officer, shall have power to issue subpoenas for witnesses, in support of any prosecution, to appear at any court within his circuit; and every such subpoena subscribed by the prosecuting officer issuing the same, shall be as valid and effectual, as if the same had been regularly issued by the clerk of the circuit court; and disobedience thereto shall be punished in the same manner, and upon the like proceedings to be had, as provided by law in cases of subpoenas returnable to any circuit court. Atty general may issue subpoena.

Section 9. If a person on his arraignment, shall refuse or neglect to plead, the court shall cause the plea of not guilty to be entered of record, and proceed to the trial of the cause. Plea of not guilty.

Section 10. No plea in abatement, or other dilatory plea to an indictment, shall be received by any court, unless the party offering such plea, shall verify the same by affidavit, or unless its truth shall appear by some matter of record, or other written evidence accompanying it. Plea in abatement.

Section 11. Whenever two or more persons shall be charged in the same indictment, and it shall appear that there is not sufficient evidence to put the defendant on his defence, after the testimony for the prosecution shall have closed, and the evidence of such defendant is desired by a co-defendant, it shall be the duty of the court, to direct a verdict of acquittal, in favor of the defendant against whom there is no sufficient proof, and judgment shall thereupon be rendered accordingly. On trial of defendant.

CHAPTER TWELFTH.

Of the Writ of Habeas Corpus, and proceedings thereon.

Section 1. Every person committed, confined, or in any manner restrained of his liberty, for any matter, either criminal or supposed to be so, or under any pretence whatever, may prosecute a writ of habeas corpus, according to the provisions of this chapter, to enquire into the cause of such commitment, confinement or restraint. May issue.

Section 2. Whenever oath shall be made before any justice of the peace, clerk of the circuit or county court, or before any judge or chancellor, that any free person is detained, or held in illegal custody, by any person, in any other place than the penitentiary, or the common jail of the county, it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace, clerk, judge or chancellor, to issue a writ directed to the sheriff or coroner, commanding him to take into his custody, the person so alledged to be illegally detained or confined, forthwith, to have him before the judge of the county court, or some judge of the circuit court, or some chancellor, as may be When persons are confined.

most convenient, and such judge or chancellor, shall examine into the cause of the detention, and if the same is illegal, shall discharge the person so detained; if otherwise, he shall by warrant in writing, commit the person to the proper custody.

In county jail. Section 3. Whenever any person is confined in the county jail, on any cause whatever, other than a commitment for, or a conviction of felony, or by the sentence or decree of the circuit court, or court of chancery, and oath shall be made in the manner hereinafter provided, that his confinement is illegal, it shall be the duty of the judge of the county court, to issue a writ of habeas corpus, to cause the person so confined to be brought before him; and if the detention is illegal, he shall be discharged; if otherwise, he shall be committed by warrant, to the proper custody, or admitted to bail, as may be in accordance with law.

On petition and oath made. Section 4. Whenever any person is confined in the county jail, on any charge whatever, and petition on oath shall be made, in the manner hereinafter provided, that his confinement is illegal, it shall be the duty of any judge of the circuit court or chancellor, to issue a writ of habeas corpus, returnable at such time and place as he shall direct, either in term time or in vacation; and the court, judge or chancellor, before whom the writ is made returnable, shall examine into the cause of confinement, which if unwarranted by law, the person confined shall be discharged, and if otherwise, he shall be committed by warrant to the proper custody, or be admitted to bail in accordance with law.

When and how may issue. Section 5. Whenever any person is confined in the penitentiary on any charge or pretence whatever, and petition on oath shall be made, in the manner hereinafter provided, that his confinement is illegal, it shall be the duty of any judge of the circuit court or chancellor, to issue a writ of habeas corpus, returnable to the next ensuing term of the circuit court of Coosa county, and said court shall examine into the cause of confinement, and if illegal, shall discharge, and if otherwise, shall recommit the prisoner, or cause to be instituted such proceedings, as may be necessary to a legal imprisonment.

Application for writ. Section 6. Application for such writ shall be made by petition in writing, signed either by the party for whose relief it is intended, or by some person in his behalf, and addressed either to the court of chancery, when in session, to the circuit court, and in a proper case, to the county court of the county in which the petitioner is confined or restrained of his liberty; and if neither of these courts are in session, then to the chancellor or judge of the circuit court, or judge of the county court, in the case, in which the last mentioned judge shall have jurisdiction.

Substance of petition. Section 7. The petition must state in substance :
1st. That the person in whose behalf the writ is applied for, is imprisoned or restrained of his liberty, the officer or person by whom he is confined or restrained, and the place where; naming him, if his name is known, or describing him if it is not.

2d. The cause or pretence of such confinement or restraint, according to the best of the knowledge and belief of the petitioner.

3d. If the confinement or restraint is by virtue of any warrant, order or other process, a copy thereof shall be annexed, or it shall be made to appear that a copy thereof has been demanded and refused, or that for some sufficient reason a demand of such copy could not be made.

4th. It must be verified by the oath of the party or some other person cognizant of the facts stated therein.

Section 8. Whenever application for any such writ shall be made to any magistrate not residing in the county where the prisoner shall be detained, he shall require proof by the oath of the party applying, or by other sufficient evidence, that there is no officer in such county, authorized to grant the writ, or if there be one, that he is absent or has refused to grant such writ, or for some cause to be specially set forth, is incapable of acting; and if such proof be not produced, the application shall be denied. Application how made.

Section 9. The application for the writ of habeas corpus, when made to a chancellor or judge of the circuit court, shall be made to the chancellor or such judge residing or being nearest the place where the petitioner is confined or restrained of his liberty. When made.

Section 10. The court or magistrate to whom such petition shall be addressed, shall without delay, award a writ of habeas corpus. Writ to issue.

Section 11. Every writ of habeas corpus issued under the provisions of this chapter, shall be in substance as follows: The State of Alabama—To the sheriff or jailer &c. (as the case may be) of county. We command you that you have the body of C. D. by you imprisoned and detained, as it is said, together with the time and cause of such imprisonment and detention, by whatsoever name the said C. D. shall be called or charged before our court of chancery or circuit court, (as the case may be) or before A. C. chancellor or judge of the circuit court (as the case may be) at &c. on &c. (or immediately after the receipt of this writ) to do and receive what shall then and there be considered concerning the said C. D., and have you then and there this writ. Witness, &c. Form of writ. of habeas corpus.

Section 12. The writ of habeas corpus shall not be disobeyed for want of form, but when written in terms intelligible, it shall be deemed sufficient. Shall be obeyed.

Section 13. When such writ is issued in vacation, it shall be signed by the magistrate issuing the same, and when issued in term time, or during the sitting of the court, it shall be signed by the clerk in the same manner as other writs are signed, and in either case shall be served in any county, by any sheriff, or deputy sheriff, or constable of the same or any other county. Return of writs.

Section 14. If the court to which the writ is returnable shall be adjourned before it is returned, the return shall be made before any judge of the said court, or before any other judicial officer having jurisdiction to inquire of and determine the matter, and if the writ is in any case returned before a judge at a time when the court is in session, he may adjourn the case into the court to be there heard and determined in like manner as if the writ had been returned into the same court. When made.

To make return, and when.

Section 15. Any person to whom the writ is directed shall receive it, and shall make due return thereof, at the day designated therein, if it be practicable to do so, but if no day is appointed in the writ for its return, the same shall be returned within two days after its reception, if the place to which the prisoner is required to be conveyed, does not exceed thirty miles from the place of confinement; if it exceeds thirty and is within one hundred miles, he shall return the writ within five days; if more than one hundred, he shall return it within eight days.

Substance of return.

Section 16. The person upon whom any such writ shall have been duly served, shall plainly and explicitly state in his return,

First—Whether he has or has not the party whose body is required to be brought up, in his custody, or under his power or restraint:

Second—If he has the party in his custody, or under his power or restraint, he shall set forth at large by what authority and the true and entire cause of such imprisonment or restraint, with a copy of the writ, warrant, order or other process, if any, upon which the party is detained, and the original shall be produced on the return of the writ, to the court or officer to whom the same is returnable:

Third—If he has not the party in his custody or power, or under his restraint, and has transferred such custody or restraint to another, the return shall state explicitly to whom, at what time, for what cause, and by what authority such transfer was made.

Shall be signed.

Section 17. The return so to be made as aforesaid, shall be signed by the person making it, and it shall also be sworn to by him, unless he is a sworn public officer, and shall make return in his official capacity: at the time such return is made, the party making it, shall bring the body of the prisoner within his custody or power, or under his restraint, according to the command of the writ unless prevented by sickness or infirmity, which would render his conveyance improper or impracticable.

When prisoner is sick.

Section 18. When from the sickness or infirmity of the party, he cannot without danger, be brought to the place appointed for the return of the writ, that fact shall be stated in the return; and if it is proved to the satisfaction of the court or magistrate, he may proceed to the jail or other place, and there make his examination, or may adjourn the same to another time, or make such other order in the case, as law and justice shall require.

Examination

Section 19. When the writ of habeas corpus is returned, the court or judge shall without delay, proceed to examine the causes of the imprisonment or restraint, but the examination may be adjourned from time to time, as circumstances may require, or as the correct administration of the laws may seem to demand.

When a party is detained.

of the issuance of the writ and the time and place, when and where the same is returnable: the prisoner shall not be discharged until sufficient notice shall have been given to such person or his attorney, if within the State, or within fifty miles of the place of examination, to appear and object to such discharge if he thinks fit.

Section 21. When it appears from the petition, that the party complaining is imprisoned on any criminal accusation, the court or judge awarding the writ, shall indorse on the same an order requiring the prisoner or some one on his behalf, to give notice to the solicitor or attorney general, (as the case may be) of the time and place, when such writ is returnable, in order that he may appear and object to the discharge if he think proper; and it shall furthermore be the duty of the prisoner or some one on his behalf, to give notice of similar import to the prosecutor, or principal agent in procuring his arrest; and such court or magistrate shall not discharge any prisoner until sufficient notice shall have been given as aforesaid: Provided, however, that if the prosecutor shall reside more than fifty miles from the place where the writ is returnable, that it shall not be incumbent on the prisoner to shew that he has had notice.

When imprisoned.

Proviso.

Section 22. When any writ of habeas corpus shall have been issued and made returnable at any particular time and place, it shall be the duty of the court or magistrate issuing the same, or any justice of the peace of the county in which a witness may reside, to issue subpoenas for such witnesses as shall be deemed necessary, either on the part of the State or of the defendant; which subpoenas shall be directed to the sheriff or some constable of the county, in which such witnesses may reside, commanding such sheriff or constable, (as the case may be,) to summon such witness or witnesses, to appear at the time and place, the said writ is made returnable, then and there to testify and give evidence, either in behalf of the prisoner or the State; and such sheriff or constable shall be allowed the same fees therefor, as for serving subpoenas in other cases, and every witness so summoned, shall be bound to attend under the penalty prescribed for the compulsion of the attendance of witnesses in State cases in the circuit courts, and for his or her attendance shall be entitled to the same fees that are allowed by law for witnesses in such cases.

Subpoenas for witnesses

Section 23. On the failure of any witness to attend at the time and place required by such subpoena, it shall be the duty of the court or magistrate to record such failure, and to transmit, either the original, or a copy of such record to the clerk of the circuit court of such county, in which the examination took place; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court forthwith to issue a writ of scire facias, requiring the defaulting witness to appear at the next succeeding court to shew cause why the forfeiture so recorded, as aforesaid, should not be made absolute.

Proceedings.

Section 24. It shall be the duty of the court or magistrate before whom any witness may be summoned, as aforesaid, to appear and give evidence, to permit such witness to prove his attendance, and transmit the same to the clerk of the circuit court, to the end that it may be taxed in the bill of costs, if the petitioner should be ultimately convicted.

Proof of witness.

Party imprisoned.

Section 25. The party imprisoned or restrained, may deny any of the facts set forth in the return, and may alledge any other facts, that may be material in the case, and the court or magistrate, shall proceed in a summary way to examine the causes of imprisonment or restraint, and hear the evidence that may be produced, by any person interested, or that may be authorized to appear, both in support of such imprisonment or against it, and thereupon to dispose of the party, as law and justice shall require; and if no legal cause be shewn for the imprisonment or restraint, the court or judge shall discharge the party therefrom.

Court may issue subpoena.

Section 26. The court or magistrate, before whom the writ of habeas corpus may be returnable, shall be authorized upon the return of such writ, to issue subpoenas for witnesses, in the same manner as if the application had been made therefor previously and they shall be directed and served in the same manner; and for disobedience to which there shall be the same penalty, and for serving which the same fees shall be allowed, and the witnesses shall be entitled to the same compensation, as is provided for witnesses in State cases in the circuit courts: Provided, however, that the court or magistrate, shall not be obliged to issue subpoenas, as provided for in this section, unless they believe that the correct administration of law and justice require it, and that the parties are not greatly in fault in not having previously applied for them.

Proviso.

When committed on a criminal charge.

Section 27. When any person is committed to jail on any criminal accusation for want of bail, it shall be competent for the sheriff of the county, from which he is sent, or to which he is committed, to admit him to bail by taking his recognizance, with sufficient sureties, in such sum as may have been required by the court or magistrate who committed him; and if no sum was prescribed by such court or magistrate, then the clerk of the circuit court and sheriff shall, upon a view of the evidence taken down in writing, by the committing magistrate, prescribe the sum in which the prisoner shall be recognized, as aforesaid: Provided, however, that, if in the opinion of the prisoner, the bail required of him, be excessive, he may prosecute his writ of habeas corpus, as herein before provided, that the penalty prescribed for the recognizance may be lessened.

Proviso.

If bailable.

Section 28. It shall be the duty of every court or magistrate before whom an inquiry shall be made into the case of one charged with a criminal offence, which is bailable, to admit to bail, if sufficient bail be offered; and if not, it shall be the duty of such court or magistrate, to indorse on the warrant of commitment, the sum for which bail was required, and the court before which the prisoner shall appear to answer.

On mesne process.

Section 29. If the party complaining is committed on mesne process in any civil action for want of bail, and it shall appear that the sum for which bail is required is excessive and unreasonable, the court or magistrate awarding a habeas corpus, shall decide whnt bail is reasonable, and shall order that on giving such bail the party shall be discharged.

Section 30. If the party is lawfully imprisoned and restrained, and is not entitled to enlargement on bail, he shall be remanded to the prison or person from whose custody he is taken, or to such other person or officer as by law is authorized to detain him. Unlawfully imprisoned, &c.

Section 31. Until judgment be given upon an examination on habeas corpus, the court or magistrate may remand the prisoner, or may commit him to the sheriff of the county, or continue or place him under such other custody as the circumstances of the case may require, or if the charge be of a character to authorize it, may recognize him to appear from day to day. How prisoner may be kept.

Section 32. Any officer who shall refuse or neglect, for six hours, to deliver a true copy of the warrant, order or process, by which he detains any prisoner, either to such prisoner, or to any person who shall demand such copy, on his behalf, shall forfeit and pay to such prisoner, the sum of two hundred dollars, to be recovered by action of debt, and shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be fined not less than fifty, and not exceeding five hundred dollars: Provided, that such officer shall not be required to deliver, notwithsatnding any number of demands therefor, more than two copies of such warrant, order or process. Penalty on officer. Proviso.

Section 33. If any person to whom a writ of habeas corpus shall be directed, shall refuse to receive the same, or shall neglect to obey and execute it according to the provisions of this chapter, and no sufficient excuse shall be shown for such refusal or neglect, the court or magistrate before whom the writ is returnable, shall proceed forthwith, by process of attachment, as for a contempt, to compel obedience to the writ, and punish the person guilty of such contempt; and such person shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be fined not less than fifty and not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition shall answer in damages to the party aggrieved. Persons to whom writs are directed.

Section 34. If such attachment shall be issued against a sheriff, or his deputy, it may be directed to any coroner, or to any other person designated therein, who shall have full power to execute the same; and if the sheriff, or his deputy, shall be committed upon such process to the jail of his own county, the coroner or jailer, if any there be, shall be the keeper of such jail, uncontrolled in any manner by the sheriff. When attachment shall issue.

Section 35. Upon such refusal or neglect, of the person to whom the writ of habeas corpus is directed, the court or magistrate may also issue a precept, to any officer, or other person to be designated therein, commanding him to bring forthwith before such court or magistrate, the person for whose benefit the writ was issued, and the prisoner shall, thereupon, be discharged, bailed, or remanded in the same manner, as if prompt obedience had been yielded to the writ of habeas corpus. Upon refusal or neglect, &c.

Section 36. If any one who has in his custody, or under his power, any person entitled to a writ of habeas corpus, whether any writ has issued or not, shall, with intent to elude the service of officers, &c.

such writ, or with intent to avoid the effect thereof, transfer such prisoner to the custody, or place him under the power or control of any other person, or conceal him, or change the place of his confinement, the person so offending, shall forfeit and pay to the party aggrieved thereby, the sum of five hundred dollars, to be recovered by action of debt, and shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be fined not less than fifty, and not exceeding five hundred dollars; and every one who shall knowingly aid and assist in a violation of the provisions of this section, he shall be deemed guilty as a principal offender, and punished accordingly, and shall be imprisoned in the county jail twelve months.

How writ may be served.

Section 37. Every writ of habeas corpus issued pursuant to this chapter, may be served by delivering a copy of the same, and showing when demanded, the original, to the person to whom it is directed, and if he cannot be found, it may be served by being left at the jail, or other place, in which the prisoner may be confined, with any officer, or other person of proper age, having charge for such time of the prisoner.

If party be concealed.

Section 38. If the person upon whom the writ ought to be served conceal himself, or refuse admittance to the party attempting to serve the same, it may be served by affixing a copy of the writ to some conspicuous place on the outside either of his dwelling house, or of the place where the party is confined.

Cases in civil process.

Section 39. If it appears on the return of the writ of habeas corpus that the prisoner is in custody by virtue of civil process from any court legally constituted, or issued by any officer in the course of judicial proceedings before him authorized by law, such prisoner can only be discharged in one of the following cases; first, when the jurisdiction of such court has been exceeded, either as to matter, place, sum or person; where, though the original imprisonment was lawful, yet by some act, omission or event which has subsequently taken place, the party has become entitled to be discharged; second, when the process is defective in some matter of substance, rendering such process void; third, where the process though in proper form has been issued in a case not allowed by law; fourth, where the person having the custody of the prisoner under such process, is not the person empowered by law to detain him; fifth, where the process is not authorized by any judgment, order or decree of any court, nor by any provision of law; but the court may, in all cases previous to a trial and conviction for any offence, on a full and fair hearing under a writ of habeas corpus, admit the party accused to bail, if the circumstances justify bail, in the sound discretion of the court.

In criminal cases.

Section 40. No person imprisoned for any criminal, or supposed criminal offence, shall be discharged for any irregularity in the process, order, or warrant of commitment; but it shall be the duty of the court or magistrate awarding a habeas corpus, or before whom the same is returned, to inquire into the facts and circumstances of the case, and either discharge, admit to bail, or remand the prisoner, as law and justice may require.

Section 41. No person who has been discharged upon a habeas corpus shall be again restrained, or imprisoned for the same cause, unless he shall be indicted therefor, or after a discharge for a defect of proof, he shall be again arrested on sufficient proof, and committed by legal process for the same offence. Discharge.

Section 42. The recognizance taken before any court or magistrate, for the appearance of a prisoner, brought up on habeas corpus, shall be transmitted by him, together with all the proceedings touching the examination, to the clerk of the court, before which such prisoner is bound to appear, and such recognizance shall have the same force, and be proceeded on in the same manner, as other recognizances taken in State cases. Proceedings.

Section 43. If any sheriff, other officer, or person, having the custody of one brought up on habeas corpus, shall detain him after an order of the court, or magistrate, for his discharge, or enlargement, or shall afterwards arrest him without a legal and proper cause, warrant, or other precept, such sheriff, other officer, or person, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, be fined not less than fifty, and not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition thereto, shall be answerable for any damages such party may have sustained. Officers detaining prisoners.

Section 44. Every person who shall knowingly aid and assist in violating the mandate of the writ of habeas corpus, or any order thereupon made, or shall knowingly aid, or assist, in the commission of the offence, in the last section provided, shall be deemed guilty as a principal offender, and punished accordingly. Abettors.

Section 45. The sheriff or other person having charge of a prisoner, directed to be brought up on habeas corpus, is authorized to summon a sufficient guard, to aid him in conveying such prisoner before the court or magistrate before whom the writ is returnable, and any person summoned as a guard, shall for disobedience, be subject to the same penalty, as guards are, who refuse to assist the sheriff in conveying convicts to the penitentiary. Summon guard.

Section 46. The sheriff and guard shall be entitled to the same compensation, as is allowed for conveying convicts to the penitentiary, and shall be paid in the same manner. Compensation.

CHAPTER THIRTEENTH.

Of Writs of Error, and a reference of Novel and Difficult Questions.

Section 1. Whenever in any criminal case, either on the trial, or on demurrer, or motion in arrest of judgment, any point or question shall arise, which in the opinion of the presiding judge, is novel and difficult, it shall be his duty, on request, to reserve such point or question, distinctly upon the record, for the revision of the supreme court, at its next succeeding term, and the presiding judge shall proceed to render judgment on the conviction; but the execution of the judgment shall be suspended, in cases not capital, or not punished by confinement in the penitentiary, until the next succeeding term of the circuit court rendering the judgment; and the defendant shall be recognized, in good and sufficient sureties, then to appear and abide the judgment so rendered; and in capital cases, or in cases punished by confinement in the peni- Novel and difficult questions.

tentiary, the execution of the judgment shall be suspended to a time not less than twenty-five nor more than forty days after the commencement of the next succeeding term of the supreme court.

Writs of error.

Section 2. Writs of error upon judgments rendered on any indictment, may issue upon an order to that effect, addressed to the clerk of the court, in which such judgment is rendered, by any one of the judges of the supreme court in vacation, or by the supreme court when in session; but such writs shall only be granted upon a view of the transcript, and at the discretion of the judge or court applied to for that purpose.

Writs granted in vacation.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of any judge of the supreme court, who shall award a writ of error in vacation, to cause an entry of the same to be made on the minutes of the supreme court at its next term; and all writs of error, which are not prosecuted at the term of the supreme court to which they are returnable, shall be non prossed, and no writ of error shall thereafter be allowed.

Order for writ

Section 4. When an order shall be made, for the allowance of a writ of error as aforesaid, the same shall be filed with the clerk of the court, in which the judgment was rendered, who shall furnish to the party filing the same, the certificate of the filing thereof, together with a copy of the order, and shall make out a writ of error, and transcript of all the record and proceedings had in the case, and after having attached such transcript to the writ, as provided in civil cases, he shall deliver the same on demand, to the party suing out the writ of error.

Sheriff to suspend execution.

Section 5. If the defendant in the case for the removal of which such writ of error shall be allowed, be in the custody of the sheriff of the county, and the order of allowance direct a stay of proceedings on the judgment, it shall be the duty of the sheriff, on being served with the clerk's certificate of such writ being filed, and a copy of the order of allowance, to keep such defendant in his custody without executing the sentence which may have been passed upon the conviction, and to detain such defendant to abide such judgment as may be rendered upon such writ of error.

Party admitted to bail.

Section 6. If the offence charged for the removal of which such writ of error shall be allowed, be punishable by fine, or by fine and imprisonment in the county jail, any judge or court herein authorized to allow such writ of error, shall in the order of allowance, direct the clerk of the circuit court, to admit to bail the party suing out the writ of error, upon a recognizance with sufficient sureties, conditioned, that he shall submit to and abide by the judgment which the supreme court may render on such writ of error: and further, that he will appear at the next term of the court in which he was convicted, and deliver himself into custody, or that he will obey such legal order as the last mentioned court shall make in the premises.

Transcript.

Section 7. No assignment of errors, or joinder in error, shall be necessary in any writ of error, issued in pursuance of the foregoing provisions, but the court shall proceed to examine the transcript, and to render such judgment on the record before them, as is demanded by law.

Section 8. If the supreme court shall affirm such judgment, it shall direct the sentence pronounced to be executed, and the same shall be executed accordingly : if the supreme court shall reverse the judgment rendered, it shall either direct a new trial, or that the defendant be absolutely discharged, or that he shall be held in custody until discharged by due course of law. Proceedings after judgment.

Section 9. When the day appointed by any sentence for its execution shall have elapsed, the supreme court shall in the event of the affirmance of the judgment, prescribe by its judgment a day for the execution of the sentence. Execution.

CHAPTER FOURTEENTH.

Of Pardons and Reprieves.

Section 1. The rules and regulations under which the pardoning power vested by the constitution in the Executive shall be hereafter exercised, shall be the following, and in no other case shall a pardon, or remission in whole or in part, of any sentence or fine be granted : Rules for the exercise of the
power.

First. Where the judge presiding on the trial, and a majority of the jury who tried the cause, shall during the term at which the trial was had, in writing signed by them, recommend the prisoner to the mercy of the Executive, or a commutation of the punishment from death to a term of years, or for life ; and when such recommendation to mercy is made, the clerk of the court shall officially certify thereon, that the signatures thereto were acknowledged, or proved by witness (sworn by him) to be genuine : First.

Second. When it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the executive, that important witnesses for the prisoner could not be obtained by him, at the trial of the cause, whose testimony if before the jury, would, in the opinion of the Executive, have varied the result ; but in such case the affidavit of such absent witness if practicable, shall always be required, and his absence from the trial satisfactorily accounted for. Second.

Third. When by the sworn testimony of creditable persons, it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Executive, that some fact has transpired, subsequent to the trial, establishing the innocence of the prisoner, or rendering his guilt doubtful ; and any one swearing falsely in any matter made necessary by this law, to obtain a pardon, commutation of punishment, or remission of a fine, and being thereof convicted, shall be held guilty of perjury, and punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than two nor more than seven years. Third.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Executive, to cause to be entered at large in a book to be kept for that purpose, his reasons for granting a pardon, commuting a sentence, or remitting a fine, and to preserve on file, all documents and papers on which he acted. Reasons to be recorded.

Section 3. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed, as to prevent the Executive from delaying the sentence of a court, by granting a reprieve. Executive may delay.

Section 4. It shall be lawful for the Executive, to remit a portion of the sentence of imprisonment of any convict, upon the recommendation of the board of inspectors, setting forth that the convict thus recommended to the mercy of the Executive, has behaved in an exemplary manner during his confinement, and that in their opinion, his enlargement is not inconsistent with the public welfare; but no such pardon shall be granted, until the convict has remained one third part of the time for which he was sentenced; and where a convict is sentenced to imprisonment for life, or for more than twenty one years, seven years shall within the purposes of this section, be considered as one third of his sentence.

CHAPTER FIFTEENTH.

Of Slaves, and Free Negroes.

Insurrection.

Section 1. Every slave who shall consult or conspire to rebel or be in anywise concerned in an insurrection or rebellion of the slaves against the white inhabitants of this State, or the laws and government thereof, or shall conspire the murder of any white person and be thereof convicted, shall suffer death.

Murder.

Section 2. Every slave who shall be guilty of murder, or commit an assault with an intent to kill any white person, or shall be guilty of the voluntary manslaughter of a white person, or of the involuntary manslaughter of a white person in the prosecution of an unlawful act, and be thereof convicted, shall suffer death.

Rape.

Section 3. Every slave, free negro, or mulatto, who shall commit, or attempt to commit the crime of rape on any white female, and be thereof convicted, shall suffer death.

Burglary, robbery, mayhem.

Section 4. Every slave who shall commit the crime of burglary or who shall rob, or commit an assault and battery with intent to rob any white person, or shall wilfully maim, put out an eye, or cut, or bite off the lip, ear, or nose, of any white person, or shall attempt to poison, or to deprive any white person of life, by any means, not amounting to assault, and be thereof convicted, shall suffer death.

Poisoning.

Arsen.

Section 5. Every slave who shall willfully and maliciously set fire to, or burn any dwelling house, or out house appurtenant thereto, store house, office, bank house, ware house, or other edifice public or private, corn crib, gin house, cotton house, stable, barn, cotton in the heap of the value of one hundred dollars, or in bale, or any ship, steamboat, or other water craft, used in navigating the waters of this State, and be thereof convicted, shall suffer death.

Accessories.

Section 6. All accessories before the fact, to any of the crimes heretofore enumerated, shall be deemed principals and may be tried, though the principal offenders be not taken or convicted.

Manslaughter

Section 7. Every slave who shall be guilty of the manslaughter of a slave, free negro, or mulatto, and be thereof convicted, shall be punished by any number of stripes, not exceeding thirty-nine, or be branded in the hand or both, at the discretion of the jury.

Perjury.

Section 8. Every slave who shall commit the crime of perjury, shall be punished with thirty-nine lashes, and branding in the hand with the letter P.

Section 9. Whenever a slave shall be a witness in any cause, it shall be the duty of the presiding judge to explain to him or her the nature of the oath about being administered; and also state to him or her, the punishment for swearing falsely; and if the court before whom any slave is sworn, shall have reason to believe that he or she has sworn falsely, it shall be the duty of the court to direct him or her to be taken into custody, and as soon as practicable to cause a jury to be empannelled to try the fact, and if such slave be found guilty, the court shall, without delay, cause the proper punishment to be inflicted.

Oath to be explained, &c.

Section 10. The trial of all slaves for capital offences shall be by the circuit court of the proper county, in the mode now provided by law for the trial of white persons; but on such trial the slave shall be allowed but twelve peremptory challenges, and the State but four, and at least two-thirds of the jury shall be slaveholders; but if there be an actual or threatened rebellion of the slaves of this State, it shall be the duty of any justice of the peace, before whom any slave or free person of color, is brought, charged with a capital offence, if there be probable grounds for believing him or her guilty of the offence charged, to commit him or her to the county jail, and appoint a time for the trial of the offence not more than fifteen days from the commitment; it shall also, at the same time be the duty of such justice to give a notice of the time of trial, to the judge of the county court, and some other justice of the peace, to attend the trial, which notice may be served by the sheriff or any constable; if there be no judge of the county court one other justice of the peace, shall be summoned in his stead to attend, and a majority of the persons thus summoned shall constitute a court for the trial of the offence, and if neither attend, any justice may summon two others forthwith, to attend and try the cause.

Trial for capital offences.

In case of rebellion.

Section 11. It shall also be the duty of the justice making such commitment, to require the sheriff in writing, to summon a jury, to appear at the time appointed for the trial of the accused, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff to summon a jury, possessing the qualifications prescribed by the chapter, entitled grand and petit jury, to consist of twenty-four persons, at least two thirds of whom shall be slaveholders; and if the pannel should be exhausted by challenges or otherwise, the deficiency shall be made up from the by-standers; but no one having an interest in such slave, shall be a competent juror, or sit on the trial.

Juries.

Section 12. In all trials thus to be had it shall be sufficient for the solicitor or counsel, prosecuting for the State, to write out a brief statement of the nature of the crime, and sign his name thereto, to which the accused shall be required to plead; but if he or she refuse, the court shall cause the plea of not guilty to be entered and proceed to the trial of the cause.

Brief.

Section 13. If the owner of any slave should neglect or refuse to employ counsel to defend the prisoner, the court shall assign counsel for that purpose, who shall be authorized to demand from the owner ten dollars for this service; and if any free negro be unable to employ counsel, the court shall assign counsel for his defence, who shall be entitled to a fee of ten dollars, to be paid out of the treasury of the State.

Counsel.

Trials.

Section 14. Trials to be had, as aforesaid, shall be held in the court house of the county, where it shall be the duty of the sheriff and clerk of the circuit court to attend, and the clerk shall keep a record of the proceedings on the minutes of the court.

Subpœnas.

Section 15. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court or the committing magistrate, to issue all subpœnas or other legal process, as well for the prisoner as the State, which shall be executed by the sheriff or a constable, and for which they shall receive the fees now provided by law for similar services.

If found guilty.

Section 16. If any slave or free person of color, shall be found guilty under this act, it shall be the duty of the court to pronounce sentence, and to cause execution to be done in the manner prescribed by law for white persons; and not more than twenty, nor less than ten days, shall elapse between the time of passing sentence, and such execution, unless delay become necessary on account of the situation of the convict, as provided for in the eighth chapter: and on a conviction for conspiracy, insurrection or rebellion, the sentence may be executed forthwith.

Petit larceny.

Section 17. For the offence of petit larceny, or any offence of a lesser grade, any slave may be tried by any justice of the peace on warrant, and may be sentenced to receive any number of stripes, not exceeding fifty, which sentence shall be executed by the constable; but no justice of the peace shall be authorized to inflict more than thirty-nine lashes, unless he associates with him at least two respectable slaveholders, who concur with him in the propriety of the sentence.

Other offences.

Section 18. All offences committed by a slave of a higher grade than petit larceny, and not capitally punished, which may be committed by slaves, and which, if committed by a white person or a free negro, would, by the provisions of this code, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, shall be tried by the judge of the county court and two justices of the peace, as provided for in this chapter; and the jury shall, by their verdict, direct the punishment to be inflicted, which shall not exceed thirty-nine lashes, or branding in the hand, or both, at their discretion.

Jury to assess value.

Section 19. Whenever, on the trial of any slave for a capital offence, the jury shall return a verdict of guilty, the court shall direct the same jury to be sworn to assess the value of such slave, and the verdict ascertaining such value, shall be entered on the minutes of the court; and the master or owner of such slave, producing to the comptroller of public accounts, a transcript from the minutes of the court, certified by the clerk, together with the certificate of the sheriff, that the slave has been executed pursuant to the sentence of the court, shall receive a warrant on the treasurer, for the value assessed by the jury, to be paid out of the fund for that purpose provided.

Where master is in fault.

Section 20. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting officer, whenever he has just cause to believe that the master is to blame for the offence committed by the slave, to introduce testimony to establish the fact; and if the jury so find, the master shall receive no compensation whatever; and when a slave is executed upon a charge of insurrection, or rebellion, the master shall not be entitled to receive from the State, any part of his value.

Section 21. It shall not be lawful for any free negro or person of color to come into this State, on board of any vessel, as a cook steward, mariner or in any other employment, on board of such vessel; and in case any vessel shall arrive in any port or harbor of this State, from any other State or foreign port, having on board any free negro or person of color employed on board such vessel as a cook, steward, mariner or in any other employment, it shall be the duty of the harbor-master of the port or harbor, when such vessel may have arrived, forthwith to notify the sheriff of the county in which such port or harbor is situated, of the arrival of such vessel, free negro or person of color; and it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the county in which such port or harbor is situated, immediately on receiving notice from the harbor-master of the arrival of such vessel or vessels, to apprehend such free negro or person of color so arriving, contrary to this act, and to confine him, her or them, closely in jail, until such vessel shall be hauled off from the wharf, and be ready to proceed to sea; and when said vessel is ready to sail, the captain or other commander of said vessel, shall be bound to carry away the said free negro or person of color, and pay the expenses of his, her or their arrest and detention; and in case such captain shall refuse or neglect to pay the said expenses, and carry away the said free negro or person of color, he shall be liable to indictment, and on conviction, be fined, not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned, not exceeding six months, one or both, at the discretion of the jury trying the offence.

Free negroes coming into the State.

Section 22. Whenever any free negro or person of color shall be apprehended or committed to jail, as having arrived in any vessel as a cook, steward, mariner or otherwise, contrary to this act, it shall be the duty of the sheriff, during the confinement in jail of such free negro or person of color, to call upon some justice of the peace, to warn such free negro or person of color, never to enter this State after he or she shall have departed therefrom; and such justice of the peace, shall, at the time of warning said free negro or person of color, insert his or her name in a book, to be provided by the sheriff for that purpose; and shall therein specify his or her age, complexion, occupation, height, or distinguishing marks, which entry shall be good and sufficient evidence of such warning; and every free negro or person of color, who shall not depart the State within twenty days after his release from confinement, in case of the captain's refusing or neglecting to carry him or her away, being warned as aforesaid to depart, or having departed, shall ever again enter within the limits of this State, by land or water, he or she, shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, for two years; and if on his liberation from the penitentiary, he or she does not depart from the State, within thirty days thereafter, he or she, shall, on conviction, be imprisoned in the penitentiary, for the term of five years.

Duty of sheriff.

Section 23. It shall be the duty of the sheriff apprehending any Sheriff apprehending, &c.

free negro or person of color under the provisions of the preceding section, to demand of the captain of such vessel, or other person bringing such free negro or person of color into this State, a bond with good and sufficient surety, in the sum of two thousand dollars, payable to the judge of the county court, and his successors in office, conditioned that he will not depart this State, without taking with him such free negro or person of color, and paying all the expenses of apprehending, warning and confinement; and all prosecutions under this act, may be maintained without limitation of time, and all penalties and forfeitures imposed thereby may be recovered in any court of record in this State, and the amount collected, shall be paid by the sheriff collecting the same, to the county treasurer for county purposes.

Fees.

Section 24. The fees to be allowed and paid for the services required in the foregoing sections, shall be to the harbor master two dollars, for giving notice of the arrest of each and every free negro or person of color to the sheriff three dollars, for apprehending and committing; and fifty cents per day while in confinement; and to the justice of the peace for the duties required of him, two dollars; and to the solicitor, for each and every recovery under this act, the sum of twenty dollars.

How proceeded against.

Section 25. Every free negro who shall have come to this State, since the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, otherwise than as aforesaid, and shall have been admonished by any sheriff, justice of the peace, or other judicial officer, that he cannot remain in this State, and shall not, within thirty days thereafter depart from the same, shall on conviction be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for two years, and shall have thirty days after his discharge from the penitentiary to leave the State, and on failing to do so, shall on conviction be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for the term of five years.

To notify negroes.

Section 26. It shall be and is hereby made the duty of all sheriffs, justices of the peace, and all other judicial officers to give warning to and admonish all free negroes within their jurisdiction who have come to this State, since the first day of February, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, that they cannot, by law, remain within the same.

Sheriff to apprehend.

Section 27. It shall be the duty of all sheriffs to apprehend all free negroes who remain within this State contrary to the provisions of the preceding sections, and cause them to be dealt with according to law.

Commissioners to report to Governor.

Section 28. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners of the penitentiary to report to the Governor of the State of Alabama, when the penitentiary building shall be ready for the reception of convicts; and that thereupon proclamation be made by the Governor of that fact; and that from and after the date of said proclamation, this act shall be in full force and effect: Provided, that offences committed prior to the date of the said proclamation, be proceeded against and punished as theretofore: And provided further, that all laws and parts of laws coming in conflict with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, except as to any crime or punishment, enumerated or provided for by this bill: Provided, the Governor shall not issue his proclamation before the first day of October next.

Of the General Assembly of the State of Alabama, in response to certain resolutions of the State of Maine, in relation to the North Eastern Boundary question.

1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That we hold it to be the solemn and imperative duty of the Federal Government, faithfully to maintain towards the State of Maine, every obligation she is under in justice, honor, or compact touching the establishment of the North Eastern Boundary, of said State.

2. That said government is further bound in defence of her own honor, not to concede to Great Britain, any claim, not strictly founded in right and justice in the matter aforesaid.

3. That we sincerely deprecate a resort to force, until every honorable, peaceful expedient has been exhausted, in this and every other like controversy.

4. That the question of the North Eastern Boundary, concerns the whole Union, and is not one, local in its character to the State of Maine, although she is confessedly more directly interested than any other, in its adjustment; and that for the reason here set forth, it is the duty of the State of Maine, to trust the decision of the matter to the councils of the Union, and abide thereby, whatever it may finally be, whether exactly consistent with her wishes or not; if Congress says, go to war, we will cheerfully obey the mandate, but we should deeply regret to see the State of Maine take any rash step, which might tend to plunge her sister States into war, more through mere feeling and sympathy, than from deliberate choice and determination, on their part.

5. That the Governor of this State be requested to forward to the Governor of Maine, a copy of the foregoing resolutions, as the response of this General Assembly to her resolutions of the eighteenth of May last, communicated to us by the Governor of this State, agreeably to a request contained in her said resolutions.

Approved, 31st December, 1840.

 JOINT RESOLUTION,

In relation to the Branch Bank of the State of Alabama, at Decatur.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That the commissioners appointed by his Excellency, the Governor, to examine the Branch of the Bank of the State of Alabama, at Decatur, and the President and Cashier, of said Branch Bank, be, and they are hereby permitted to delay there respective reports to this legislature, until the thirtieth instant, and that all penalties and forfeitures, arising from a failure to make an earlier report, be, and the same is hereby remitted, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Approved, 13th November, 1840.

JOINT RESOLUTION,

In relation to the Public Arms.

Whereas, in the opinion of this General Assembly, the place where the public arms, belonging to the State of Alabama, are deposited, is unsafe, and at all times accessible to robbers, or malicious persons : Therefore,

1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That the Governor, be, and he is hereby requested to have all the public arms, in the arsenal at this place, immediately removed from where they now are, and placed in a more safe and secure depository, to be provided by him for that purpose.

2. Be it further resolved, That the sum of, not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars, is hereby appropriated and set apart for the erection of an arsenal: Provided, in the opinion of the Governor, the same be necessary for the safe keeping of the public arms, and in the event the erection of an arsenal may be deemed necessary, as aforesaid, the same shall be erected under the superintendence of the Governor, and the commissioners heretofore appointed under the provisions of an act entitled, "An act providing for the erection of a State Capitol," or such of said commissioners as may be now in office, and the said arsenal shall be erected at such site and on such plan as may be selected by the Governor and commissioners.

3. And be it further resolved, That if there is not now a sufficient number of the commissioners in office to constitute a quorum, that all vacancies shall be filled by the Governor, as provided in the act above referred to.

Approved, January 9th, 1841.

JOINT RESOLUTION,

In relation to the appropriation made by Congress to Hart and Bosworth and John Hart, of Irwinton, Alabama.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That the Comptroller of Public Accounts, be requested to procure from the War Department, an exact account for which Congress, at the last session appropriated to Hart and Bosworth, merchants of Irwinton, Alabama, and of John Hart, merchant of the same place, a sum not to exceed two thousand three hundred and eleven dollars and ninety cents, and to lay the same before the legislature as soon as possible.

Approved, December 1st, 1840.

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS,

Of the General Assembly of the State of Alabama, responsive to certain resolutions of the State of Connecticut, in favor of the protective policy.

Certain resolutions of the State of Connecticut, have been communicated by the Governor of this State, to this General Assembly, agreeably to a request contained in said resolutions, which express sentiments in favor of which they designate 'the protective policy of our government;' and contain a request to the Senators and Representatives in Congress from said State, to resist by all constitutional means, any attempt to destroy or impair said policy, and to use their exertions to procure the passage of such laws as will effectually protect the labor of this country from the policy and legislation of foreign governments. The said resolutions further signify that it is the wish of our sister State, to obtain from us, an expression of our sentiments on the subject to which her said resolutions relate.

It becomes us in courtesy, under such circumstances, to make answer, which we proceed respectfully to do as follows :

We presume we properly comprehend the State of Connecticut, as intending by the words 'protective policy of our government,' in her aforesaid resolutions, a protective tariff, and by the words 'labor of this country,' the manufacturing labor of this country. So understanding our sister State, we cannot forbear expressing our surprise and regret to find, that she should feel it incumbent on her to press this fruitful source of discord and distraction, upon the attention of Alabama and the south, at this time. Two years in advance of the expiration of that 'compromise,' which has for a period, allayed the fierce and angry passions to which the 'protective policy' had heretofore given rise. But as she has thought proper to call upon us, for our sentiments on this subject, we proceed to give them fully embodied in the following resolutions, the principles of which we would kindly, but firmly admonish our sister Connecticut, that we are determined to maintain at every hazard.

1. Be it therefore resolved unanimously, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, That that the government of the United States was established, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, and promote the general welfare,' to and among the several separate and sovereign States of this Union, and to secure the blessings of liberty to us and our children, as citizens of said States.

2. Resolved unanimously, That said government never can establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, or promote the general welfare of this widely extended Union, and the diversified interests and pursuits thereof, especially in view of their peculiar relations aforesaid, by enacting laws to foster, promote and protect the industry and occupation of one portion of the States or people, to the disparagement, injury and expense of another.

3. Resolved unanimously, That a tariff, for the protection of manufactures always was, and always must remain obnoxious to the objections set forth in the foregoing resolution, and that consequently, every such measure always has been and ever will be, in our estimation, unwise, unjust and unconstitutional.

4. Resolved unanimously, That in the solemn and deliberate opinion of this General Assembly, a successful attempt to re-establish the 'protective policy,' while it cannot fail to alienate the feelings of one portion of our happy Union from another, and provoke fierce political animosities between the North and the South, ultimately and irresistably tends to a dissolution of the Federal compact between these States: That in view of such consequences, we earnestly and affectionately dissuade our Northern brethren from any such attempt. //

5. Resolved unanimously, That the Governor of this State, be requested to forward a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions to the Governor of the State of Connecticut, and the Governors of each of the other States; and also, copies to each of our Senators and Representatives, the former of whom are instructed, and the latter requested, to use all honorable and proper means to sustain the principles therein set forth. //

JOINT RESOLUTION,

Of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, requiring the Secretary of State to furnish the printer with a copy of the acts so soon as approved by the Governor.

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, That the Secretary of State be required to furnish the State Printer with copies of the acts passed at this session, so soon as approved by the Governor.

Approved, December 1, 1840.

JOINT RESOLUTION,

Authorizing Thomas Wilson to draw and receipt for the pay of George R. Griffin, deceased, late a member of the House of Representatives, from the county of Jackson.

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, That Thomas Wilson be and he is hereby authorized, to draw and receipt for the pay of George R. Griffin, deceased, late a member of the House of Representatives from the county of Jackson, and that the receipt of the said Wilson, shall to all intents and purposes, be as valid and binding as though made by the said George R. Griffin in person, were he living, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Approved, January 7, 1841.

JOINT MEMORIAL AND RESOLUTIONS,

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled.

The memorial of the General Assembly of the State of Alabama, most respectfully represents, That in the late Creek War with the Creek Indians, the State of Alabama expended and has actually paid, from one hundred and twenty-five to one hundred and fifty-thousand dollars, as will appear from a statement certified by the Comptroller and Treasurer, and now on file in the War Department; and owing to the irregularities and difficulties inseparable from Indian warfare, it is impossible to present vouchers, conformable to the requirements of the War Department. Your memorialists are, nevertheless, fully satisfied that the whole amount expended and paid by the State of Alabama, constitutes an equitable claim upon the government of the United States. They therefore pray your honorable bodies to take the subject into consideration, and to provide for the payment of the same, in such manner as the wisdom and liberality of Congress may seem meet, and as in duty bound, they will ever pray.

Resolved, That our Senators be instructed, and Representatives be requested, to urge said claims on the favorable attention of Congress.

Resolved, That a copy of this memorial be forwarded to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, by the Governor, with a request it be submitted to each of their respective Houses.

Approved, January 9, 1841.

PREAMBLE AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS,

Of the General Assembly of the State of Alabama, in relation to the establishment of a Land District, in the Cherokee Nation, &c.

Whereas, economy in the management of the affairs of a nation, is at all times desirable; and whereas, the continuance of the Land Office at Mardisville, in the State of Alabama, is no longer justified by public convenience, or any other just public consideration, but involves the Government in a useless expenditure of the public treasure. And whereas, it is highly desirable that a Land Office should be established in the Cherokee territory, belonging to this State; and whereas, the annexation of the Cherokee territory to the Coosa land district would not make a larger land district, than the Tallapoosa land district,

Be it therefore resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, That our Senators and Representatives in Congress, be requested to use their best efforts to procure the removal of the Land Office at Mardisville from its present location to some eligible place in the Cherokee territory.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor of this State be requested to send a copy of this preamble and these resolutions, to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

JOINT RESOLUTION,

Responsive to certain Resolutions of South Carolina, in relation to the Georgia and Maine Controversy.

The committee on federal relations, to whom was referred certain joint resolutions of the Legislature of South Carolina, in relation to the Georgia and Maine controversy, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to report, that after a careful examination of the facts and circumstances set forth in the preamble to said joint resolutions, connected with the felonious, stealing and carrying away the slave, Atticus, by Daniel Philbrook and Edward Kilbron, from the State of Georgia, and transporting him to the State of Maine ; and the refusal of the Executive of the State of Maine to surrender said Philbrook and Kilbron, as fugitives from justice, upon demand made by the Governor of Georgia, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Constitution, they have come to the conclusion that the demand made was legal and proper,—that the right was clear under the constitution, and the refusal to surrender was inconsistent with the constitutional obligations of a State. They therefore concur in the following resolutions of said State, and recommend their adoption by the General Assembly of this State :

1. Resolved, That it is the duty, as well as the right, of any State, to insist on the faithful observance of the Federal Constitution, by each State in the Union.

2. Resolved, That to define crimes and felonies within its jurisdiction, is an incident to the sovereignty of each State, and that no other State can question the exercise of that right.

3. Resolved, That to demand the surrender and removal of fugitives from justice, is, by the Constitution, a right, and the arrest and surrender, a duty ; the denial or impairment of this right, is inconsistent with the constitutional obligations of a State, and subversive of the peace and good government of the other States.

4. Resolved, That the right has been impaired, if not denied, by the authorities of Maine ; and that this State will never consent, that any State shall become an asylum for those who are fugitives from the justice of other States.

5. Resolved, That this State will make common cause with any State of this confederacy, in maintaining its just rights under the guaranty of the Constitution of the United States ; and should the obligations of this instrument be disregarded by those whose duty it may be to enforce them, it will take council of its co-States, of this confederacy, having similar interests to protect and similar injuries to redress, in devising and adopting such measures as will maintain, at every hazard, these rights ; and that property, which the obligations of the compact of union, cancelled as they then will be, as to us, have failed to enforce.

6. Resolved, That the Executive of this State, be requested to transmit to the Executives of the several States, to be laid before their respective Legislatures, to the President of the United States, and to our Senators and Representatives in Congress, a copy of the above report, and of these resolutions.

JOINT RESOLUTION

In Relation to the Supreme Court Decisions.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That the Secretary of this State, be, and he is hereby directed to send to the Executive of each of the States of the Union, a copy of the decisions of the Supreme Court of this State, commencing with the first volume of Porter's Reports, and such as may be hereafter published.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be required to deposit in the library of the Supreme Court, all the decisions of the Courts of other States that are now, or may be hereafter sent to his office.

And be it further Resolved, That all the volumes of decisions of the Supreme Court of this State, up to ninth Porter's Reports, inclusive, belonging to the State, and not otherwise disposed of, be sold by the Governor of the State of Alabama, at the price of three dollars per volume, on such time of payment and security, as he may deem best. Except that, four copies of each of the volumes, be retained; of which two copies shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary of State, and two in the library of the Supreme Court, for the use of the several departments of the Government.

Approved, December 15, 1840.

JOINT MEMORIAL

Of the General Assembly of the State of Alabama, to the Congress of the United States, in relation to a Land District, in the Cherokee Nation.

Your memorialists beg leave to represent to your Honorable Body, that the portion of the late Cherokee Nation, which is in the State of Alabama, forms three entire counties, which are settled with a dense population; and very great inconvenience to the people will be occasioned by attaching those counties to any one or more of the Land Districts now established in Alabama. Your memorialists, therefore, ask that a Land Office be established at some convenient point in one of the counties in the late Cherokee Purchase.

Resolved, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives requested, to use their best efforts to pass a law in accordance with the foregoing memorial, as well as for the passage of a law reducing the minimum price of the public lands.

Resolved, That the Governor be instructed to transmit a copy of the foregoing memorial and resolutions to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Approved, December 4, 1840.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Authorizing the Governor to cause Gold Medals to be made and presented to Miss Mary McKerly and Sisters.

Be it Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, That his Excellency, the Governor, be, and he is hereby authorized to cause to be made and presented to Miss Mary McKerly and Sisters, three gold medals, bearing appropriate inscriptions and devices, the cost of which shall not exceed sixty dollars, as a testimony of the regard entertained by this General Assembly, for their skill, industry and enterprize, in the culture and manufacture of silk.

Approved, January 5, 1841.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, requiring the Attorney General to perform certain things therein specified.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama in General Assembly convened, That the Attorney General be required to take such measures, if there be any legal means by which it can be done, to recover back for the State, a certain amount of money which may have been improperly appropriated, and paid to Hart & Bosworth and John Hart, merchants of Irwinton, in this State, by an act of the Legislature, approved, 9th January, 1840.

Approved, January 9, 1841.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, }
Tuscaloosa, Ala. March 24th, 1841, }

I have carefully examined the foregoing Acts, Memorials, and Resolutions, and find them to be true copies of the original rolls in this Office.

W. GARRETT,
Secretary of State.
